§190-2-3. Exceptions to License Requirement.

3.1. In addition to the exceptions of the W. Va. Code §30-38-1(c), this rule does not apply to a person licensed to practice public accountancy as defined in W. Va. Code §30-9-3, including the performance of a business evaluation; Provided, that the exception does not apply to federally related transactions as defined in Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989, 12 U.S.C. §§ 3331-3351, as amended by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010.

§190-2-4. General Qualifications for Licensure or Certification.

4.1. Every person who applies to be classified as a licensed or certified appraiser shall:

4.1.a. Have a good reputation for honesty, truthfulness, and fair dealing, and be competent to transact the business of a licensed or certified appraiser in a manner that safeguards the interests of the public;

4.1.b. Except as provided in section 2-11 of this rule, meet the current education and experience requirements and submit an application to the Board or its agent prior to the time the applicant is approved to sit for the licensing or certification examination. An applicant shall complete an application for license or certification within twelve months after the board's receipt of the application and fee;

4.1.c. Be in good standing as a real estate appraiser in every jurisdiction where he or she is licensed or certified. An applicant's occupational or professional license or certification shall not be suspended, revoked or surrendered in connection with a disciplinary action or an applicant may not be the subject of disciplinary action in any jurisdiction prior to applying for licensure or certification in West Virginia;

4.1.d. Not have been found guilty or pled guilty, regardless of adjudication, in any jurisdiction, of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or of any felony. Any plea of nolo contendere is considered a conviction for purposes of this subdivision. The record of a conviction authenticated in a form that is admissible in evidence under the laws of the jurisdiction where convicted is admissible as prima facie evidence of the conviction; and

4.1.e. Be at least 18 years of age.

4.2. Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection 4.1 of this rule, the Board may consider and approve for license or certification, applicants who do not meet the requirements set forth in subdivisions 4.1.c. and 4.1.d. of this section.

4.3. At the time of filing an application for original or renewal of a license or certification, each applicant shall sign a pledge to comply with the standards of professional appraisal practice and the ethical rules established by the board. Each applicant shall certify that he or she understands the types of misconduct described in W. Va. Code §§30-38-1 et seq. and acknowledges that the board may initiate disciplinary proceedings against him or her for such misconduct.

4.4. Any applicant who applies to be classified as a licensed or certified appraiser shall comply with all requirements in effect at that time.

4.5. The applicant shall submit to a state and national criminal history record check for the purpose of determining whether the applicant has been charged with, indicted for, or convicted of a crime that may have bearing upon the applicant's fitness to hold a license.

4.5.a. The criminal history record check shall be based on fingerprints submitted to the West Virginia State Police or its assigned agent for forwarding to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

4.5.b. The applicant shall meet all requirements necessary to accomplish the state and national criminal history record check, including:

4.5.b.1. Submitting fingerprints for the purposes set forth in this subsection; and

4.5.b.2. Authorizing the board, the West Virginia State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation to use all records submitted and produced for the purpose of screening the applicant for a license.

4.5.c. The results of the state and national criminal history record check may not be released to or by a private entity except:

4.5.c.1. To the individual who is the subject of the criminal history record check;

4.5.c.2. With the written authorization of the individual who is the subject of the criminal history record check; or

4.5.c.3. Pursuant to a court order.

4.5.d. The criminal history record check and related records are not public records for the purposes of chapter twenty-nine-b of this code.

4.5.e. The applicant shall pay the actual costs of the fingerprinting and criminal history record check.

4.5.f. If the applicant for licensure actively holds an appraiser apprentice permit, licensed residential appraiser license, or certified residential appraiser license, issued by the board, and has previously completed a criminal background check conducted by the board, the results of the prior criminal background check shall satisfy the board's current criminal background investigation requirement.

The passing score shall be determined by the board based upon the recommendation of the testing service. Effective January 1, 2015, education and experience shall be completed before taking the national written exam.

6.3.b. Before the board issues an initial certification or license, an applicant shall complete and pass a written state examination covering the sections of the West Virginia Code that regulate the practice of real estate appraisal: Provided, that effective January 1, 2015, an applicant shall complete and pass a three (3) hour West Virginia law course by an examination approved by the board. The passing score shall be determined by the board.

§190-2-7. Procedure for Calculation of Experience by the Board.

7.1. As provided in Sections 5 and 6 of this rule, an applicant for residential appraiser licensing or certification shall provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant possesses the required amount of appraisal experience. The board may award maximum experience hours for residential real estate appraisals as follows:

7.1.a. A maximum of fifteen (15) hours of credit for a complex residential appraisal; and

7.1.b. A maximum of six (6) hours of credit for a non-complex residential appraisal.

7.2. As provided in subdivision 6.2.b. of this rule, an applicant for general appraiser certification shall provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant possesses the required amount of appraisal experience. At least one-half of the hours of the required experience shall be in non-residential appraisal assignments. The board may award maximum experience credits for non-residential real estate appraisals as follows:

7.2.a. A maximum of fifty (50) hours of credit for a complex non-residential appraisal;
and

7.2.b. A maximum of eight (8) hours of credit for a non-complex non-residential appraisal.

