- 4.1.b.13. Real estate appraisal related computer applications;
- 4.1.b.14. Real estate securities and syndication; and
- 4.1.b.15. Real property exchange.

4.1.c. A licensee is not required to complete the required amount of classroom hours of continuing education as a condition for initial license or certification renewal if the time between the effective date on the initial license or certification as a licensee and the beginning of the first renewal term is less than nine (9) months.

- 4.2. A course provider shall issue notice of satisfactory course completion to any licensee who attended a minimum of 90% of the classroom hours of approved course instruction. The licensee for renewal is responsible for submitting a certificate stating that he or she has satisfactorily completed the course to the Board with his or her application for renewal.
- 4.3. The course provider shall fully inform each licensee of the standards and requirements at the commencement of the course. The course provider shall monitor the attendance of licensees and submit the attendance records to the Board. The Board shall use the attendance records to verify documentation submitted with a licensee's application for renewal.

§190-3-5. Policies and Procedures of the Board for Approving Continuing Education Courses.

- 5.1. The Board shall evaluate and approve courses for the purpose of accepting hours for continuing education of a licensee for the renewal of a license, certification or permit.
- 5.2. The Board may grant credit towards the classroom hour requirement only when the length of the course is a minimum of three (3) hours.
- 5.3. In order for a course to be approved by the Board, the instructor shall present to the Board a written plan of the class including, but not limited to, a syllabus of the subject areas covered by the course and attendance requirements.
- 5.4. The Board shall determine whether the subject matter covered by the course is an approved topic listed in the Board's rule, "Requirements for Licensure and Certification", 190 CSR 2, subdivisions 6.1.g., 7.1.h., or 7.1.i., subdivision 4.1.b. of this rule, or other appropriate topic relating to the area of real estate appraisal activity.
- 5.5. The Board shall approve or disapprove courses and instructors after a determination that the course provider does or does not meet the standards of the Board. The Board shall maintain and provide licensees access to a list of approved courses.
 - 5.5.a. Instructors must meet at least one of the following qualifications:
 - 5.5.a.1. Hold a license or certification in West Virginia or in any other state at the level to be taught and have five (5) years appraisal experience within the past ten (10) years directly related to the subject matter to be taught;

- 5.5.a.2. Hold a license or certification in West Virginia or in any other state at the level to be taught and have five (5) years of teaching experience within the past ten (10) years in the subject matter to be taught;
 - 5.5.a.3. Have five (5) years of teaching experience within the past ten (10) years in the subject matter to be taught and pass an examination at the level to be taught;
 - 5.5.a.4. Have five (5) years appraisal experience within the past ten (10) years directly related to the subject matter to be taught and pass an examination at the level to be taught;
 - 5.5.a.5. Hold a baccalaureate or higher degree in a field directly related to subject matter to be taught, and pass an examination at the level to be taught; or
 - 5.5.a.6. Be a full time faculty member at a college or university teaching a credit course in appraising.
- 5.5.b. To teach a Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) course, the instructor must have successfully completed the 15-hour national USPAP instructor training course and examination adopted by the Appraisal Qualifications Board of the Appraisal Foundation, or its equivalent, and successfully complete the 7-hour national USPAP update course and examination, or its equivalent, every two years in order to maintain his or her USPAP teaching credential.
- 5.6. The Board shall determine whether or not a course meets the equivalency of an approved course based upon the topic of the course as it relates to the area of real estate appraisal and the amount of time which the course uses for instruction. The course provider has the responsibility of providing to the Board the information on the subject matter, the instructor and length of the program. The Board shall make a case by case determination of the equivalency value of the program.
- 5.7. The Board shall consider for approval those courses under the auspices of organizations or associations of professional real estate appraisers which are used for the purpose of awarding real estate appraiser designations or indicating compliance with the continuing education requirements of the organizations or associations.

§190-3-6. Procedures for renewal.

- 6.1. Prior to the expiration date of the license or certification, the Board shall mail a renewal application form to the address on file of each licensee. A licensee who does not receive the renewal application form is not relieved of the obligation to renew his or her license or certification if he or she desires to retain his or her license or certification.

§190-3-7. Board Discretion to Deny Renewal.

- 7.1. The Board may deny the renewal of a license or certification on any grounds enumerated in this rule or in the Board's rule, "Requirements for Licensure and Certification", 190 CSR 2. The Board may deny renewal for the same reasons as it may refuse an initial license or certification. The Board may also deny renewal consistent with the provisions of Section 5 of this rule.
- 7.2. The Board shall approve or deny each application for renewal within ninety (90) days of receipt of the application. Any licensee whose application for renewal is denied may demand and shall be afforded a hearing pursuant to W. Va. Code §30-1-8(e).

§190-3-8. Standards of professional appraisal practice.

- 8.1. Each licensee applying for renewal shall comply with generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice and generally accepted ethical rules to be observed by a real estate appraiser. Generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice are currently evidenced by the 2001 edition of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) promulgated by the appraisal foundation, which are incorporated by reference and on file with the board and the office of the secretary of state for use by all appraisers in the preparation of appraisal reports. This incorporation by reference contains no future additions or amendments. A copy of the USPAP may be obtained from the appraisal foundation.
