If a contestant is caught holding the fence or cage material, the referee shall issue a one-point deduction from the offending contestants scorecard if the foul caused a substantial change in position such as the avoidance of a takedown. If a point deduction for holding the fence occurs, and because of the infraction, the fouling contestant ends up in a superior position due to the foul, the contestants should be re-started by the referee, standing in a neutral position

34.3. Holding opponent's shorts or gloves.

A contestant may not control their opponent's movement by holding onto their opponent's shorts or gloves. 34.18. Kneeing the head of a grounded opponent.

A grounded opponent is any contestant who has more than just the soles of their feet on the ground. 37.2.b. When the round is over, the referee shall assess the foul and notify both comers' seconds, the judges and the official scorekeeper.

38.1.a. A contestant who has been struck with a low blow is allowed up to 5 minutes to recover from the foul as long as in the cage side doctor's opinion the contestant may possibly continue on in the match. If the contestant states that they can continue on before the 5 minutes of time have expired, the referee shall as soon as practical restart the fight. If the contestant goes over the 5 minute time allotment the match cannot be restarted and the contest must come to an end with the outcome determined by the round and time in which the match was stopped.

The cage side doctor has up to 5 minutes to make their determination. If the cage side doctor determines that the contestant can continue in the contest, the referee shall as soon as practical restart the fight. However, unlike the low blow foul rule, the contestant does not have up to 5 minutes of time to use at their discretion.

38.2.c. For a foul other than a low blow, the fouled contestant is not guaranteed 5 minutes of recovery time. If deemed not fit to continue by the referee or cage side physician, the referee must immediately call a halt to the match. If the contestant is deemed not fit to continue by the referee or cage side physician but some of the 5 minute foul time is still remaining, the contestant cannot avail himself of the remaining time.
