7.4. Traffic Accidents Not Involving Convictions - Although W. Va. Code §17B-2-14 provides the Division to keep records on traffic accidents, the Division will not assign points for any traffic accident not involving a conviction. However, when a licensee has accumulated sufficient points to result in a review of his or her record as outlined in Subsection 7.12 of this rule, the Division may consider records on file in the Division of any accident not involving a conviction.

7.5. Traffic Convictions - The Division shall note the appropriate number of points indicated in Subsection 7.2 of this rule on the driver record of any licensee convicted of any of the offenses listed in Subsection 7.2 in West Virginia Circuit, Magistrate or Municipal Court. Consistent with the provisions in W. Va. Code §17B-3-3 the Division shall charge any licensee of the State of West Virginia convicted in any other state, municipality of another state or in the District of Columbia of any offense described in Subsection 7.2 of this rule in violation of any statute or ordinance of such other state, municipality of another state or District of Columbia with the appropriate number of points shown in Subsection 7.2 of this rule opposite the description of the offense. 7.7. Points assigned for Same Occurrence - When a licensee is convicted of two or more offenses arising out of the same occurrence, the Division shall assign points for only one of the offenses. When there is a difference in the point values of the offenses, the Division shall assign the greater point value.

7.8. Revocations - W. Va. Code §17B-3-5 provides that certain convictions shall result in an automatic revocation, as opposed to suspension, of the driver's license of the person convicted. The Division records these convictions on the licensee's driver record with no assignment of points. The Division assesses points for reckless driving convictions unless three convictions occur within a period of twenty-four months. In these cases, the licensee is subject to the mandatory revocation in accordance with W. Va. Code §17B-3-5(5). When any person is convicted in the State of West Virginia for an offense for which no point value is assigned but for which a certified abstract of judgment on the conviction is required and furnished to the Division under the provisions of W. 7.10.d. When a licensee accumulates eighteen to nineteen points, the period of suspension is ninety days.

7.10.e. When a licensee accumulates twenty or more points, the Division shall suspend the licensee's privilege to operate a motor vehicle until his or her driving record reflects less than twelve points.

7.10.f. Any additional points accrued while suspended in accordance with the schedule in this subdivision will result in additional periods of suspension to run consecutively.

7.11. Length Of Time Points Maintained On Driving Record - The Division shall remove the points assessed for a conviction two years from the date of the conviction. However, the conviction shall remain a part of the drivers' record.

7.12. Effective Starting Time for Period of Suspension - The suspension of any driver's license under the Driver Improvement Program is effective ten days from the mailing of the notice of suspension. ~~The Division shall calculate eligibility for reinstatement in accordance with Division of Motor Vehicles Rule, Eligibility for Reinstatement Following Suspension or Revocation, 91CSR16.~~

7.13. Hearings - In accordance with the provisions of W. Va. Code §17B-3-6, any licensee whose license is suspended ~~or placed on probation~~ is entitled to a hearing. The scope of the hearing is whether or not the person whose license is suspended is the same person to whom the citations were issued or that the point total is incorrect. The licensee shall request a hearing in accordance with the provisions of Division of Motor Vehicles Rule, Administrative Due Process 91CSR1, and the Division shall conduct the hearing as provided in the rule.

8.1.a. Points To Be Deducted Upon Successful Completion - Attendance at any Driver Improvement course is voluntary on the part of the licensee however, on successful completion of a course, the Division shall deduct three points from the total points shown on the driver record of the licensee who has reached the age of eighteen years or older or obtained a level three full driver's license. The Division shall deduct points for completing a course once during any ~~five~~ two year period, if the licensee has eleven (11) points or less, and has no outstanding violations which would place the licensee over the eleven (11) point level. The Division shall not deduct points from any licensee's record when the licensee has attended and received a certificate from a driver improvement course prior to accumulating any points on his or her driver record.

8.1.b. The Division shall remove three points from the licensee's record after the licensee submits a certificate from the instructor of the course to the Division of Motor Vehicles, showing that the course has been completed by the licensee.

8.1.c. Although the Division shall subtract three points from the driver record, the record of all convictions involving motor vehicles shall remain so that if at any future time sufficient points are accumulated to cause the Division to require another review, the Division may consider the conviction for which the points were eliminated along with all other convictions of record in the Division in determining the action, if any, the Division will take following the review.

8.2. Professional Truck Driver Course - In order for the Division to deduct points that have been assessed against a licensee who holds a valid commercial driver's license, the licensee shall successfully complete an approved Professional Truck Driver Course. All requirements outlined in Sections 8.1 and 8.2 of this rule apply to the Professional Truck Driver Course.

