TITLE 114, SERIES 40

BRIEF SUMMARY OF RULE

These amendments to the rule track the National Association of Insurance Commissioner's Model Act on Credit for Reinsurance. By amending, the West Virginia rule will track the language of the model act amended in 2002, and therefore, continue to allow West Virginia to keep pace with the ever-evolving reinsurance situation. Specifically, the amendments include additional requirements for the maintenance of a reinsurance trust fund, required provisions for those trust agreements that are not able to meet their obligations, and provides further clarification as to what may be considered a letter of credit. In addition, the amendments delete Appendix A, form AR-1, so that if any changes to the form are necessary, legislative rule amendments will not be necessary in the future. However, the form will still be accessible through the Insurance Commission and the NAIC.

STATEMENT OF CIRCUMSTANCES

The West Virginia Legislature adopted Series 40 in 1995 to comply with the National Association of Insurance Commissioner's model act on Credit for Reinsurance for accreditation purposes. To date, the NAIC has adopted amendments to the model act, however, the West Virginia rule has not been amended to track the model. The amendments contained in the rule include additional requirements for the maintenance of a reinsurance trust fund, required provisions for those trust agreements that are not able to meet their obligations, and provides further clarification as to what may be considered a letter of credit. In addition, the amendments delete Appendix A, form AR-1, so that if any changes to the form are necessary, legislative rule amendments will not be necessary in the future. However, the form as adopted by the NAIC can still be acquired by contacting the Insurance Commission or the NAIC.

Letters of credit meeting applicable standards of issuer acceptability as of the dates of their issuance (or confirmation) shall, notwithstanding the issuing (or confirming) institution's subsequent failure to meet applicable standards of issuer acceptability, continue to be acceptable as security until their expiration, extension, renewal, modification or amendment, whichever first occurs.

d. Any other form of security acceptable to the commissioner.

9.2. An admitted asset or a reduction from liability for reinsurance ceded to an unauthorized assuming insurer pursuant to ~~paragraphs a, b, c, of subsection 1~~ subdivisions a, b, and c, subsection 9.1 of this rule section shall be allowed only when the requirements of sections 10, 11 or 12 of this rule are satisfied.

10.1. As used in this section:

a. "Beneficiary" means the entity for whose sole benefit the trust has been established and any successor of the beneficiary by operation of law. If a court of law appoints a successor in interest to the named beneficiary, then the named beneficiary includes and is limited to the court appointed domiciliary receiver (including a conservator, rehabilitator or liquidator).

b. "Grantor" means the entity that has established a trust for the sole benefit of the beneficiary. When established in conjunction with a reinsurance agreement, the grantor is the unlicensed, unaccredited assuming insurer.

c. "Obligations," as used in ~~paragraph k, subsection 2~~ subdivision k, subsection 10.2 of this section means:

- ~~A: 1.~~ Reinsured losses and allocated loss expenses paid by the ceding company, but not recovered from the assuming insurer;
- ~~B: 2.~~ Reserves for reinsured losses reported and outstanding;
- ~~C: 3.~~ Reserves for reinsured losses incurred but not reported; and
- ~~D: 4.~~ Reserves for allocated reinsured loss expenses and unearned premiums.

10.2. Required conditions.

a. The trust agreement shall be entered into between the beneficiary, the grantor and a trustee which shall be a qualified United States financial institution as defined in ~~West Virginia~~ W. Va. Code §33-4-15a(f).

b. The trust agreement shall create a trust account into which assets shall be deposited.

c. All assets in the trust account shall be held by the trustee at the trustee's office in the United States, except that a bank may apply for the Commissioner's permission to use a foreign branch office of the bank as trustee for trust agreements established pursuant to this section. If the Commissioner approves the use of a foreign branch office as trustee, then its use must be approved by the beneficiary in writing and the trust agreement must provide that the written notice described in ~~subparagraph A, of paragraph d, of subsection 2 of this section~~ paragraph 1, subdivision d of this subsection must also be presentable, as a matter of legal right, at the trustee's principal office in the United States.

d. The trust agreement shall provide that:

~~A: 1.~~ The beneficiary has the right to withdraw assets from the trust account at any time, without notice to the grantor, subject only to written notice from the beneficiary to the trustee;

~~B: 2.~~ No other statement or document is required to be presented in order to

Insurance Commissioner
Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

withdraw assets, except that the beneficiary may be required to acknowledge receipt of withdrawn assets;

