Brief Summary and Statement of Circumstances Series 3

The proposed rule changes some of the renewal requirements for Licensed Professional Counselors (LPC). Changes are:

- First time preparation and presentation of an in-service can be used as contact hours to renew up to 10 contact hours.
 - The same presentations were being used several times in the same renewal cycle.
- At least twenty (20) of the required forty (40) hours shall be obtained from attendance in offerings other than those taught, conducted, produced or presented by the licensee.
 - Some licensees were completing all their contact hours by presenting the same seminars and classes over and over.
- Wording was added to clarify joint authorship of counseling related books.
- Currently a professor employed to teach counseling graduate classes can count teaching those classes as contact hours towards renewal. The proposed wording allows the contact hours to be awarded to LPC that teach as long as the teaching is outside the licensee's regular employment duties.
- The proposed rule states that the LPC must obtain the 3 hour ethical requirement in a formal program on their first renewal cycle. Thereafter, the ethical requirement can be fulfilled through a formal program, home study or online program.

The other changes in the rule were simply moving one section to another section to make the rule read more logically.

The Board feels that these changes will help the Licensed Professional Counselor benefit more from the required continuing education and in turn perhaps better protect the citizens of West Virginia.
