3. Proposed legislative rule was filed on: August 20, 1991

8. State, with particularity, those facts and circumstances which make the emergency rule necessary to prevent substantial harm to the public interest.

The Division is seeking to divide the hunting and trapping regulations (47 C.S.R. 11) that had previously been filed on August 13, 1990 as a legislatively exempt regulation. The division seeks to only include those provisions falling under the authority of W. Va. Code §29A-1-3(c) in 47 C.S.R. 11. The remainder of the provisions not under the authority of W. Va. Code §29A-1-3(c) are broken into categories and are being filed as individual regulations that are required to be put through the legislative process. The exempt regulations will become effective immediately upon filing, however, they will lack the provisions that must be legislatively approved. The Division finds it necessary to promulgate these rules as an emergency to provide regulations for the upcoming 91-92 hunting seasons for the safety and welfare of the public and controlled hunting of wildlife within the State of West Virginia.

DECISION

EMERGENCY RULE DECISION
(ERD 82-91)

AGENCY: Division of Natural Resources
RULE: New Rule, Series 11G, Wild Boar Hunting Regulations
FILED AS AN EMERGENCY RULE: August 20, 1991

- par. 1 The Division of Natural Resources (DNR) has filed the above new rule as an emergency rule.
- par. 2 West Virginia Code 29A-3-a requires the Secretary of State to review all emergency rules filed after March 8, 1986. This review requires the Secretary of State to determine if the agency filing such emergency rule: 1) has complied with the procedures for adopting an emergency rule; 2) exceeded the scope of its statutory authority in promulgating the emergency rule; or 3) can show that an emergency exists justifying the promulgation of an emergency rule.
- par. 3 Following review, the Secretary of State shall issue a decision as to whether or not such an emergency rule should be disapproved [(29A-3-a(a))].
- par. 4 (A) Procedural Compliance: WV Code 29A-3-15 permits an agency to adopt, amend or repeal, without hearing, any legislative rule by filing such rule, along with a statement of the circumstances constituting the emergency, with the Secretary of State and forthwith with the Legislative Rule-Making Review Committee (LRMRC).
- par. 5 If an agency has accomplished the above two required filings with the appropriate supporting documents by the time the emergency rule decision is issued or the expiration of the forty-two day review period, whichever is sooner, the Secretary of State shall rule in favor of procedural compliance.

par. 6 The DNR filed this emergency rule with supporting documents with the Secretary of State August 20, 1991 and with the LRMRC August 20, 1991.

par. 7 It is the determination of the Secretary of State that the DNR has complied with the procedural requirements of WV Code §29A-3-15 for adoption of an emergency rule.

par. 8 (B) Statutory Authority -- WV Code §20-1-7(30) reads:

(30) Promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with the provisions of §29A-1-1 et seq. of this code, to implement and make effective the powers and duties vested in him by the provisions of this chapter and take such other steps as may be necessary in his discretion for the proper and effective enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

par. 9 It is the determination of the Secretary of State that the DNR has not exceeded its statutory authority in promulgating this emergency rule.

par. 10 (C) Emergency .WV Code 29A-3-15(g) defines "emergency" as follows:

(g) For the purposes of this section, an emergency exists when the promulgation of a rule is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety or welfare or is necessary to comply with a time limitation established by this code or by a federal statute or regulation or to prevent substantial harm to the public interest.

par. 11 There are essentially three classes of emergency broadly presented with the above provision: 1) immediate preservation; 2) time limitation; and 3) substantial harm. An agency need only document to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that there exists a nexus between the proposal and the circumstances creating at least one of the above three emergency categories.

par. 12 The facts and circumstances as presented by the DNR are as follows:

The Division is seeking to divide the hunting and trapping regulations (47 CSR 11) that had previously been filed on August 13, 1990 as a legislatively exempt regulation. The division seeks to only include those provisions falling under the authority of W. Va. Code §29A-1-3(c) in 47 CSR 11. The remainder of the provisions not under the authority in W. Va. Code §29A-1-39(c) are broken into categories and are being filed as individual regulations that are required to be put through the legislative process. The exempt regulations will become effective immediately upon filing, however, they will lack the provisions that must be legislatively approved. The Division finds it necessary to promulgate these rules as an emergency to provide regulations for the upcoming 91-92 hunting seasons for the safety and welfare of the public and controlled hunting of wildlife within the State of West Virginia.

par. 13 It is the determination of the Secretary of State that this proposal qualifies under the definition of an emergency as defined in §29A-3-15(g). . . "prevent substantial harm to public interest."

par. 14 This decision shall be cited as Emergency Rule Decision 82-91 or ERD 82-91 and may be cited as precedent. This decision is available from the Secretary of State and has been filed with the Division of Natural Resources, the Attorney General and the Legislative Rule Making Review Commission.