~~C. 3.~~ It is not subject to any conditions or qualifications outside of the trust agreement; and ~~D. 4.~~ It shall not contain references to any other agreements or documents except as provided for under ~~subparagraph D, paragraph K~~ subdivision k of this subsection.

e. The trust agreement shall be established for the sole benefit of the beneficiary.

f. The trust agreement shall require the trustee to:

~~A. 1.~~ Receive assets and hold all assets in a safe place;

~~B. 2.~~ Determine that all assets are in a form that the beneficiary, or the trustee upon direction by the beneficiary, may whenever necessary negotiate the assets, without consent or signature from the grantor or any other person or entity;

~~C. 3.~~ Furnish to the grantor and the beneficiary a statement of all assets in the trust account upon its inception and at intervals no less frequent than the end of each calendar quarter;

~~D. 4.~~ Notify the grantor and the beneficiary within ten (10) days, of any deposits to or withdrawals from the trust account;

~~E. 5.~~ Upon written demand of the beneficiary, immediately take any and all steps necessary to transfer absolutely and unequivocally all right, title and interest in the assets held in the trust account to the beneficiary and deliver physical custody of the assets to the beneficiary; and

~~F. 6.~~ Allow no substitutions or withdrawals of assets from the trust account, except on written instructions from the beneficiary, except that the trustee may, without the consent of but with notice to the beneficiary, upon call or maturity of any trust asset, withdraw the asset upon condition that the proceeds are paid into the trust account.

g. The trust agreement shall provide that at least thirty (30) days, but not more than forty-five (45) days, prior to termination of the trust account, written notification of termination shall be delivered by the trustee to the beneficiary.

Insurance Commissioner
Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

h. The trust agreement shall be made subject to and governed by the laws of the state in which the trust is established.

i. The trust agreement shall prohibit invasion of the trust corpus for the purpose of paying compensation to, or reimbursing the expenses of, the trustee. In order for a letter of credit to qualify as an asset of the trust, the trustee shall have the right and the obligation pursuant to the deed of trust or some other binding agreement (as duly approved by the commissioner), to immediately draw down the full amount of the letter of credit and hold the proceeds in trust for the beneficiaries of the trust if the letter of credit will otherwise expire without being renewed or replaced.

j. The trust agreement shall provide that the trustee is liable for its own negligence, willful misconduct or lack of good faith. The failure of the trustee to draw against the letter of credit in circumstances where such draw would be required shall be deemed to be negligence and/or willful misconduct.

k. Notwithstanding other provisions of this rule, when a trust agreement is established in conjunction with a reinsurance agreement covering risks other than life, annuities and accident and health, where it is customary practice to provide a trust agreement for a specific purpose, a trust agreement may, notwithstanding any other conditions in this rule, provide that the ceding insurer shall undertake to use and apply amounts drawn upon the trust account, without diminution because of the insolvency of the ceding insurer or the assuming insurer, for the following purposes:

~~A~~: 1. To pay or reimburse the ceding insurer for the assuming insurer's share under the specific reinsurance agreement regarding any losses and allocated loss expenses paid by the ceding insurer, but not recovered from the assuming insurer, or for unearned premiums due to the ceding insurer if not otherwise paid by the assuming insurer;

~~B~~: 2. To make payment to the assuming insurer of any amounts held in the trust account that exceed one hundred and two percent (102%) of the actual amount required to fund the assuming insurer's obligations under the specific reinsurance agreement; or

~~C~~: 3. Where the ceding insurer has received notification of termination of the trust account and where the assuming insurer's entire obligations under the specific reinsurance agreement remain unliquidated and undischarged ten (10) days prior to the termination date, to withdraw amounts equal to the obligations and deposit those amounts in a separate account, in the name of the ceding insurer in any qualified United States financial institution as defined in ~~West Virginia~~ W. Va. Code §33-4-15a(f) apart from its general assets, in trust for such uses and purposes specified in ~~subparagraphs A and B of paragraph k~~ paragraphs 1 and 2 of this subsection subdivision

Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

as may remain executory after the withdrawal and for any period after the termination date.

