FOR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION-RULE COMMENT

From: Sue Covell for Calhoun Co. Solid Waste Authority
RE: Comment on Legislative Rule-Series 5-Disbursement of Grants to SWAs
Date: June 11, 2001

The following written comments are to be considered before a final determination is made on the adoption of this rule by the SWMB.

In §54-5-3. Application for Grants.

3.5 Grants will not be given for construction or improvements to facilities on property which is not owned by the authority.

This added language could be prohibitive to an authority if they can only afford to lease a building to operate a waste diversion program. If the building that is available and affordable needs certain necessary improvements to operate a program, then it should be funded by a grant. An example would be an old building with no heat, a bad roof or no loading dock etc. Improvements should be a necessity for a program to function and the board on an individual basis could determine these criteria before the grant funds are awarded or utilized.

In §54-5-7. Authorized use of Grant Funds and Factors Considered in Evaluating Applications.

7.8 No grants will be approved for the conduct of brokering operations of recycled material or to be used to subsidize persons who carry out....

If brokering operations of recycled materials could mean a public, SWA owned or operated, recycling program where recyclable material diverted from the waste stream is marketed, than this should not go into this rule. Authorities should not be limited in their options for marketing their material and it is unclear how this added stipulation can benefit SWAs. This rule should be focused on the concerns and needs of SWAs, not private business. Especially since private entities can get an exception from participating in recycling programs and recycling is not mandated. A private business is concerned with profit, whereas, a SWA public recycling program is concerned with diverting material from the landfill.

Thank you for your attention to these concerns about Title 54-Series 5.

Sincerely,

Sue Covell

For

Solid Waste Management Board Response to comments received from Sue Covell, Calhoun County Solid Waste Authority, on proposed changes to 54CSR5

§ 54-5-3:

1. "This added language could be prohibitive to an authority if they can only afford to lease a building to operate a waste diversion program. If the building that is available and affordable needs certain necessary improvements to operate a program, then it should be funded by a grant. An example would be an old building with no heat, a bad roof or no loading dock etc. Improvements should be a necessity for a program to function and the board on an individual basis could determine these criteria before the grant funds are awarded or utilized."

Proposed Response & Recommendation:

We recommend that the proposed change not be included in the rule revision.

The SWMB feels that it is appropriate in adopting rules and procedures not to include grant funding for construction or improvements to property not owned by the solid waste authority due to the unpredictable nature of lease agreements. For example, if the SWMB awards grant funding for construction or improvements to such a facility and the lessor breaks the agreement, that funding would no longer be used to provide assistance with a solid waste disposal project. The solid waste authority should be responsible for the construction and improvements of such facilities due to the possibility of premature cancellation of a lease agreement or other unforeseen conflicts with the proprietor.

§ 54-5-7:

1. "If brokering operations of recycled materials could mean a public, SWA owned or operated, recycling program where recyclable material diverted from the waste stream is marketed, then this should not go into this rule. Authorities should not be limited in their options for marketing their material and it is unclear how this added stipulation can benefit SWAs. This rule should be focused on the concerns and needs of SWAs, not private business. Especially since private entities can get an exception from participating in recycling programs and recycling is not mandated. A private business is concerned with profit, whereas, a SWA public recycling program is concerned with diverting material from the landfill."

Proposed Response & Recommendation:

We recommend that the proposed change not be included in the rule revision.

The comment above indicates concern over the interchangeability of the terms marketing and brokering. The terms, marketing and brokering, do not share the same definition and it is not the intent of the SWMB to use them interchangeably. Brokering refers to the act of negotiating contracts, purchases, or sales for others. Marketing refers to the business of buying and selling a specified commodity. Therefore, the SWMB does not agree with the suggested changes. W. Va. Code 22C-4-1 states the following as part of the solid waste authorities' requirements in establishing programs and plans:

"(2) Recycling, reuse and materials recovery. – This involves separating and recovering valuable materials from the waste stream, composting food and yard waste and marketing recyclables."
