TITLE 81
PROCEDURAL RULE
WEST VIRGINIA STATE POLICE

2008 APR -7 PM 2: 20

SERIES 16
REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES PERTAINING TO THE WEST VIRGINIA
CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECT REGISTRATION ACT

§81-16-1. General.

1.1. Scope. -- This procedural rule explains the responsibilities and the administration of the West Virginia Child Abuse and Neglect Registry, and the responsibility of offenders of child abuse and neglect required to register, incarceration facilities, probation or parole officers, sentencing courts, Circuit Court, Prosecuting Attorney, State Police, all law enforcement agencies, and the Department of Health and Human Resources. The Child Abuse and Neglect Registration Act is regulatory in nature and is not penal. The provisions of this Act apply retroactively and prospectively.

1.2. Authority. -- This rule is issued under authority of W. Va. Code §§15-13-1 et. seq. and §15-2-25.

1.3. Filing Date. -- February 28, 2008

1.4. Effective Date. -- May 15, 2008

§81-16-2. Definitions.

As used in this rule, unless in a context that clearly requires a different meaning, the following terms are defined as such:

2.1. "Central Registry" - herein known as the Registry, the West Virginia Child Abuse and Neglect Registry maintained by the West Virginia State Police and housed in the Criminal Records Section.

2.2. "Post conviction supervisory status" - monitored or supervised behavior of the person following their conviction or release from incarceration. This status may include, but is not limited to, probation, parole, home detention, work release, conditional release or a suspended sentence status.

2.3. "Child Abuse and Neglect Registration Act" - herein known as the Act, article §15-13-1 et. seq. of the West Virginia Criminal Code, that sets forth the duties of various entities as it pertains to the registration of offenders of child abuse and neglect and the duty of the West Virginia State Police to promulgate rules prescribing the manner of registration procedures.

2.4. "Qualifying child abuse and neglect criminal offenses" - those offenses that require registration as an offender of child abuse or neglect upon conviction or when found not guilty by reason of mental illness, mental retardation or addiction. These offenses include, but are not limited to, §61-8D-2, 61-8D-2a, 61-8D-3, 61-8D-3a, 61-8D-4 or 61-8D-4a . These also include, but are not limited to, offenses with similar provisions in another state, federal or military jurisdiction or municipal ordinances which possess the same elements of the qualifying offenses. Also included are those offenses in which a person upon convicted of a criminal offense(s) against a child in his or her household or in which the person convicted has custodial responsibility, the sentencing judge makes a written finding that there is a continued likelihood that the person convicted will continue to have regular contact with that child or other children and that as such it is in the best interest of the child or children for that person to be monitored.

2.5. "Physical address" - the actual location of the residence(s). A post office box or other address that does not have a physical street address may not be provided in lieu of a physical residence address.

2.6. "Offender of child abuse or neglect"- a person convicted of any of the offenses referred to in W. Va. §15-13-2 as amended, or offenses with similar provisions in another state, federal or military jurisdiction, or municipal ordinances which possess the same elements of the qualifying offenses or a person that was found not guilty of the above referenced offenses by reason of mental illness, mental retardation or addiction or a person convicted of a criminal offense against a child in his or her household or of whom he or she has custodial responsibility and with whom the sentencing judge makes a written finding that there is a continued likelihood that the person convicted will continue to have regular contact with that child or other children and that as such it is in the best interest of the child or children for that person to be monitored.

2.7. "Sentencing court" - Court that is authorized to invoke sentencing upon conviction or finding of not guilty by reason of mental illness, mental retardation or addiction, including but not limited to, federal courts, courts of military justice, West Virginia circuit courts, magistrate courts, municipal courts, mayoral courts and police courts, as well as similar courts in other states.

2.8. "Business days" - Days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays as recognized by the State of West Virginia.

2.9. "Superintendent" - is the executive officer-in-charge and chief administrator of the State Police.

§81-16-3. Purposes.

