WEST VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Brief Summary of the proposed rule to amend meat and poultry inspection rules

In 1996, the West Virginia Department of Agriculture adopted, by reference, Federal meat and poultry inspection regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture in the Federal Register prior to January 1, 1995.

Our rules must be periodically updated in order to maintain our "equal to" status and continue Federal funding of our Program.

The proposed rule is intended to update the incorporation, by reference, of Federal regulations promulgated in the Federal Register before June 1, 1997.

Gus R. Douglass, Commissioner

Charleston, West Virginia

WEST VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Statement of Circumstances which require the rule

The Federal Meat Inspection Act and the Poultry Products Inspection Act that provide for Federal-State Cooperative Inspection Programs require, using identical language, that State programs must have laws and regulations, and other procedures, that are "at least equal to" Federal ones. Maintenance of updated regulations is one of the conditions for receiving Federal funds to run a State program--50% of total operating costs.

Therefore, to provide food safety at the required level and continue receiving Federal funds (about $600,000 annually), the rules governing inspection of meat and poultry promulgated by the West Virginia Commissioner of Agriculture in 1996 need to be updated to conform with Federal regulations.