† A. The reinsurance agreement entered into in conjunction with the trust agreement may, but need not, contain the provisions required by ~~subparagraph B of paragraph a of subsection 4~~ paragraph 2, subdivision a, subsection 10.4 of this section, so long as these required conditions are included in the trust agreement.

l. Notwithstanding other provisions of this rule, when a trust agreement is established in conjunction with a reinsurance agreement covering life, annuities or accident and health, where it is customary practice to provide a trust agreement for a specific purpose, a trust agreement may, notwithstanding any other conditions in this rule, provide that the ceding insurer shall undertake to use and apply amounts drawn upon the trust account, without diminution because of the insolvency of the ceding insurer or the assuming insurer, for the following purposes:

1. To pay or reimburse the ceding insurer for:

A. The assuming insurers's share under the specific reinsurance agreement of premiums returned, but not yet recovered from the assuming insurer, to the owners of policies reinsured under the reinsurance agreement on account of cancellations of the policies; and

B. The assuming insurer's share under the specific reinsurance agreement of surrenders and benefits or losses paid by the ceding insurer, but not yet recovered from the assuming insurer, under the terms and provisions of the policies reinsured under the reinsurance agreement;

2. To pay to the assuming insurer amounts held in the trust account in excess of the amount necessary to secure the credit or reduction from liability for reinsurance taken by the ceding insurer; or

3. Where the ceding insurer has received notification of termination of the trust and where the assuming insurer's entire obligations under the specific reinsurance agreement remain unliquidated and discharged ten (10) days prior to the termination date, to withdraw amounts equal to the assuming insurer's share of liabilities, to the extent that the liabilities have not yet been funded by the assuming insurer, and deposit those amounts in a separate account, in the name of the ceding insurer in any qualified U.S. financial institution apart from its general assets, in trust for the uses and purposes specified in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this subdivision as may remain executory after withdrawal and for any period after the termination date.

m. Notwithstanding any other provisions in the trust instrument, if the grantor of the trust has been declared insolvent or placed into receivership, rehabilitation, liquidation or similar proceedings under the laws of the its state, country or domicile, the trustee shall comply with an order of the commissioner of with regulatory oversight over the trust or court of competent jurisdiction directing the trustee to transfer to the commissioner with regulatory oversight or other designated receiver all of the assets of the trust fund. The assets shall be applied in accordance with the priority statutes and laws of the state in which the trust is domiciled applicable to the assets of insurance companies in liquidation. If the commissioner with regulatory oversight determines that the assets of the trust fund or any part of thereof are not necessary to satisfy claims of the U.S. beneficiaries of the trust, the assets or any part of them shall be returned to the trustee for distribution in accordance with the trust agreement.

Insurance Commissioner
Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

10.3. Permitted conditions.

a. The trust agreement may provide that the trustee may resign upon delivery of a written notice of resignation, effective not less than ninety (90) days after receipt of the notice by the beneficiary and grantor and that the trustee may be removed by the grantor by delivery to the trustee and the beneficiary of a written notice of removal, effective not less than ninety (90) days after receipt of the notice by the trustee and the beneficiary. No resignation or removal is effective until a successor trustee has been duly appointed and approved by the beneficiary and the grantor and all assets in the trust have been duly transferred to the new trustee.

b. The grantor may have the full and unqualified right to vote any shares of stock in the trust account and to receive from time to time payments of any dividends or interest upon any shares of stock or obligations included in the trust account. The trustee shall promptly forward to the grantor, or deposit in a separate account established in the grantor's name, any interest or dividends received by the trustee.

c. The trustee may be given authority to invest, and accept substitutions of, any funds in the account, provided that no investment or substitution shall be made without prior approval of the beneficiary, unless the trust agreement specifies categories of investments acceptable to the beneficiary and authorizes the trustee to invest funds and to accept substitutions which the trustee determines are at least equal in market value to the assets withdrawn and that are consistent with the restrictions in ~~subparagraph B of paragraph a of subsection 4~~ paragraph 2, subdivision a, subsection 10.4 of this section.

d. The trust agreement may provide that the beneficiary may at any time designate a party to which all or part of the trust assets are to be transferred. The transfer may be conditioned upon the trustee receiving other specified assets, prior to or simultaneously with the transfer.

e. The trust agreement may provide that, upon termination of the trust account, all assets not previously withdrawn by the beneficiary shall, with written approval by the beneficiary,

Insurance Commissioner
Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

be delivered over to the grantor.

