TITLE 4
LEGISLATIVE RULES
WEST VIRGINIA BOARD OF CHIROPRACTIC EXAMINERS

SERIES 1
REGULATION OF CHIROPRACTIC PRACTICE

OFFICE OF WEST VIRGINIA
SECRETARY OF STATE

§4-1-1. General.

1.1. Scope. This rule sets forth the regulation of chiropractic to protect the health, safety and welfare of the public.

1.2. Authority. -- W. Va. Code 30-16-5.

1.3. Filing Date. -- _____, 19__

1.4. Effective Date. -- _____, 19__

1.5. Repeal and Replace. This rule repeals and replaces the Board of Chiropractic Examiners, 4 C.S.R. 1, filed February 9, 1983.

§4-1-2. Definitions.

2.1. "Chiropractic Assistant" means a health care worker who assists a licensed chiropractor in the provision of chiropractic services. A chiropractic assistant shall work under the general supervision of a licensed chiropractor in a manner consistent with West Virginia Code 30-16-1 et seq., and as further set forth in this rule.

2.2. "General supervision" means initial instruction as to delegated duties and established protocol followed by personal periodic inspection of patient care including periodic evaluation of the assistant's performance by the supervising licensed chiropractor. The supervising licensed chiropractor need not be present or on the premises at all times where the chiropractic assistant is performing delegated duties.

2.3. "CCE or its successor" is Council on Chiropractic Education, an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare as an acceptable accrediting agency for granting accreditation in chiropractic education.

§4-1-3. Officers and Duties of the Board

3.1. The officers of the Board shall consist of the chairman, vice chairman, secretary, and investigative officer.

3.2. The chairman shall be elected from the membership of the Board for a term of one(1) year. The chairman shall preside over all meetings of the Board. In the chairman's absence, the vice chairman will act in his or her place.

3.3. The secretary may be elected or appointed by the Board. The secretary's term of office is at the pleasure of the Board. In the absence of the secretary, the Board shall appoint a temporary secretary to act in that position for the duration of the secretary's absence. The secretary shall keep a recording of proceedings and actions of the Board during its meetings and perform other duties prescribed by law or the Board.

3.4. The investigative officer shall be appointed for the purpose of investigating initial complaints. The investigative officer shall report to the Board the findings and recommendations if probable cause exists to substantiate charges.

§4-1-4. Meeting of the Board

4.1. The Board shall hold two (2) meetings per year on or about the first week of February and August at a location to be designated by the Board.

4.2. The Board may hold any special meetings it considers necessary to the conduct of its business. The time, place and date of the meetings shall be at the discretion of the Board and/or its chairman. All members of the Board shall be notified in advance. A letter to the Secretary of State shall be sent stating date, time and place of meeting or special meetings.

4.3. All meetings of the Board shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order.

4.4. At the regular meeting of the Board any interested persons who are affected by the business of the Board may enter into discussion with the Board.

4.5. At all special meetings of the Board anyone not a member of the Board is prohibited from entering into discussion with the Board, unless invited by a member of the Board, or unless that person has requested permission to enter into discussion with the Board. The request shall be in writing to the Secretary of the Board and will state the nature of business to be discussed. The date, time and place of the discussion is at the discretion of the chairman. The secretary shall give prior notification as to date, time and place of the meeting.

4.6. Any person(s) desiring notification of all the regular and special meetings of the Board may receive same by making a request in writing to the secretary.

§4-1-5. Qualifications for Receiving and Maintaining a License to Practice Chiropractic.

5.1. In order to make application to practice chiropractic in this State, an individual shall:

5.1.a. Satisfy all of the licensure requirements set forth in W.Va. Code 30-16-1 et seq.

5.1.b. Achieve a minimum score of 475 on the required Part IV of the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners national examination as outlined in W.Va. Code 30-16-6.

5.1.c. The licensee shall obtain a Bachelor's degree, as stated in the W.Va. Code 30-13-6 prior to matriculation with a chiropractic college.

