BRIEF SUMMARY
AND
STATEMENT OF CIRCUMSTANCES REQUIRING CHANGES

1. Changes statute cites from §37-14 to §30-38.
2. Changes definition of 'classroom hour' to allow the board more latitude in approving computer-based continuing education courses.
3. Changes definition of "Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice".
4. Changes language with respect to licensure and certification fees; adds fees for apprentice permit, certificate of good standing, copying documents, upgrade application, exemption from supervisory accompaniment application, rosters, duplicate wall certificate and pocket card, USPAP book.

Note: This is not a fee increase, just cleanup language.

5. Requires apprentices and supervisors, under certain conditions, to attend apprentice orientation program offered by the board.
6. Adopts 2001 edition of Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP).

§190-2-8. Procedure for Calculation of Experience by the Board.

8.1. As provided for in Sections 6 and 7 of this rule, an applicant for residential real estate appraiser licensing or certification must provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant possesses the required amount of appraisal experience. The board may award maximum experience hours for residential real estate appraisals as follows:

8.1.a. A maximum of twelve hours of credit for a complex residential appraisal;

8.1.b. A maximum of four hours of credit for a complex residential field review;

8.1.c. A maximum of two hours of credit for a complex residential desk review;

8.1.d. A maximum of six hours of credit for a non-complex residential appraisal;

- 8.4.b. Adequate data is available to the appraiser;
 - 8.4.c. Adjustments to comparable sales are not large in the aggregate, specifically not exceeding the trading range found in the market of essentially identical properties; and
 - 8.4.d. For residential property, the contract price falls within the market norm (median sales price) of homes in the neighborhood.
- 8.5. For the purpose of this section only: a complex appraisal:
- 8.5.a. For non-residential property is one that relies to any significant degree on all three approaches to value (cost, sales comparison and income) or does not have the characteristics of a non-complex appraisal.
 - 8.5.b. For residential property is one that relies to any significant degree on at least two of the three approaches to value, with one approach being the sales comparison approach, or does not have the characteristics of a non-complex appraisal.
- 8.6. For each appraisal having three or more signers accepting responsibility, the board may award experience hour credit based upon the number of hours divided by the number of signers. For each appraisal having less than three signers who accept responsibility, the board may award each signer the maximum experience hour credit.
- 8.7. All appraisals submitted or claimed for experience credit are subject to verification by the board. Applicants may not claim experience hours for appraisals which are not supported by written reports or file memoranda. On request, the applicant shall furnish the board copies of appraisal reports and file memoranda supporting the experience hours sought by the applicant. The board shall treat all appraisal reports and file memoranda submitted to the board as confidential to the extent permitted by law.
- 8.8. Review appraisal experience must be matched hour for hour by experience in preparing appraisal reports other than as a review appraisal. The board may award matching appraisal experience for appraisal reports prepared at any time in the applicant's career.

§190-2-9. Qualifications for Licensure or Certification by Reciprocity.

- 9.1. An applicant who is currently licensed or certified as a real estate appraiser in another jurisdiction may obtain a West Virginia real estate appraiser license or certification by providing documentation that he or she has met educational, experience and examination requirements that are substantially equivalent to those required in West Virginia for the appropriate level of licensure or certification: Provided, that the other jurisdiction extends the same reciprocal consideration to all West Virginia licensed or certified appraisers in good standing in this state. All reciprocal applicants must pass the West Virginia appraiser law section of the licensing examination prior to licensure or certification and pay the appropriate fees provided for in Section 11 of this Rule.

9.2. Each applicant for a license or certification by reciprocity shall meet the following qualifications:

9.2.a. The applicant is at least 18 years of age;