3.1. Assist local law enforcement agencies efforts to protect the children exposed to the offenders of child abuse and neglect by regulating how offenders register with the Child Abuse and Neglect Registry at their local State Police detachments.

3.2. Provide the Department of Health and Human Resources notification of registered offenders of child abuse and neglect within five (5) business days in a format acceptable to the technologies of both the State Police and the Department of Health and Human Resources, so to assist in the performance and function of Child Protective Services and aid in the proper distribution and disclosure of offender information to persons specified in §15-13-5 (b).

3.3. Inform the law enforcement, criminal justice entities, other governmental agencies and the person of their rights and responsibilities as it pertains to the Act.

3.4. To prescribe the manner of how a person is to register and the manner of how information pertinent to the registry originating from the probation officers, parole officers, courts, law enforcement officers and officials of Department of Health and Human Resources responsible for overseeing the release of offenders of child abuse and neglect is to be forwarded to the Registry.

§81-16-4. Objectives.

4.1. To enter all offenders of child abuse or neglect into the Registry as prescribed in W. Va. Code §15-13-1 et. seq. in a timely and accurate manner.

4.2. Transmit copies of notification statements to the Department of Health and Human Resources as set forth in W. Va. Code §15-3-5.

4.3. Inform the Department of Health and Human Resources of any changes to the original notification statement as set forth in W. Va. Code §15-3-5.

4.4. Maintain accurate and current records of child abuse and neglect offenders so to assist in the investigative efforts of law enforcement, criminal justice entities and Child Protective Services in matters pertaining to child abuse and neglect.

4.5. Maintain accurate and current records of child abuse and neglect offenders to aid the Department of Health and Human Resources in its determination of effective action to secure the safety and wellbeing of children.

§81-16-5. Intent, Findings and Severability.

5.1. Legislative Intent and Findings: The intent of the Child Abuse and Neglect Registration Act is to assist law-enforcement agencies efforts to protect children from offenders of child abuse and neglect by requiring offenders of child abuse and neglect to register with a State Police detachment in the county where they reside. It is not the intent of the Legislature that the information be used to inflict either retribution or additional punishment on any person requiring registration under the West Virginia Child Abuse and Neglect Registration Act. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for the safety of children who are exposed to persons convicted of the crimes of child abuse and neglect, found not guilty solely by reason of mental illness, mental retardation or addiction of the crimes of child abuse and neglect or convicted of a criminal offense against a child in his or her household or of whom he or she has custodial responsibility and with whom the sentencing judge has made a written finding that there is a continued likelihood that the person convicted will continue to have regular contact with that child or other children and that as such it is in the best interest of the child or children for that person to be monitored.

5.2. Severability. If any sections or subsections of this rule are determined to be invalid, it shall not be construed to invalidate any of the provisions not otherwise affected.

§81-16-6. Persons Required to Register.

6.1. All persons who are convicted, enter a plea of guilty or found not guilty by reason of mental illness, mental retardation or addiction, of committing any of the following criminal offenses of child abuse and neglect are to register:

10.2.r. Required signatures and information of uniformed member(s) and date signed;

10.2.s. The detachment shall retain a copy of the registration form(s).

10.3. When a person required to be registered arrives at a State Police detachment located in the county where the person resides, the Detachment Commander, or in his/her absence, another uniformed member, shall;

10.3.a. Complete the registration form(s) on the person that shall include all information stipulated in 10.2 of this procedural rule and;

10.3.b. Take two (2) full sets of fingerprints on FD-249 (FBI Fingerprint Card) or its authorized technological equivalent.

10.3.c. The completed original registration form(s), and the two (2) full sets of fingerprints (FD-249) or its authorized technological equivalent shall be mailed or electronically transmitted to the Registry within five (5) business days.

10.3.d. A copy of the completed registration form(s) shall be kept in the detachment Child Abuse and Neglect Registry file.