10.4. Additional conditions applicable to reinsurance agreements.

a. A reinsurance agreement, which is entered into in conjunction with a trust agreement and the establishment of a trust account, may contain provisions that:

~~A~~: 1. Require the assuming insurer to enter into a trust agreement and to establish a trust account for the benefit of the ceding insurer, and specify what the agreement is to cover;

~~B~~: 2. Stipulate that assets deposited in the trust account shall be valued according to their current fair market value and shall consist only of cash (United States legal tender), certificates of deposit (issued by a United States bank and payable in United States legal tender), and investments of the types permitted by Chapter 33 of the West Virginia Code or any combination of the above, provided that the investments are issued by an institution that is not the parent, subsidiary or affiliate of either the grantor or the beneficiary. The reinsurance agreement may further specify the types of investments to be deposited. Where a trust agreement is entered into in conjunction with a reinsurance agreement covering risks other than life, annuities and accident and health, then the trust agreement may contain the provisions required by this paragraph in lieu of including them in the reinsurance agreement;

~~C~~: 3. Require the assuming insurer, prior to depositing assets with the trustee, to execute assignments or endorsements in blank, or to transfer legal title to the trustee of all shares, obligations or any other assets requiring assignments, in order that the ceding insurer, or the trustee upon the direction of the ceding insurer, may whenever necessary negotiate these assets without consent or signature from the assuming insurer or any other entity;

~~D~~: 4. Require that all settlements of account between the ceding insurer and the assuming insurer be made in cash or its equivalent; and

~~E~~: 5. Stipulate that the assuming insurer and the ceding insurer agree that the assets in the trust account, established pursuant to the provisions of the reinsurance agreement, may be withdrawn by the ceding insurer at any time, notwithstanding any other provisions in the reinsurance agreement, and shall be utilized and applied by the ceding insurer or its successors in interest by operation of law, including without limitation any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator of the company, without diminution because of insolvency on the part of the ceding insurer or the assuming insurer, only for the following purposes:

(b) B. To reimburse the ceding insurer for the assuming insurer's share of surrenders and benefits or losses paid by the ceding insurer pursuant to the provisions of the policies reinsured under the reinsurance agreement;

(c) C. To fund an account with the ceding insurer in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the ceding insurer liabilities for policies ceded under the agreement. The account shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, claims and losses incurred (including losses incurred but not reported), loss adjustment expenses and unearned premium reserves; and

(d) D. To pay any other amounts the ceding insurer claims are due under the reinsurance agreement.

b. The reinsurance agreement may also contain provisions that:

~~A. 1.~~ 1. Give the assuming insurer the right to seek approval from the ceding insurer to withdraw from the trust account all or any part of the trust assets and transfer those assets to the assuming insurer, provided:

(a) A. The assuming insurer shall, at the time of withdrawal, replace the withdrawn assets with other qualified assets having a market value equal to the market value of the assets withdrawn so as to maintain at all times the deposit in the required amount, or

(b) B. After withdrawal and transfer, the market value of the trust account is no less than one hundred and two percent (102%) of the required amount.

The ceding insurer shall not unreasonably or arbitrarily withhold its approval.

~~B. 2.~~ 2. Provide for:

(a) A. The return of any amount withdrawn in excess of the actual amounts required for ~~parts (a), (b) and (c) of subparagraph E of paragraph a of subsection 4 subparagraphs A, B and C, paragraph 5, subdivision a of this section subsection, or in the case of part (d) of subparagraph E of paragraph a subparagraph D, paragraph 5, subdivision a of this subsection,~~ any amounts that are subsequently determined not to be due; and

(b) B. Interest payments, at a rate not in excess of the prime rate of

Insurance Commissioner
Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

interest, on the amounts held pursuant to ~~part (c) of subparagraph E of paragraph a~~ subparagraph C, paragraph 5, subdivision a of this subsection.

€. 3. Permit the award by any arbitration panel or court of competent jurisdiction of:

(a) A. Interest at a rate different from that provided in ~~part (b) of subparagraph B of paragraph b~~ subparagraph B, paragraph 2, subdivision b of this subsection,

(b) B. Court or arbitration costs,

(c) C. Attorney's fees, and

(d) D. Any other reasonable expenses.

c. Financial reporting. A trust agreement may be used to reduce any liability for reinsurance ceded to an unauthorized assuming insurer in financial statements required to be filed with the commissioner in compliance with the provisions of this rule when established on or before the date of filing of the financial statement of the ceding insurer. Further, the reduction for the existence of an acceptable trust account may be up to the current fair market value of acceptable assets available to be withdrawn from the trust account at that time, but the reduction shall be no greater than the specific obligations under the reinsurance agreement that the trust account was established to secure.

