2.2. The ranks within the membership of the State Police shall be Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, First Lieutenant, Second Lieutenant, First Sergeant, Sergeant, Corporal, Trooper First Class, Senior Trooper, Trooper or Cadet Trooper.

2.3. The term Executive Office shall encompass the following positions: (1) Superintendent; (2) Deputy Superintendent; (3) Chief of Staff Services; (4) Chief of Field Operations; (5) Chief of Executive Services; (6) Deputy Chief of Staff Services; (7) Director, Planning and Research; (8) Director, Professional Standards; and (9) Officer in Charge, Special Operations; and (10) Director of Executive Protection.

2.4. The Superintendent shall be the executive and administrative head of the State Police. The Superintendent shall hold the rank of Colonel and is entitled to all rights, benefits and privileges of regularly enlisted members.

2.5. The Superintendent shall appoint a member from within the ranks of the State Police to serve as the Deputy Superintendent. The Deputy Superintendent shall hold the rank of Lieutenant Colonel and be next in authority to the Superintendent. The Deputy Superintendent shall serve as the principal coordinator of State Police field operations and staff services functions. The Deputy Superintendent shall perform all other duties as assigned by the Superintendent.

2.6. The Superintendent may appoint from the membership of the State Police seventeen (17) principal supervisors who shall receive the compensation and hold the temporary ranks of Lieutenant Colonel, Major and Captain.

2.7. The Chief of Staff Services shall be responsible to the Deputy Superintendent for the coordination of all staff services functions and the correlation of activities and duties of staff services with those of field operations. The Chief of Staff Services shall perform all other duties as assigned by the Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent.

2.8. The Chief of Field Operations shall be responsible to the Deputy Superintendent for the planning, conducting and monitoring of all field operations and the correlation of activities and duties of field operations with those of staff services. The Chief of Field Operations shall perform all other duties as assigned by the Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent.

2.9 The Chief of Executive Services shall be responsible to the Deputy Superintendent for the operations and oversight of the sections assigned to Executive Services.

2.10 The Deputy Chief of Staff Services shall be responsible to the Chief of Staff Services for the operations and oversight of Communications, Traffic Records, Criminal Records and other specific administrative functions as assigned, and the correlation of those functions with those of field operations. The Deputy Chief of Staff Services shall serve as the Director of the Criminal Identification Bureau and shall perform all other duties as assigned by the Chief of Staff Services or higher authority.

2.11. The Director, Planning and Research shall be responsible to the Chief of Executive Services for general planning and specific research functions and shall oversee the State Police written directive system.

2.12. The Director, Professional Standards, shall be responsible to the Superintendent for the operation of the Professional Standards Section of the Department.

2.13. The Officer-In-Charge, Special Operations, shall be responsible to the Chief of Field Operations for the efficient operation of the Department's special operations groups and shall perform all other duties as assigned by the Chief of Field Operations or higher authority.

2.14. Staff Services shall consist of the Forensic Laboratory, Communications, Procurement, Traffic Records, Criminal Records and other sections within the general headquarters structure as deemed necessary by the Superintendent to meet statutory and other identified obligations and to assist the field operations force in the performance of their duties.

2.15. Executive Services shall consist of Planning and Research, Legal Section, Media, Recruiting and other sections within the general headquarters structure as deemed necessary by the Superintendent to meet statutory and other identified obligations and to assist field operations in the performance of their duties.

2.16. Field Operations shall consist of the Training Academy, Executive Protection, Special Operations, the Bureau of Criminal Investigations and the number of troops, districts and detachments specified by the Superintendent.

2.17. Each Troop shall be staffed by a Troop Commander, Executive Officer, Logistics Officer, Inspector, District, Detachment and Assistant Detachment Commanders and other members and civilian employees as is deemed necessary by the Superintendent.

2.17.1. The Superintendent may, at his discretion, direct that a member from Department Headquarters or other Troop officer perform the duties associated with those of a Troop Inspector in the event that operational need does not dictate that an Inspector be assigned to a specific troop.

2.18. The Troop Commanders shall be responsible to the Chief of Field Operations and shall be responsible for planning, conducting and monitoring of all field operations within their respective areas of command. Each Troop Commander shall be responsible for the correlation of the activities and duties of members and civilian employees assigned to the Troop with those of staff services. The Troop Commander shall perform duties as assigned by the Chief of Field Operations or higher authority.

2.19. The Troop Executive Officer shall be responsible to the Troop Commander. In the absence of the Troop Commander, the Executive Officer shall serve as the Acting Troop Commander and exercise all the powers, functions, duties and responsibilities of the Troop Commander. The Troop Executive Officer shall perform duties as assigned by the Troop Commander or higher authority.

2.20. The Troop Logistics Officer shall be responsible to the Troop Commander. In the absence of the Troop Commander and the Executive Officer, the Logistics Officer shall serve as the Acting Troop Commander and shall exercise all the powers, functions, duties and responsibilities of the Troop Commander. The Logistics Officer shall perform duties as assigned by the Troop Commander or higher authority.

2.21. The Troop Inspector shall be responsible to the Director, Professional Standards. In the absence of the Troop Commander, Executive Officer and Logistics Officer, the Inspector shall serve as the Acting Troop Commander and as such shall exercise all the powers, functions, duties and responsibilities of the Troop Commander. The Inspector shall perform duties as assigned by the Chief of Executive Services or higher authority.

2.22. The District Commander shall be responsible to the Troop Commander and shall plan, conduct and monitor all field operations occurring within the district. Each District Commander shall be responsible for the correlation of the activities and duties of members and civilian employees assigned to his command with those of staff services. The District Commander shall perform duties as assigned by the Troop Commander or higher authority.

2.23. The Detachment Commander shall be responsible to the District Commander for the planning, conducting and monitoring of all field operations occurring within the detachment's area of operations. Each Detachment Commander shall be responsible for the correlation of the activities and duties of members and civilian employees assigned to his/her command with those of staff services. The Detachment Commander shall perform duties assigned by the District Commander or higher authority.

2.24. The Assistant Detachment Commander shall be responsible to the Detachment Commander and shall assist the Detachment Commander in planning, conducting and monitoring of law enforcement operations within the detachment's area of responsibility. The Assistant Detachment Commander shall perform all other duties as assigned by the Detachment Commander or higher authority.

2.25. If the Superintendent is unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office, due to illness, disease, injury or any other cause or is absent from the geographical boundaries of West

Virginia, the order of succession within the Executive Office shall be as follows:

- (a) Deputy Superintendent;
- (b) Chief of Field Operations;
- (c) Chief of Staff Services;
- (d) Chief Executive Services;
- (e) Deputy Chief of Staff Services;
- (f) Director, Planning and Research; and
- (g) Director, Professional Standards;
- (h) Officer-in-Charge, Special Operations;
- (i) Director of Executive Protection.

(j) Whenever the Deputy Superintendent or a member of the Executive Office succeeds to the Office of the Superintendent, they shall exercise all of the powers, functions, duties and responsibilities of the Superintendent.