5.1.c.1. All current licensees who intend to renew their license shall present evidence to the Board that the licensee has attended 18 classroom hours each year of continuing education. The hours shall be sponsored through an approved chiropractic college. The Board may require that six (6) of the eighteen (18) hours pertain to certain subjects, such as communicable diseases, first aid, sexual boundaries, record keeping and other subjects that the Board considers appropriate. The programs shall be approved by the Board prior to their presentation. The programs shall be conducted by a faculty member of a Board approved CCE or its successor school or college, unless otherwise approved by the Board. The Board, at its discretion, may also approve programs conducted by recognized authorities from fields other than chiropractic.

5.1.c.2. The method of recording attendance at the seminars is the responsibility of the sponsoring group. The sponsoring group shall provide the Board with a list of those in attendance at the seminars.

5.1.c.3. Newly graduated doctors of chiropractic who receive their initial license in the year of their graduation are exempt from the requirements of subdivision 5.1.A of this rule. However, they shall be required to meet all other aspects of license renewal as defined in W.Va. Code 30-16-15.

5.1.d. Remit to the Board, an annual license renewal fee. The annual renewal license fee and required continuing education hours are due on or before July 1. A licensee whose license renewal fee and required continuing education hours are postmarked after July 1 incurs a late fee.

5.1.e. Complete and submit a license renewal application as provided by the Board.

5.1.f. After a lapse of two (2) years, a license may be issued or reinstated only after the former certificate holder subsequent to the lapse has fulfilled all other requirements of licensure as set forth in W.Va. Code 30-16-15(e) and/or has passed the National Special Purposes Examination for Chiropractic (SPEC) examination.

§4-1-6. Duties of a licensee.

6.1. A licensee shall not engage in conduct outside the scope of chiropractic practice. The licensee shall maintain current knowledge of statutes, rules, and Board decisions regarding the practice of chiropractic.

6.1.a. A licensee shall maintain proper records on all patients, including family and staff members, and keep the records confidential. The records shall include:

6.1.a.1. A description of the patient's chief complaint;

6.1.a.2. A history which includes any significant events related to the chief complaint;

6.1.a.3. A record of diagnostic and therapeutic procedures including: an examination and results of that examination, a diagnosis; a plan of care; including all therapeutic modalities utilized; frequency of treatment; any changes in the plan of care; as well as the reasons for changes; and a record of the patient's response to treatment; and

6.1.a.4. A record of standing orders for delegated procedures of a written protocol to be used by chiropractic assistants.

6.1.a.5. A licensee shall release copies of medical records within 10 days of a written request from the patient.

6.1.b. A licensee shall maintain competence in the production and interpretation of x-rays. A licensee is competent if he or she:

6.1.b.1. Produces x-rays of diagnostic quality;

6.1.b.2. Uses appropriate shielding and collimation;

6.1.b.3. Exposes patients to radiation based on clinical necessity as documented by the patient's record;

6.1.b.4. Produces written interpretations of x-rays, that are part of the patient's record, and demonstrative of competence in reading films; and

6.1.b.5. Uses equipment that meets Board and manufacturer's specifications for safety and use and that is properly maintained.

6.1.c. A licensee shall maintain competence in the application of chiropractic therapeutics and in the management of patient care. A licensee is competent if he or she:

6.1.c.1. Applies therapeutic modalities properly;

6.1.c.2. Applies a modality that is appropriate for the treatment of the patient as documented by the patient record; and

6.1.c.3. Provides Case Management that is supported by the patient's record.

6.1.d. The licensee shall properly train and supervise his or her staff that is engaged in patient care. A licensee who fails to do so is subject to disciplinary action.

§4-1-7. Disciplinary action.

7.1. Professional Incompetence is an act or omission which may subject the licensee to disciplinary action as it relates to the practice of chiropractic or criminal misconduct which reflects on the capacity of the licensee to safely engage in the practice of chiropractic.

7.1.a. A licensee shall report a misdemeanor or felony conviction or plea bargain within 30 days of the conviction or plea. The Board shall review the conduct involved in the criminal proceedings to determine if the conduct poses a threat to the public and take appropriate disciplinary action.

