Re: Title 114, Series 67 Procedural Rule – Repeal

Dear Ms. Cooper:

The Offices of the Insurance Commissioner requests that the above subject procedural rule be repealed in its entirety effective August 21, 2009.

Effective January 1, 2009 the Offices of the Insurance Commissioner began requiring that all insurance rate, rule and form filings be submitted via the System for Electronic Rate and Form Filings (SERFF). All fees due in connection with such filings must now be paid with Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) and any paper filings received after January 1, 2009 will now be returned to the filer without review. This change eliminated the need for the Appendices found in this rule that were used for paper filings as they are no longer accepted. Informational Letter #163 sets forth the electronic requirement which updates Title 114, Series 67 that requires paper filings. Therefore the procedural rule is outdated and not needed.

Sincerely,

Timothy R. Murphy
Associate Counsel
