11.1.6. Obtaining or attempting to obtain a license or renewal of a license by bribery, theft or false representation;

11.1.7. Knowingly making a false statement on a form or written statement submitted to the Board;

11.1.8. Failure to comply with the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Social Workers;

11.1.9. Failure to report knowledge of professional misconduct by a licensee (A licensee who reports or provides evidence to the Board of the negligence, impairment, or incompetence of another licensee is immune from civil or criminal liability which may result by reason of that action or actions if made without actual malice and in the reasonable belief that the action is warranted by the facts known to him or her at the time); and,

11.1.10. A finding or preliminary finding by the Board that a license holder's continued practice of social work constitutes an immediate danger to the public.

11.2. An individual may file a complaint by contacting the Board in writing. The Board shall provide a complaint form or additional information about filing a complaint upon request.

11.3. The Board shall acknowledge receipt of a complaint within thirty (30) days by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

11.3.2. The Board shall notify a complainant whether or not it has determined there is a reasonable basis for the complaint within a reasonable period of time.

11.3.3. The Board shall notify a respondent within thirty (30) days after it determines there is a reasonable basis for a complaint. The Board shall notify by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

11.4. After finding a reasonable basis for a complaint, the Board shall conduct an investigation to determine if there is sufficient evidence to merit a hearing, negotiation of a consent agreement, application to a circuit court for an injunction and/or restraining order or take similar action involving disciplinary action. The Board shall conduct an investigation as follows:

11.4.1. The Board chair shall appoint a member or committee of the Board, or a special investigator, to investigate the allegations surrounding the complaint, consider the findings and make recommendations to the Board regarding the complaint, the investigation and the possibility of disciplinary action.

11.4.2. The Board shall mail a copy of a complaint to a respondent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, with a request of a detailed reply to the complaint allegations within fifteen (15) days. The Board is not required to await a reply prior to applying to a circuit court for an injunction or restraining order to enjoin the respondent from engaging in an act which constitutes or will constitute an immediate danger to the public.

11.4.3. The investigator shall submit a report for the Board which summarizes the information gathered during the investigation and provides a recommendation for action by the Board.

11.4.4. After reviewing the report the Board shall determine the existence of probable cause by a majority vote of all present. The investigator shall abstain from voting in proceedings arising from a complaint he or she has investigated.

11.4.5. The Board shall notify a respondent and a complainant by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, when probable cause has been determined to exist. A notice forwarded to a respondent includes the following information:

(a) That the Board shall suspend or revoke the respondent's license and/or take other disciplinary action as specified in the notice in thirty (30) days unless the respondent requests in writing an administrative hearing prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period;

(b) That the respondent has the right to a hearing;
(c) That the respondent has the right to subpoena and present witnesses and documents on his or her behalf;

(d) That the respondent has the right to be represented by a lawyer at his or her expense and to cross-examine witnesses; and,

(e) That the complaint will not result in an administrative hearing if the respondent and Board mutually agree upon the findings of fact, conclusions of law and imposed sanctions contained in a consent agreement offered to the respondent and subsequently entered into by the respondent and the Board.

11.5. Procedures for contested case hearings are governed by W.Va. Code §29A-5-1, et seq.

11.6. The Board may impose any of the following sanctions, singly or in combination, after finding that a license holder has engaged in professional misconduct:

11.6.2. Suspend an existing license for a set period of time and/or impose requirements for reinstatement or renewal of a license;

11.6.3. Revoke an existing license;

11.6.4. Enter into a consent decree, consent agreement, agreed settlement, default or stipulation or other informal disposition;

11.6.5. Issue a public reprimand;

11.6.6. Impose a period of probation and requirements for the lifting of probation, including meeting continuing education requirements, mandatory supervision by a licensed social worker, peer or professional counseling, a medical, psychological or clinical social work evaluation, or other reasonable requirement, singly or in combination, that the Board considers sufficient to protect the public;

11.6.7. Levy fines not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per day per offense; and,

11.6.8. Assess fees to recover administrative costs incurred by the Board for disciplinary actions taken.

11.7. The Board may suspend a license prior to the outcome of a hearing or other disposition when, in the opinion of the Board, continued practice by the license holder constitutes an immediate danger to the public, evidenced by conduct or practice which constitutes professional negligence, a willful departure from accepted standards of professional social work conduct or onset of a condition which renders an individual unqualified or unfit to practice. The negligent conduct or practice includes:

(a). Acknowledged perpetration of or conviction of a felony while holding a license;

(b). Indictment, admission or establishment of guilt of an act of larceny, theft, misrepresentation, solicitation or other criminal act against a client or patient, the client or patient of another licensed professional, or against another licensed professional;

(c). Indictment, admission or establishment of guilt of an act of criminal assault against a client or patient, the client or patient of another licensed professional or against another licensed professional; and,

(d). Willful disregard of the authority of the Board to enforce duly imposed sanctions.

11.8. The Board may apply to the circuit court for an order enjoining a licensee from the practice of social work when he or she has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in any act which constitutes or will constitute a violation of the provisions of law under its authority.

11.9. Prior to revoking any license prior to a hearing, the Board shall send the licensee a notice of a hearing, to take place within thirty (30) days, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

11.10. A person representing herself or himself as a social worker who does not have a license, or a person engages in the private, independent practice of social work without an appropriate license, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to penalties of law and/or disciplinary action for professional misconduct.

11.11. After finding that a social worker has engaged in professional misconduct, and after the expiration of a period of appeals, the Board may report its findings to the Disciplinary Action Reporting System (DARS) or other recognized national and state disciplinary action reporting organization, licensing agency, professional association or society, community organization, employers of social workers, the public, or other agencies, institutions, and organizations.

11.12. The Board may apply to the circuit court for an order enjoining a license holder who has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in any act which constitutes or will constitute a violation of the provisions of law under its authority.

§25-1-12. Violations of child support orders.

12.1. The Board shall revoke or suspend the license of a licensee or impose other sanctions against a licensee, or refuse to renew a license or approve an application for license, after receiving a valid circuit court order indicating that the licensee has violated a child support ruling and, as a result, has endangered his or her professional license.

12.2. The Board shall reinstate, remove sanctions against or allow renewal of or application for a license after receiving a valid circuit court order to reinstate or renew a license previously suspended, revoked or sanctioned as a result of a similar order of the court.