7.1.b. Sexual misconduct may include, doctor/patient relations, whether or not initiated by, or consented to, by the patient, and engaging in any conduct with a patient that is sexual or may be reasonably interpreted as sexual. A licensee shall not use fraud, deception, misrepresentation, or force for the purpose of engaging in sexual contact with a patient in the clinical setting. Patient consent is not a legal defense. A licensee may not have consensual sexual relations with a former patient until six months after the termination of doctor/patient relationship.

7.1.c. A licensee shall not engage in activities outside of the scope of chiropractic practice.

7.1.d. A licensee may not represent to the public, the possession of special skill, training, knowledge or qualifications unless the Board recognizes the training or certification on which the representation is based.

§4-1-8. Advertising.

8.1. False and deceptive or misleading advertising is prohibited.

8.2. Advertisements offering free or discounted services shall include the licensee's usual charge for the service.

8.2.a. In the case where a licensee is offering any service without charge, the advertisement shall state that there is no charge.

8.2.b. Diagnostic services offered without charge, or at discounted fees such as exams or x-rays, shall be necessary and sufficient to reach a diagnosis. X-rays shall be diagnostically complete.

8.2.c. Patients receiving free or discounted services shall sign a disclosure statement which clearly describes the service, and which informs the patient of services for which there is a charge. When the advertisement offers free or discounted services for a period of time, the patient shall sign a disclosure statement which clearly states when the free or discounted service ends. The disclosure statements are part of the patient's medical records, and the licensee shall include them in any submission of the claims to the party responsible for bill payment. The licensee shall disclose the normal charges for services before services are rendered.

8.2.d. No licensee may engage in, or knowingly authorize others to engage in, solicitation by telephone, mail, in-person solicitations or otherwise, which involve undue influence, coercion, intimidation, misrepresentation, invasion of the privacy of the person being contacted, or unreasonable interference in the doctor-patient relationship.

8.2.e. Solicitation which does not involve undue influence, coercion, intimidation, misrepresentation, invasion of the privacy of the person being contacted, or unreasonable interference in the chiropractic-patient relationship is permissible.

8.2.f. A licensee may not offer consumer solicitations that require an immediate response or a response within ten days to an offer at the time of the solicitation.

8.2.g. A licensee may not offer free or discounted services which exclude or limit certain classifications of patients.

§4-1-9. Testimonials.

9.1. A licensee may use a testimonial for advertising if the basis for the statements in the testimonial is documented, signed by the patient, and made part of the permanent record.

9.2. A licensee shall inform patients if testimonials are to be used publicly and told how they will be used.

§4-1-10. Abusive Billing Practices.

10.1. A licensee shall not engage in fraud, misrepresentation or deception in business affairs relating to the practice of chiropractic.

10.2. A licensee shall not engage in abusive billing practices which include, but are not limited to:

10.2.a. Filing claims for services not rendered;

10.2.b. Filing claims which misrepresent the service performed;

10.2.c. Filing multiple claims for a single service;

10.2.d. Failing to disclose pertinent information on a claim form; and

10.2.e. Increasing charges when a patient uses a third party payment program.

§4-1-11. Unlawful Referral.

11.1. A licensee may not receive payment for referral of a patient to or from another facility, health care provider, business, or professional entity.

11.2. A licensee shall not refer a patient to a facility in which he or she has a financial interest, unless the patient is informed of the relationship. This prohibition does not include an ownership interest in a building in which space is leased to a clinical laboratory, pharmacy, or physician at the prevailing rate under a lease arrangement that is not conditional upon the income or gross receipts of the clinical laboratory, pharmacy, or physician.

§4-1-12. Unlawful Inducement.

12.1. A licensee shall not offer payment to a patient as an inducement to enter or continue care.

§4-1-13. Investigation and Formal Hearings.

13.1. Upon receipt of a complaint or report, or knowledge of a violation in W.Va. Code 30-16-1 et seq. or the rules of the Board, the Board may initiate an investigation to determine whether probable cause exists to substantiate charges.

The Board shall give initial notice to the licensee and the notice shall include:

13.1.a. Notice that the Board has received a complaint, report, or knowledge of a possible act of misconduct;

13.1.b. The name of the complainant and a simple statement of the allegations which form the basis of the complaint; and 13.1.c. A request for a written response from the licensee.

