Comments for section 126-67-5 Delivery Components of Comprehensive School Counseling Programs

5.1.c- Too many "ands" in first sentence of Responsive Services. I'm not clear on the meaning. How about " Responsive services are provided when events and situations in students 'lives OR the school climate and culture impede student success. " What is the intent of the sentence? That the school climate is so toxic it impedes student success? Or that the student needs help adjusting to school?