8.3. Graduated Driver Improvement Course- In accordance with the provisions of W. Va. Code §17B-2-3a(j)(2)(G), any level 2 licensee under the age of eighteen who has been convicted of a moving traffic offense or violation of the terms and conditions of a level two intermediate drivers license shall complete an approved graduated driver improvement course prior to obtaining a level 3 full license. The course shall consist of at least four hours of instruction specifically designed for younger drivers.

8.3.a. Completion of the Graduated Driver Improvement Course shall not remove the record of conviction from a licensee's record. In accordance with the provisions of W. Va. Code §17B-2-3a(j)(2)(H), the privilege to operate a motor vehicle of any licensee who holds a graduated driver's license shall be revoked until the licensee's eighteenth birthday or longer if applicable, upon the second conviction for a moving traffic violation or violation of the terms and conditions of a level two intermediate license.

8.3.b. Completion of the Graduated Driver Improvement Course shall not affect the provisions of W. Va. Code §17B-2-3a(k)(1)(B) which establishes a prerequisite of conviction free driving for the twelve months immediately preceding the date of application for a level three full license.

8.3.c. A licensee who is convicted of either improper backing or operation of a vehicle without lighted lamps or lights when required to be lighted, may apply to the division for relief of the calculation of the one year of conviction free driving upon completion of the course. Course completion, if not contrary to federal graduated driver license program certification rules shall negate the effect of the minor moving violation for the purposes of calculating eligibility for a level three full license.

8.3.d. Completion of the driver improvement course as provided in subsection 8.1 of this rule may substitute for the requirements of this subdivision if a Graduated Driver Improvement Course is not available. However, a licensee under the age of eighteen who completes the course as substitution may repeat the course for the purposes of point reduction after obtaining a level three full license.

Upon the conclusion of the examination, the Division shall take action as may be appropriate and may suspend or revoke the license of that person or may issue a license subject to restrictions as provided under W. Va. Code §17B-2-10. The Division may suspend or revoke the license of the licensee if he or she refuses or neglects to submit to the examination.

9.2. Good Cause- For the purposes of this rule, good cause means:

9.2.c. A written notice from an adult relative or care giver with an immediate knowledge of the licensee's driving ability or medical condition that impairs the licensee's ability to operate a motor vehicle. However, the Division shall not enter an immediate suspension or revocation of the licensee's driving privilege based solely on notice from an adult relative or care giver until a medical or driving reexamination has been completed; or

9.2.d. A written notice from an employee of a rehabilitation facility's driver education, driver training or other similar program, that in his or her judgement, the licensee is incompetent to drive a motor vehicle.

9.3. The Division of Motor Vehicles shall mail the notice of re-examination to the licensee's most recent driver license address on file with the Division by certified or registered letter. The notice shall contain the time and place designated for the re-examination and, also, shall contain a brief explanation that the Division may impose a suspension or revocation if the licensee fails to appear and submit to the re-examination as directed by the notice.

9.4. The re-examination consists of three parts.

9.4.a. The first part covering physical qualifications consists of a vision test and color blindness test and an inquiry into any physical disability. In addition to the physical qualifications, the driver examiner conducts a personal interview with the licensee.

9.4.b. The second part of the re-examination consists of a written test composed of questions of equal value. The licensee shall answer correctly a minimum of 70% of the questions covering motor vehicles' laws, rules of the road, highway warnings, traffic signs and signaling devices to pass the re-examination. The examiner may administer the written test verbally if the licensee is determined by the examiner to be illiterate. The reference document for the material on the test is the official Driver's Handbook as prescribed by the Division of Motor Vehicles.

15.5. Administrative Appeal- A licensee who believes that the license suspension order has been directed to the licensee in error may request an hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of West Virginia Legislative Rules, Division of Motor Vehicles, Administrative Due Process, 91 CSR 1. 15.6.b. The Division shall suspend the license of any person who violates the terms of the restricted license. The license suspension continues in effect until the Child Support Enforcement Division provides the Division with either a Court order withdrawing the license action or certification that the licensee is in compliance with the court order for the payment of current child support and arrearage and the payment of all fees.

1. The Division shall automatically suspend the license of a licensee who is convicted of violating the terms of a restricted driver's license until the licensee meets the terms of reinstatement. The administrative appeal provisions of Subsection 5.5 of this rule apply.

2. The Division shall automatically suspend the license when the Division receives notice from any law enforcement officer that a licensee has violated the terms of a restricted license until the licensee meets the terms of reinstatement. Proof of compliance shall not mean Court documents which do not contain the signature of the Circuit Court judge or family law master, unsigned notice from the Child Support Division, copies of certified checks, personal checks, money orders or personal representation.
