194-1-5 Hearing for revocation, suspension, nonrenewal.

5.1 Scope. - These procedural rules establish procedures for hearings before the Board.

5.2 Definitions. - The following words and phrases as used in these rules shall have the following meanings.

- (a) "Board" means the West Virginia Massage Therapy Licensure Board.
- (b) "Demanding party" means an individual who has been denied a license to practice
- (c) massage therapy by the Board and who demands that the Board hold a hearing on the denial.
- (d) "Charged party" means an individual who holds a license to practice massage therapy issued by the Board and who has been charged by the board as described in subsections (c) and (d) of section 5.3 of these rules.
- (e) "Licensee" means an individual who holds a license to practice massage therapy issued by the Board.
- (f) "Chair" means chairperson of the Board.

5.3 Hearing Procedures.

(a) Any person denied a license by the Board who believes the denial was in violation of W. Va. Code §30-1-1 et seq. and/or 30-37-1 et seq. shall be entitled to a hearing on the denial upon presenting a written demand for hearing to the Board.

(b) When a written demand for hearing is received by the Board, the chair of the Board or the chair's authorized designee shall schedule a hearing within forty-five (45) days of receipt of the demand, unless postponed to a later date by mutual agreement of the demanding party and the chair or chair's designee.

(c) The Board may institute charges against any licensee when probable cause exists that the licensee has engaged in conduct that violates W. Va. Code § 30-37-1 et seq. or the Board's legislative rules. Charges may be based upon a verified written complaint filed with the Board and information gathered pursuant to the Board's investigation of the complaint. Charges may also be based on information gained solely through investigation by the Board.

(d) Charges initiated against a licensee as described in subsection (c) of this section shall be set forth in a Complaint and Notice of Hearing issued in the name of the Board as the agency of the state regulating the practice of massage therapy. The complaint and notice of hearing shall designate the Board as "Complainant", and designate the licensee involved as the "Respondent"; shall state the substance of each offense charged with sufficient particularity to reasonably apprise the Respondent of the nature, time and place of the conduct or condition which is the subject of the complaint; shall state the time, date and place of hearing; and, shall contain a statement of intention by the Board to appoint a hearing examiner.

(e) Upon receipt of a demand for a hearing described in subsection (a) and (b) of this section, the Chair of the Board or the chair's designee shall provide the demanding party with a Complaint and Notice Of Hearing issued in the name of the Board as the agency of the state regulating the practice of massage therapy. Such Complaint and Notice of Hearing shall designate the demanding party as the "Complainant", and shall designate the Board as the "Respondent"; shall set out the substance of each and every reason that the Board has denied the demanding party a license with sufficient particularity to reasonably apprise the demanding party of the nature, time and place of the conduct or condition at issue therein; shall state the date, time and place for the hearing; and, shall contain a statement of intention by the Board to appoint a hearing examiner.

(f) The Board may amend the charges set forth in a Complaint and Notice Of Hearing as it deems proper.

(g) A complaint and Notice Of Hearing, original or amended, shall be served on the demanding or charged party at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of hearing.

(h) Upon written motion received by the Board no later than twenty (20) days prior to the date of hearing, a more definite statement of the matters charged or the reasons stated for denial of licensure shall be provided to the demanding or charged party or his or her counsel.

(i) Hearings shall be conducted as follows:

(1) Each party to a hearing shall be entitled to be represented by an attorney-at-law, duly qualified to practice law in the State of West Virginia.

(2) The Board may be represented by counsel from the West Virginia Attorney General's office.

© Upon motion of the Board or any party assigning error or omission in any part of a transcript, the Board or its appointed hearing examiner shall settle all differences arising as to whether the transcript truly discloses what occurred at the hearing, and shall direct that the transcript be corrected and/or revised as appropriate so as to make it conform to the hearing.

(d) A transcript of the hearing shall be provided to all members of the Board for review at least ten (ten) days before the Board's vote is taken on its decision in any licensure or licensure disciplinary matter.

5.5 Submission of Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

(a) Any party may submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law at a time and in a manner designated by the Board or its appointed hearing examiner.

5.6 Hearing Examiner.

(a) The Board may appoint a hearing examiner who shall be empowered to subpoena witnesses and documents, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses under oath, rule on evidentiary matters, hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of issues by consent of the parties, cause to be prepared a record of the hearing so that the Board is able to discharge its functions, and otherwise conduct hearings.

(b) The hearing examiner shall prepare recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law for submission to the Board. The Board may adopt, modify or reject the hearing examiner's findings of fact and conclusions of law.

5.7 Conferences: Informal Disposition of Cases.

(a) At any time prior to the beginning of the hearing or thereafter, the Board, its designee or its appointed hearing examiner may hold conferences with the "demanding" or "charged party" for the following purposes:

- (1) To dispose of procedural requests, prehearing motions or similar matters;
- (2) To narrow or settle issues by consent of the parties; or
- (3) To provide for the informal disposition of cases by stipulation or agreement.

(b) The Board or its appointed hearing examiner may cause such conferences to be held on its own motion or by the request of a party.

© The Board may also initiate or consider stipulation or agreement proposals with regard to the informal disposition of cases and may enter into stipulations and/or consent agreements without conference.

5.8 Depositions.

(a) Evidentiary depositions may be taken and read or otherwise included into evidence as in civil actions in the circuit courts of this State.

5.9 Subpoena.

(a) Subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of documents may be issued by the Board, the Board's designee, or by the hearing examiner appointed by the Board. Subpoenas shall be issued pursuant to W. Va. Code §29A-5-1(b).

(b) Written requests by a party for the issuance of subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum must be received by the Board no later than ten (10) days before a scheduled hearing. Any party requesting the issuance of subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum is responsible for having them properly served in accordance with W. Va. Code §29A-5-1(b).

5.10 Orders.

(a) Any final order entered by the Board following a hearing conducted by these rules shall be entered within 45 days following the submission to the Board of all documents and materials necessary for the proper disposition of the case, including transcripts, and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, pursuant to W. Va. Code §§29A-5-3 and 30-1-8(d).

(b) The findings of fact and conclusions of law must be approved by a majority of the Board by vote at a regular meeting, before a final order is entered. A copy of the final order approved by a majority of the Board shall be served upon the demanding or charged party and/or his attorney of record, if any, within five (5) days after entry by the Board by personal service or by registered or certified mail.

5.11 Appeal.

(a) An appeal from any final order entered in accordance with these rules shall comply with W. Va. Code §30-1-9.

5.12 Severability.

(a) If any provision of this rule, or the application thereof, to any person or circumstance is determined to be invalid, the invalidity shall not affect the provisions or applications of this rule which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of this rule are severable.