10.4. When a person previously registered arrives at the detachment to report a change of address or a change in any other registration information, the Detachment Commander or in his/her absence, another uniformed member shall;

10.4.a. Complete the update to registration form(s) including a right thumb print and signatures of the person, the uniformed member and the supervisor;

10.4.a.1. The original completed update to registration form(s) shall be mailed to the Registry within five (5) business days.

10.4.a.2. A copy of the completed update to registration form(s) shall be kept in the detachment Offenders of Child Abuse and Neglect Registry file.

10.5. When notified that a registered person has moved out of their county and has no other registration requirement within that county, the Detachment Commander shall maintain copies of registration and updates to registration documents at the detachment in an investigative file.

10.6. When notified of a registered person's intent to move out of state, the Detachment

Commander, or in his/her absence, another uniformed member, shall follow the process in 10.4.a. of this procedural rule.

10.7. If the Registry informs the Detachment Commander that additional fingerprints are needed on a person moving from another state or living in another state, the Detachment Commander shall;

10.7.a. Ascertain the location of the person and require the person to report to the detachment to be fingerprinted using two (2) FD-249 (FBI fingerprint cards) or its authorized technological equivalent.

10.7.b. Mail the completed FD-249 (FBI Fingerprint cards) or electronically submit its authorized technological equivalent to the Registry within five (5) business days.

10.8. When a uniformed member makes contact with anyone that may be required to register as defined in 6.1, 6.2 or 6.3 of this procedural rule but is not registered or has not signed a statement acknowledging that they have been informed of his or her duty to register, that officer shall report this contact to the Detachment Commander and the Registry for verification of registration requirements. This contact information shall be relayed to the Registry by telephone or fax and shall state the name and date of birth of the person, current address and the offense for which they were convicted or the qualifying offense.

10.9. Responsibly manage the information concerning offenders of child abuse or neglect residing within the county.

10.9.a. Refrain from secondary dissemination of the information.

10.9.b. Utilize the information for investigative purposes only.

§81-16-11. Responsibilities of Law Enforcement Agencies, Other Than the State Police.

11.1. Responsibly manage the information concerning offenders of child abuse or neglect residing within the county.

11.1.a. Refrain from secondary dissemination of the information.

11.1.b. Utilize the information for investigative purposes only.

11.2. When making contact with anyone that may be required to register as defined in 6.1, 6.2 or 6.3 of this procedural rule but is not registered or has not signed a statement acknowledging that they have been informed of his or her duty to register, the agency shall report that contact to the Registry for verification of registration requirements. This contact information shall be relayed to the Registry by telephone or fax and shall state the name and date of birth of the person, current address and the offense for which they were convicted or the qualifying offense.

11.3 As the provisions of this Act apply both retroactively and prospectively, if informed by the Registry that they have arrested a person who was convicted prior to the enactment of the Child Abuse and Neglect Registration Act, but who is not registered and may be required to register, the agency shall provide the Registry with the person's current address and any available information pertaining to the person.

11.4 Upon request of the West Virginia State Police, provide any and all requested records relating to an offender of child abuse or neglect to the West Virginia State Police.

§81-16-12. Responsibilities of the Child Abuse and Neglect Registry.

12.1. The Registry shall maintain the central registry of information on those persons who are required to be registered.

12.2. The Registry is authorized to release child abuse or neglect registration information and documentation to federal, state and local governmental agencies responsible for conducting pre-employment checks.

12.3. The Registry may release child abuse or neglect registration information and documentation, when properly requested, to authorized law enforcement and governmental agencies of the United States, its territories, foreign countries authorized to receive the same, other state jurisdictions and the state of West Virginia.

12.3.a. These countries/government jurisdictions must stipulate in writing that this information is necessary in the interest of and administration of official duties and criminal laws.

12.4. Within five (5) business days of notification, the Registry shall remove a name from the Registry when properly ordered by a circuit court following a petition by a registered person whose conviction has been overturned and shall;

12.4.a. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the notice, inform the State Police detachment, in the county where the person resides, that the person has been removed from the Registry files.