d. Existing agreements. Notwithstanding the effective date of this rule, any trust agreement or underlying reinsurance agreement in existence prior to January 1, 1993, will continue to be acceptable until the expiration or renewal date of the agreement, at which time the agreement will have to be in full compliance with this rule for the trust agreement to be acceptable.

e. The failure of any trust agreement to specifically identify the beneficiary as defined in subsection 1 of this section shall not be construed to affect any actions or rights which the commissioner may take or possess pursuant to the provisions of the laws of this state.

§114-40-11. Letters of Credit Qualified Under Section 9.

11.1. The letter of credit must be clean, irrevocable and unconditional and issued or confirmed by a qualified United States financial institution as defined in ~~West Virginia~~ W. Va. Code §33-4-15a(f). The letter of credit shall contain an issue date and date of expiration and shall stipulate that the beneficiary need only draw a sight draft under the letter of credit and present it to obtain funds and that no other document need be presented. The letter of credit shall also indicate that it is not subject to any condition or qualifications outside of the letter of credit. In addition, the letter of credit itself shall not contain reference to any other agreements, documents or entities, except as provided in ~~paragraph a, subsection 9~~ subdivision a, subsection 11.9 of this section. As used in this section, "beneficiary" means the ceding insurer for whose benefit the letter of credit has been established and any successor of the beneficiary by operation of law. If a court of law appoints a successor in interest to the named beneficiary, then the named beneficiary includes and is limited to the court appointed domiciliary receiver (including a conservator, rehabilitator or liquidator).

Insurance Commissioner
Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

11.2. The heading of the letter of credit may include a boxed section which contains the name of the applicant and other appropriate notations to provide a reference for the letter of credit. The boxed section shall be clearly marked to indicate that such information is for internal identification purposes only.

11.3. The letter of credit shall contain a statement to the effect that the obligation of the qualified United States financial institution under the letter of credit is in no way contingent upon reimbursement.

11.4. The term of the letter of credit shall be for at least one year and shall contain an "evergreen clause" which prevents the expiration of the letter of credit without due notice from the issuer. The "evergreen clause" shall provide for a period of no less than thirty (30) days' notice prior to the expiration date or nonrenewal.

11.5. The letter of credit shall state whether it is subject to and governed by the laws of this state or the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits of the International Chamber of Commerce (Publication 400), and all drafts drawn under the letter of credit shall be presentable at an office in the United States of a qualified United States financial institution.

11.6. If the letter of credit is made subject to the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits of the International Chamber of Commerce (Publication 400), then the letter of credit shall specifically address and make provision for an extension of time to draw against the letter of credit in the event that one or more of the occurrences specified in Article 19 of Publication 400 occur.

11.7. The letter of credit shall be issued or confirmed by a qualified United States financial institution authorized to issue letters of credit, pursuant to ~~West Virginia~~ W. Va. Code §33-4-15a(f).

11.8. If the letter of credit is issued by a qualified United States financial institution authorized to issue letters of credit, other than a qualified United States financial institution as described in subsection 7 of this section, then the following additional requirements shall be met:

Insurance Commissioner
Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

a. The issuing qualified United States financial institution shall formally designate the confirming qualified United States financial institution as its agent for the receipt and payment of the drafts; and

b. The "evergreen clause" shall provide for thirty (30) days' notice prior to expiration date for nonrenewal.

11.9. Reinsurance agreement provisions.

a. The reinsurance agreement in conjunction with which the letter of credit is obtained may contain provisions which:

~~A.~~ 1. Require the assuming insurer to provide letters of credit to the ceding insurer and specify what they are to cover;

~~B.~~ 2. Stipulate that the assuming insurer and ceding insurer agree that the letter of credit provided by the assuming insurer pursuant to the provisions of the reinsurance agreement may be drawn upon at any time, notwithstanding any other provisions in the agreement, and shall be utilized by the ceding insurer or its successors in interest only for one or more of the following reasons:

~~(a)~~ A. To reimburse the ceding insurer for the assuming insurer's share of premiums returned to the owners of policies reinsured under the reinsurance agreement on account of cancellations of the policies;

~~(b)~~ B. To reimburse the ceding insurer for the assuming insurer's share of surrenders and benefits or losses paid by the ceding insurer under the terms and provisions of the policies reinsured under the reinsurance agreement;

~~(c)~~ C. To fund an account with the ceding insurer in an amount at least equal to the deduction, for reinsurance ceded, from the ceding insurer's liabilities for policies ceded under the agreement (the amount shall include, but not be limited to, amounts for policy reserves, claims and losses incurred and unearned premium reserves); and

~~(d)~~ D. To pay any other amounts the ceding insurer claims are due under the reinsurance agreement.

