Hunting and Trapping Regulations 47 C.S.R. 11

Background of Problem Rule Currently in Effect

The existing 47 C.S.R. 11 is a legislative exempt rule which was last placed in effect September 18, 1990. This rule contains the agency's complete Hunting and Trapping regulations, both exempt and non-exempt provisions.

Agency Attempt to Correct Improper Filing of Hunting and Trapping Regulations

To correct this problem the current 47 C.S.R. 11 is being repealed and replaced by a purely exempt 47 C.S.R. 11 and the following non-exempt rules 47 C.S.R. 11A through 11I. Therefore, to have all the hunting and trapping regulations in place for the 1992-1993 seasons, it is necessary for 47 C.S.R. 11A through 11I to be filed as emergency rules and for 47 C.S.R. 11 to be repealed and replaced on the date the emergency 47 C.S.R. 11A through 11I rules become effective.

EMERGENCY RULE DECISION (ERD 18-92)

AGENCY: Natural Resources

Series 11C, Special Bear Hunting Regs
Series 11D, General Hunting Regs

Series 11H, General Trapping Regs
Series 11I, Dog Training Regs

FILED AS AN EMERGENCY RULE: July 28, 1992

- par. 1 The Natural Resources (DNR) has filed the above new rules as emergency rules.
- par. 2 West Virginia Code 29A-3-a requires the Secretary of State to review all emergency rules filed after March 8, 1986. This review requires the Secretary of State to determine if the agency filing such emergency rule: 1) has complied with the procedures for adopting an emergency rule; 2) exceeded the scope of its statutory authority in promulgating the emergency rule; or 3) can show that an emergency exists justifying the promulgation of an emergency rule.
- par. 3 Following review, the Secretary of State shall issue a decision as to whether or not such an emergency rule should be disapproved [(29A-3-a(a))].
- par. 4 (A) Procedural Compliance: WV Code 29A-3-15 permits an agency to adopt, amend or repeal, without hearing, any legislative rule by filing such rule, along with a statement of the circumstances constituting the emergency, with the Secretary of State and forthwith with the Legislative Rule-Making Review Committee (LRMRC).

- par. 5 If an agency has accomplished the above two required filings with the appropriate supporting documents by the time the emergency rule decision is issued or the expiration of the thirty-five day review period, whichever is sooner, the Secretary of State shall rule in favor of procedural compliance.
- par. 6 The filed this emergency rule with supporting documents with the Secretary of State July 28, 1992 and with the LRMRC July 28, 1992.
- par. 7 It is the determination of the Secretary of State that the DNR has complied with the procedural requirements of WV Code §29A-3-15 for adoption of an emergency rule.
- par. 8 (B) Statutory Authority -- WV Code §20-1-7(30) reads:
Promulgate rules and regulations, in accordance with the provisions of §29A-1-1 et seq. of this code, to implement and make effective the powers and duties vested in him by the provisions of this chapter and take such other steps as may be necessary in his discretion for the proper and effective enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.
- par. 9 It is the determination of the Secretary of State that the DNR has not exceeded its statutory authority in promulgating this emergency rule.
- par. 10 (C) Emergency WV Code 29A-3-15(g) defines "emergency" as follows:
(g) For the purposes of this section, an emergency exists when the promulgation of a rule is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety or welfare or is necessary to comply with a time limitation established by this code or by a federal statute or regulation or to prevent substantial harm to the public interest.
- par. 11 There are essentially three classes of emergency broadly presented with the above provision: 1) immediate preservation; 2) time limitation; and 3) substantial harm. An agency need only document to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that there exists a nexus between the proposal and the circumstances creating at least one of the above three emergency categories.
- par. 12 The facts and circumstances as presented by the DNR are as follows:
To correctly file the exempt rule the existing series 11 rule containing both exempt and non-exempt provisions must be repealed and replaced. Therefore to have in place for the 92-93 Hunting and Trapping season a complete set of Hunting and Trapping Regulations (exempt and non-exempt rules) it is necessary to file the non-exempt rules as emergency rules.

par. 13 It is the determination of the Secretary of State that this proposal qualifies under the definition of an emergency as defined in §29A-3-15(g).

par. 14 This decision shall be cited as Emergency Rule Decision 18-92 or ERD 18-92 and may be cited as precedent. This decision is available from the Secretary of State and has been filed with the Natural Resources, the Attorney General and the Legislative Rule Making Review Commission.