12.4.b. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the notice, provide the updated information to the Department of Health and Human Resources that the person has been removed from the registry.

12.5. When notified that a person required to register has changed or intends to change their address to an address outside the county where the person has been residing the Registry shall;

12.5.a. Within five (5) business days of notification, update the Registry with the person's change of address or intended address.

12.5.b. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the notice, inform the State Police detachment, in the county where the person resides, of the person's change of address or intended address.

12.5.c. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the notice, inform the State

Police detachment, in the county where the person intends to reside, of the person's change of address or intended address and the need for that person to register by physically appearing in that State Police detachment and providing the information required for registration.

12.5.d. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the notice, provide the information to the Department of Health and Human Resources of the person's change of address or intended address.

12.6. When notified that a person required to register has moved or intends to move outside of the state, or country, the Registry shall;

12.6.a. Within five (5) business days of notification, update the Registry with the person's change of address or intended address.

12.6.b. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the notice, inform the State Police detachment, in the county where the person resides, of the person's change of address or intended address.

12.6.c. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the notice, provide the information to the Department of Health and Human Resources of the person's change of address or intended address.

12.6.d. Within ten (10) business days of the notice, inform the law enforcement officials in the jurisdiction where the person indicated he or she intends to reside of the information provided by the person and any other information included in the Registry.

12.7. Upon request by a registered individual, the information pertaining to that individual shall be forwarded within fifteen (15) business days by certified or registered mail.

12.8. Upon receipt of a statement from a person included in the Registry that all or part of the recorded information is inaccurate, the Registry shall;

12.8.a. Within thirty (30) business days of receipt of the statement ascertain if the recorded information contains any inaccuracies.

12.8.b. Within fifteen (15) business days of verification of any inaccuracies, correct any identified inaccuracies.

12.8.c. Within five (5) business days of verification of any inaccuracies, inform the State Police detachment, in the county where the person resides of the corrected information.

12.8.d. Within five (5) business days of verification of any inaccuracies, provide the corrected information to the Department of Health and Human Resources.

12.9. The registry shall maintain an active file or log of requests for information included in the Registry for a period of one year of date of request. The file shall include;

12.9.a. Full name of the authorized requester;

12.9.b. If applicable, the full name and address of the authorized requester's agency or organization;

12.9.c. If not associated with an agency or organization, the full address of the authorized requester;

12.9.d. A statement detailing the need for the requested information or, if applicable, the provision of code(s) specifying the information is to be utilized for investigative purposes.

12.10. The registry is authorized to enter into agreement with other states providing for the reciprocal sharing of abuse and neglect registry information.

12.11 Provide registration form(s) designated by the Superintendent to law enforcement officers, circuit courts, court clerks, town recorders and parole and probation officers to facilitate submission of appropriate information necessary to administer the Child Abuse and Neglect Registry.

§81-16-13. Responsibilities of Those Persons Required to Register.

13.1. Responsibilities at the time of conviction or sentencing.

13.1.a. The person who has pled guilty, is convicted or found not guilty by reason of mental illness, mental retardation or addiction of those crimes listed in 6.1 or 6.2 of this procedural rule that require registration or is convicted of any criminal offense against a child in his or her household or of whom he or she has custodial responsibility and with whom the sentencing judge makes a written finding that there is a continued likelihood that the person convicted will continue to have regular contact with that child or other children and that as such it is in the best interest of the child or children for that person to be monitored, then that person shall sign in open court and on the record, a statement that they understand the registration requirements for offenders of child abuse and neglect.

13.1.a.1. The statement, once signed and witnessed, constitutes prima facie evidence that the person has knowledge of the registration requirements for offenders of child abuse and neglect.

13.1.b. The person shall respond to the court's interrogation to verify that the person has received notice and understands the provisions of the Act.