~~(e)~~ E. Where the letter of credit will expire without renewal or be reduced or replaced by a letter of credit for a reduced amount and where the assuming insurer's entire obligations under the specific reinsurance remain unliquidated and undischarged ten (10) days prior to the termination date, to withdraw amounts equal to the assuming insurer's share of the

Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

liabilities, to the extent that the liabilities have not yet been funded by the assuming insurer and exceed the amount of any reduced or replacement letter of credit, and deposit those amounts in a separate account in the name of the ceding insurer in a qualified U.S. financial institution apart from its general assets, in trust for such uses and purposes specified in this subsection as may remain after withdrawal and for nay period after the termination date.

~~€. 3.~~ All of the foregoing provisions of paragraph subdivision a of this subsection should be applied without diminution because of insolvency on the part of the ceding insurer or assuming insurer.

b. Nothing contained in paragraph subdivision a of this subsection precludes the ceding insurer and assuming insurer from providing for:

~~A. 1.~~ An interest payment, at a rate not in excess of the prime rate of interest, on the amounts held pursuant to ~~part (c), subparagraph B, paragraph a~~ subparagraph C, paragraph 2, subdivision a of this subsection; and/or

~~B. 2.~~ The return of any amounts drawn down on the letters of credit in excess of the actual amounts required for the above or, in the case of ~~part (d), subparagraph B, paragraph a~~ subparagraph D, paragraph 2, subdivision a of this subsection, any amounts that are subsequently determined not to be due.

c. When a letter of credit is obtained in conjunction with a reinsurance agreement covering risks other than life, annuities and health, where it is customary practice to provide a letter of credit for a specific purpose, then the reinsurance agreement may, in lieu of ~~subparagraph B, paragraph a~~ paragraph 2, subdivision a of this subsection, require that the parties enter into a "Trust Agreement" which may be incorporated into the reinsurance agreement or be a separate document.

11.10. A letter of credit may not be used to reduce any liability for reinsurance ceded to an unauthorized assuming insurer in financial statements required to be filed with the commissioner unless an acceptable letter of credit with the filing ceding insurer as beneficiary has been issued on or before the date of filing of the financial statement. Further, the reduction for the letter of credit may be up to the amount available under the letter of credit but no greater than the specific obligation under the reinsurance agreement which the letter of credit was intended to secure.

§114-40-12. Other Security.

A ceding insurer may take credit for unencumbered funds withheld by the ceding insurer in the United States which are subject to withdrawal solely by the ceding insurer and under its exclusive control.

Insurance Commissioner
Legislative Rule
Title 114, Series 40

§114-40-13. Reinsurance Contract.

Credit will not be granted to a ceding insurer for reinsurance effected with assuming insurers meeting the requirements of sections 4, 5, 6, 7, or 9 of this rule or otherwise in compliance with ~~West Virginia~~ W. Va. Code §33-4-15a(c) after the adoption of this rule unless the reinsurance agreement:

13.1. Includes a proper insolvency clause pursuant to ~~West Virginia~~ W. Va. Code §33-4-15(c); and 13.2. Includes a provision pursuant to ~~West Virginia~~ W. Va. Code §33-4-15a(c)(6) whereby an unauthorized assuming insurer has submitted to the jurisdiction of a court of competent jurisdiction within the United States, has agreed to comply with all requirements necessary to give the court jurisdiction, has designated an agent upon whom service of process may be effected, and has agreed to abide by the final decision of the court.

§114-40-14. Contracts Affected.

All new and renewal reinsurance transactions entered into after the effective date of this rule shall conform to the requirements of ~~West Virginia~~ W. Va. Code §33-4-15a and this rule if credit is to be given to the ceding insurer for the reinsurance.

§114-40-15. Severability.

If any provisions of this rule, or their application to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, that determination shall not affect other provisions or applications of this rule which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions of this rule are separable.