13.2. Conduct Of Board Members During Inquiry. The investigative committee, composed of person(s) designated by the Board shall conduct the inquiry.

13.2.a. The full Board shall be screened from any knowledge of complaint and identities of the licensee during the investigative procedure.

13.2.b. Board members who have any involvement with the case before charges are brought shall not participate in the final adjudication of the case.

13.2.c. After the investigation, the investigative committee shall make a recommendation to the Board which may accept or reject the investigative committee's recommended action.

13.3. At the conclusion of the investigatory process, if the Board finds probable cause that a violation of the statute, rules, or ethical standards governing the practice of chiropractic has occurred the Board may initiate a formal hearing.

13.4. All contested hearings shall be held pursuant to the procedures outlined in W. Va. Code § 29A-5-1, et seq.

13.5. The Board shall send notice of the disciplinary hearing to all parties at least 30 days prior to the hearing. The notice shall cite the specific rules, and laws which form the basis of the complaint.

§4-1-14. Appeal.

14.1. The licensee may appeal a final Board decision to a circuit court of proper jurisdiction as provided in W.Va. Code 30-1-9.

§4-1-15. Chiropractic Assistants

15.1. A licensed chiropractor may employ chiropractic assistants to perform operational functions as well as selective and delegated tasks upon the prior approval of the supervising licensed chiropractor. Tasks which may be delegated to a chiropractic assistant include but are not limited to the following: set up and administration of electrical muscle stimulation, ultrasound, traction, diathermy, hydrocollation, cryotherapy, blood pressure examination, range of motion examination and patient histories.

15.2. The licensed chiropractor shall ensure that a chiropractic assistant receives proper training before beginning his or her duties and also receives periodic training. The licensed chiropractor may provide the required training or may require that the chiropractic assistant acquire the required training from a program accredited by the Council on Chiropractic Education (CCE) or the West Virginia Board of Chiropractic. The licensed chiropractor shall document the training received by each chiropractic assistant employed by him or her and keep the documents in the chiropractic assistant's employee file.

15.3. The licensed chiropractor that is responsible for assigning duties to a chiropractic assistant is solely responsible for determining that the chiropractic assistant is competent to perform the assigned duties. Further, no licensed chiropractor shall assign any duties to a chiropractic assistant until the licensed chiropractor is assured through personal observation and training that the chiropractic assistant is fully competent and completely qualified to perform the assigned duties.

4-1-16. Fees.

16.1. The annual renewal fee for chiropractors practicing in West Virginia is $200, out of state or retired chiropractors is $100.

16.2. If the license renewal requirements are postmarked after July 1, there is a $100 late fee.

16.3. If the license renewal requirements are postmarked after July 31, there is an additional $100 reinstatement fee.

16.4. The fee for each application for approval for Articles of Incorporation is $100 per request. The initial filing fee for a Professional Limited Liability company is $100 and an annual renewal fee of $100.

16.5. The examination fee is $150 per applicant and a fee of $50 per applicant for re-examination.

16.6. The license verification fee is $5 per chiropractor.

16.7. There is a fee of $.75 per copy for requested photocopies.

16.8. The initial licensing fee is $25 per licensee.

16.9. The fee for requests for continuing education courses is $35 per course.

ABSTRACT

The proposed rule repeals and replaces a current legislative rule. The following is a section by section synopsis of the proposed rule.

Section 1 is the standard general section, setting forth the scope, authority, filing date and effective date of the proposed rule.

Section 2 defines terms.

Section 3 sets forth qualifications for licensure. It contains minimum examination scores and required CCE credits.

Section 4 sets forth the duties of a licensee. It requires a licensee to maintain proper records and specifies information which must be contained in those records. It requires a licensee to maintain competence in the production and interpretation of X-rays and in the application of chiropractic therapeutics and sets forth the standards for competence.

Section 5 defines professional misconduct and specifies actions which constitute professional misconduct. Most of the provisions of this section are in the Code.

Section 6 relates to negligence and incompetence. It is basically redundant as it relates to the Code and other provisions of the proposed rule.

Section 7 relates to advertising. It contains requirements regarding the offering of free or discounted services.

