FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

The administrative law judge denied the Applicant's motion for provisional relief allowing it to hold raffle games prior to entry of the final order in this case.

Subsequent thereto the parties briefed the issue of whether Petitioner should be allowed to renew its 2002 annual raffle license.

Because Applicant's arguments in support of its application for renewal of same are not persuasive and because the issue is now moot, given the fact that the license renewal expired on December 31, 2002, it is the Determination of this tribunal that a final order be entered this date denying the license renewal for the year 2002.
