MEMO

To: Donald L. Stemple, Commissioner
From: Jane Charnock
Subject: Series 2 revisions
Date: June 9, 1999

Attached hereunto is the final revision on Series 2, Title 175, of the agency's regulations relating to Private Club Licensing.

Changes are indicated by strikethroughs and underlining, with strikethroughs being the language removed from existing regulations and underlining being new language.

Major changes are as follows:

Page 2: Reference is made to limited liability companies.

Throughout: Ages are changed from 18 to 21.

Throughout: ABCC is changed to ABCA.

Page 10: A provision for Commissioner-approved deliveries to clubs from retail stores is included, consistent with this year's legislation.

Page 14: The requirement of holding a hearing within 30 days of a demand for revocation hearing is eliminated.

There was some talk in my discussions with agency staff about ~~eliminated~~ the awkward membership requirements and club designations contained throughout the regulations. It was a consensus among the licensing staff that the club designations are artificial and meaningless and a request was made to eliminate the same. I declined to do so, because the statute guiding this agency and which is the basis of these regulations still includes this language.

Additionally, there was a request to include a prohibition against having hot tubs or other fixtures in strip clubs. I declined to include this in these proposed regulations for the reason that the county health departments can easily address this health concern.