Section 8 relates to testimonials. It requires that they be signed and that notice be given to the patient giving the testimonial if they are to be used publicly.

Section 9 relates to commercial misconduct. It sets forth prohibited abusive billing practices.

Section 10 relates to unlawful referrals. It prohibits a licensee from receiving payment for a patient referral and from referring a patient to a facility in which the licensee has a financial interest.

Section 11 prohibits a licensee from offering payment to a patient as inducement to enter or continue care.

Section 12 provides that repeated violations of Sections 9 through 11 constitute commercial misconduct.

Section 13 relates to the investigation of complaints and hearings. It specifies information which must be included in the initial notice of complaint to the licensee. It also provides for the investigation of the complaint by a committee of the Board.

Section 14 provides for the appeal of a final decision of the Board.

Section 15 allows the Board to apply for injunctive relief.

Section 16 relates to disciplinary actions and contains excerpts from the Code.

Section 17 refers to the statutory requirements regarding chiropractic corporations.

Section 18 relates to chiropractic assistants. It provides that they must be under the general supervision of a licensed chiropractor.

Section 19 contains the various fees charged by the Board.

AUTHORITY

Statutory authority: W.Va. Code, §§30-16-5 § 15, which provide, in part, as follows:

(a) The board shall:

...(3) Propose rules for legislative approval in accordance with the provisions of article three, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code, which shall after adoption govern and control the professional conduct of every person who holds a license to practice chiropractic in this state, and which shall include, but not be limited to, rules that:

(A) Delineate qualifications for licensure, including qualifications for practice in specialties;

(B) Specify requirements for the renewal of licensure;

(C) Set forth procedures for licensure of chiropractors;

(D) Establish a fee schedule for the amount and payment of all fees and charges;

(E) Establish standards of professional conduct;

(F) Establish procedures for disciplinary actions and complaint resolutions; and

(G) Provide for duties of board members;...

§30-16-15

...(b) The board shall propose rules for legislative approval in accordance with the provisions of article three, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code, establishing all additional continuing education requirements and all criteria for fulfillment of continuing education requirements...

ANALYSIS

I. HAS THE AGENCY EXCEEDED THE SCOPE OF ITS STATUTORY AUTHORITY IN APPROVING THE PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE RULE?

No.

II. IS THE PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE RULE IN CONFORMITY WITH THE INTENT OF THE STATUTE WHICH THE RULE IS INTENDED TO IMPLEMENT, EXTEND, APPLY, INTERPRET OR MAKE SPECIFIC?

Yes.

III. DOES THE PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE RULE CONFLICT WITH OTHER CODE PROVISIONS OR WITH ANY OTHER RULE ADOPTED BY THE SAME OR A DIFFERENT AGENCY?

No.

IV. IS THE PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE RULE NECESSARY TO FULLY ACCOMPLISH THE OBJECTIVES OF THE STATUTE UNDER WHICH THE PROPOSED RULE WAS PROMULGATED?

Many provisions of the proposed rule are unnecessary in that they are in the statute. The entire article relating to chiropractors was amended and reenacted during the 1998 Session in Enr. Com. Sub. for HB 4601 and is so detailed the there is not much need for rules. The areas that need some filling in are not sufficiently addressed in the proposed rule i.e. minimum qualifications for chiropractic assistants.

V. IS THE PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE RULE REASONABLE, ESPECIALLY AS IT AFFECTS THE CONVENIENCE OF THE GENERAL PUBLIC OR OF PERSONS AFFECTED BY IT?

Yes.

VI. CAN THE PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE RULE BE MADE LESS COMPLEX OR MORE READILY UNDERSTANDABLE BY THE GENERAL PUBLIC?

Yes. The proposed rule needs rewritten to delete provisions that are in the statute. The proposed rule only contains some provisions of the statute and is therefor very confusing.

VII. WAS THE PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE RULE PROMULGATED IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF CHAPTER 29A, ARTICLE 3 AND WITH ANY REQUIREMENTS IMPOSED BY ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THE CODE?

Yes.

VIII. OTHER.

Counsel has technical modifications to suggest. Basically the proposed rule needs to be rewritten.
