A contribution is not a qualifying contribution unless one copy of the receipt has been provided to the contributor, one copy has been retained by the candidate and one copy has been received by the Secretary. Receipts are filed at the beginning of each month and a final report shall be filed at the end of the qualifying period. Candidates must review the receipts for completeness and accuracy before filing with the Secretary. 6.9.a. Three business days of candidate making final report of qualifying contributions as required by W.Va. Code §3-12-9(g);

6.9.b. Six business days after candidate submits substitute qualifying contributions if necessitated by a successful challenge to a contribution.

6.10. The Commission shall notify all candidates for Justice of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals of its determination within five business days.

6.11.d.2. The candidate must repay the funds received within two business days of receipt of the notice. In cases where the candidate cannot immediately repay the funds received, the Commission may negotiate a repayment schedule.

§146-5-7. Challenges to the Validity of a Contribution

7.1. Any person may challenge the validity of any qualifying contribution.

7.2. A challenge is to be filed on a form provided by the SEC providing:

7.2.a. Name, mailing address, phone number;

7.2.b. Signature of challenger;

7.2.c. Identity of receipt challenged; and

7.2.d. Reason for challenge;

7.3. The challenger should attach any relevant evidence, affidavits, or notarized statements to the form. Challenge forms must be filed with, and received by, the Secretary within two business days after the close of the qualifying period or the filing of a candidate's Application For Certification, whichever is earlier.

7.4. If the SEC determines the candidate has sufficient numbers and amounts of non-challenged contributions to meet requirements, then challenge(s) is(are) dismissed.

7.5. The SEC must determine by the end of next business day whether the challenge is sustained and notify the candidate and challenger.

7.6. If the challenge is sustained, the candidate has five business days to provide a replacement contribution.

7.7. Any replacement contribution receipt must be filed electronically with the Secretary. Replacement contributions may be collected outside the time period allowed for the collection of regular contributions, but must be collected within five business days following the filing of a challenge.

7.8. A replacement contribution is subject to challenge within two business days of filing.

§146-5-8. Payment Procedures, Schedules and Amounts

8.1. General.

This section provides the procedures by which payment amounts are determined and payment delivery is made. The section applies to initial payments for primary and general elections and to the supplemental payments for both elections that are triggered by the expenditures of non-participating candidates, independent expenditures, or both, as provided in W.Va. Code §§3-12-11(e)-(h).

8.2. Electronic transfer.

A candidate who desires to receive payment from the Fund by electronic transfer must provide on the Application For Certification sufficient information and authorization for the State Treasurer to transfer payment to the candidate's campaign depository account.

8.3. Change of election status from uncontested to contested.

When a candidate receives the uncontested election amount and, due to other candidates' later filing for the office, the election becomes contested, a payment to the candidate will be made in the amount equal to the difference between what was paid and what would have been paid had the election been contested at the time of initial payment. For purposes of this rule, the payment of the difference will be referred to as an amended initial payment. The amended initial payment will be made within two business days of the SEC receiving information of the changed nature of the election.

8.4. Order of payment.

When more than one candidate qualifies for payments on the same day, then payment will be made to all such candidates on the same day.

8.5. Pro rata payments.

If, at the time any payment is due, there is an insufficient balance to make full payment to all entitled candidates, the following procedure shall be followed:

8.5.a. The SEC will determine the amount of funds available;

8.5.b. The SEC will determine when the next deposit may be reasonably expected, and the amount of that deposit;

8.5.c. The SEC will determine the amount of administrative expenses due until the next deposit and will subtract the anticipated administrative expenses amount from the current Fund balance;

8.5.d. The SEC will then divide the difference equally among all entitled candidates and authorize payments in the pro rata amounts.

8.5.e. Candidates receiving reduced payments due to insufficient funds are permitted to solicit and receive campaign contributions, as permitted by article 8, chapter 3, of the West Virginia Code, but total contributions may not exceed the difference between the amount paid and the amount that would have been due had full payment been possible. Excess contributions will be paid to the Fund.

8.6. Initial payment amounts; primary and general elections.

8.6.a. The initial primary payment amount for an uncontested election is $50,000 less the amount of qualifying contributions raised by the candidate.

8.6.b. The initial primary payment amount for a contested election is $200,000 less the amount of qualifying contributions raised by the candidate.

8.6.c. The initial general payment amount for an uncontested election is $35,000 less the amount not spent or obligated at the conclusion of the primary campaign period.

8.6.d. The initial general payment amount for a contested election is $350,000 less the amount not spent or obligated at the conclusion of the primary campaign period.

8.7. Initial payment schedules; primary and general elections.

8.7.a. The SEC will submit paperwork to the State Auditor to ensure payment of the initial primary payment within two working days of certification of the candidate by the SEC.

8.7.b. The SEC will submit paperwork to the Auditor to ensure payment of the initial general payment within two working days of certification of the primary election results by the Secretary.

8.8. Supplemental payments

8.8.a. Supplemental payments are required when the SEC finds, from reports filed or from verifiable information obtained through an investigation:

8.8.a.1. That a non-participating candidate, or candidate's committee, has expended or obligated, in the aggregate, an amount exceeding $240,000 during the primary election campaign period, or exceeding $420,000 during the general election campaign period;

8.8.a.2. That independent expenditures and obligations on behalf of a non-participating candidate, in combination with a non-participating candidate's, or candidate's committee's, expenditures and obligations, have exceeded, in the aggregate, $240,000 during the primary election campaign period, or have exceeded $420,000 during the general election campaign period; or

8.8.a.3. That independent expenditures and obligations on behalf of a certified candidate, either alone or in combination with the certified candidate's, or candidate's committee's, expenditures and obligations, have exceeded, in the aggregate, $240,000 during the primary election campaign period, or have exceeded $420,000 during the general election campaign period.

8.8.b. When one of the three findings of the preceding subsection has been determined by the SEC, the SEC will cause the Auditor to issue payment to all affected certified candidates.

8.8.c. Payments will be issued within two working days of the finding by the SEC.

8.8.d. Payments will be in the amount of the difference between $200,000 for the primary campaign and $350,000 for the general campaign and the amount expended as referenced in subsections 8.8.a.1 through 8.8.a.3, above.

8.8.d.1. Example: Certified candidates A and B both raised $35,000 in qualifying contributions and were each initially paid $165,000 for a contested primary election. Non-participating candidate C reports expenditures of $240,001. Candidates A and B will be paid $40,001 each (20% of $200,000 = $40,000. $200,000 + 40,000 = 240,000$. $240,001$ exceeds $240,000$, which triggers supplemental payment. $240,001 - 200,000$ initial amount available = $40,001 payment).

8.8.d.2. Example: Certified candidates A, B and C were each initially paid $350,000 for a contested general election. Independent expenditures on behalf of candidate C were reported in the amount of $400,000. Candidate C has reported expenditures of Public Financing Funds of $250,000 (for a total of $650,000). Candidates A and B will be paid $300,000 each (20% of $350,000 = $70,000. $350,000 + 70,000 = 420,000$. $650,000 - 350,000 = 300,000$).

8.8.d.3. Example: Certified candidates A and B both raised $35,000 in qualifying contributions and were each initially paid $165,000 for initial primary and candidates C and D are non-participating. Independent expenditures advocating the defeat of candidate A are reported in the amount of $250,000. Expenditure against A is treated as "on behalf of" B, C, and D, who are opponents of A, thereby triggering a supplemental payment. Candidate A receives supplemental payment of $50,000 (20% of $200,000 = $40,000. $200,000 + 40,000 = 240,000$. $250,000$ exceeds $240,000$, which triggers supplemental payment. $250,000 - 200,000$ initial amount available = $50,000 payment). B, "on behalf of" whom the expenditure was made, receives no supplement.

8.8.e. When additional excess expenditures are made by non-participating candidates or entities making independent expenditures, separately or in combination, after the first supplemental payment, additional payments in amounts to match the additional expenditures are made to all affected certified candidates.

8.8.e.1. Example: After candidates A and B (in the first example in subsection 8.8.d.1) received payments of $40,001, expenditures by non-participating candidate, or independent expenditures in his or her behalf, of an additional $25,000 (for a total of $265,001) are reported. Candidate A and B each receive an additional supplemental payment of $25,000.

8.8.f. Total supplemental payments to any candidate are limited to:

8.8.f.1. $400,000 for the primary election;

8.8.f.2. $700,000 for the general election; or

8.8.f.3. As provided in section 8.5 above.

8.9. Payment issuance procedure.

8.9.a. On the same business day as the SEC determines that any candidate is entitled to any payment provided by article 12, the SEC shall complete the paperwork required by the Auditor to initiate the Auditor's expedited payment process.

8.9.b. On the same business day the SEC shall deliver the paperwork to the Auditor electronically or by hand-delivery.

8.9.c. Immediately upon receipt of the paperwork from the SEC, the Auditor, in cooperation with the State Treasurer, shall issue a check, or an electronic deposit if elected by the candidate.

8.9.d. All procedural steps shall be completed by the responsible agencies and persons in such manner so as to ensure payment to the candidate no later than two working days from the determination of the SEC.

§146-5-9. Restrictions on Campaign Contributions and Expenditures.

9.1. During the qualifying period a participating candidate may spend or obligate only that amount which he or she has collected in exploratory and qualifying contributions.

9.2. At the end of the qualifying period, a certified candidate may spend or obligate any unspent exploratory or qualifying contributions and the moneys he or she receives from the Fund.

9.3. A participating or certified candidate may expend exploratory and qualifying contributions and money from the Fund only for lawful election expenses as provided W.Va. Code §3-8-9.

9.4. Moneys distributed from the Fund may be expended only during the primary and general election campaign periods for which the funds were dispersed.

9.5. Money from the Fund may not be used:

9.5.a. In violation of law;

9.5.b. To repay any personal, family or business loans, expenditures or debts; or

9.5.c. To help any other candidate.

9.6. A certified candidate must return to the Fund any unspent and unobligated exploratory contributions, qualifying contributions or moneys received from the Fund within forty-eight hours after he or she ceases to be certified or loses the primary election or otherwise ceases to be a candidate.

9.7. A certified candidate who remains certified through the general campaign period shall pay to the Fund, within five business days after the general election, any unspent or unobligated public campaign financing funds.