7.3. If an applicant for licensure or certification feels that he or she has performed any real estate appraisals under unique circumstances, or that he or she has expended a greater amount of hours in the performance of an appraisal than the provisions of this section allow, the applicant may provide the board with a log detailing the amount of actual hours spent on the appraisals, with sufficient details of the hours of experience for which he or she is requesting experience credit.

7.4. For the purpose of this section only: a non-complex appraisal is one for which:

7.4.a. There is an active market of essentially identical properties;

7.4.b. Adequate data is available to the appraiser;

7.4.c. Adjustments to comparable sales are not large in the aggregate, specifically not exceeding the trading range found in the market of essentially identical properties; and

7.4.d. For residential property, the contract price falls within the market norm (median sales price) of homes in the neighborhood.

7.5. For the purpose of this section only, a complex appraisal:

7.5.a. For non-residential property is one that relies to any significant degree on all three approaches to value (cost, sales comparison and income) or does not have the characteristics of a non-complex appraisal; and

7.5.b. For residential property is one that relies to any significant degree on at least two of the three approaches to value, with one approach being the sales comparison approach, or does not have the characteristics of a non-complex appraisal.

7.6. All appraisals submitted or claimed for experience credit are subject to verification by the board. An applicant may not claim experience hours for appraisals which are not supported by written reports or file memoranda. On request, an applicant shall furnish the board copies of appraisal reports and file memoranda supporting the experience hours sought by the applicant. The board shall treat all appraisal reports and file memoranda submitted to the board as confidential to the extent permitted by law.

§190-2-8. Qualifications for Licensure or Certification by Reciprocity.

8.1. Effective July 1, 2013, an applicant who is currently licensed or certified as a real estate appraiser in another jurisdiction may apply for a West Virginia appraiser license or certification of the same classification as the out-of-state license or certification: Provided that:

8.1.a. The appraiser licensing program of the other state is in compliance with Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989, 12 U.S.C. §§ 3331-3351, as amended by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010; and

8.1.b. The other state has credentialing requirements that meet or exceed those of West Virginia.

8.2. Effective July 1, 2013, each applicant for a license or certification by reciprocity shall:

8.2.a. Be at least 18 years of age;

8.2.b. Have a good reputation for honesty, truthfulness, and fair dealing, and be competent to transact the business of a real estate appraiser in a manner that safeguards the interest of the public;

8.2.c. Not have been convicted or pled guilty, regardless of adjudication, in any jurisdiction, of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or of any felony. Any plea of nolo contendere is considered a conviction for purposes of this subdivision. The record of a conviction authenticated in a form that is admissible in evidence under the laws of the jurisdiction where convicted is admissible as prima facie evidence of the conviction;

8.2.d. Be identified on The National Registry of The Appraisal Subcommittee as an active licensed or certified real property appraiser that currently conforms to the AQB criteria;

8.2.e. Complete an application approved by the board; and

8.2.f. On forms provided by the board, sign a pledge to comply with the standards of professional appraisal practice and the ethical rules that are established by the board. Each applicant shall also certify that he or she understands the types of misconduct as described in W. Va. Code §30-38-1 et seq. and that disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against him or her for that misconduct.

8.3. The Board may consider applicants for license or certification who do not meet the requirements set forth in subdivision 8.2.c of this section.

§190-2-9. Qualifications for Temporary Permit as a Licensed Residential Real Estate Appraiser, Certified Residential or Certified General Real Estate Appraiser

9.1. An individual who is currently licensed or certified as a real estate appraiser in another jurisdiction may apply for a temporary permit as provided Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989, 12 U.S.C. §§ 3331-3351, as amended by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010. Each applicant shall file with the board an irrevocable consent, duly acknowledged, to service of process upon a person located within this State designated to accept service, or upon the Secretary of State, if a plaintiff in a civil action arising from the applicant's activities as a real estate appraiser in this State is unable, through the exercise of due diligence, to effect personal service upon the temporary permit holder.

9.2. The board shall recognize the appraiser's certification or license issued by another state as equivalent to a West Virginia license or certification provided that:

9.2.a. The applicant's business is of a temporary nature, and is limited to one specific assignment;

9.2.b. The board considers the education, experience and general examination requirements completed in the jurisdiction of original licensure or certification to be substantially equivalent to those required for the appropriate level of licensure or certification in West Virginia;

9.2.c. The applicant signs, as part of the application, an affidavit certifying that the appraiser will read and comply with West Virginia law and the board's rules;

9.2.d. The applicant is in good standing as a licensed or certified real estate appraiser in every jurisdiction where he or she is licensed or certified, the license or certification has not been suspended, revoked, or surrendered in connection with a disciplinary action, and the applicant ~~be~~ is not and has not been the subject of disciplinary action in any jurisdiction;

9.2.e. The applicant has a good reputation for honesty, truthfulness, and fair dealing, and is competent to transact business of a real estate appraiser in a manner that safeguards the interest of the public;

9.2.f. The applicant has not been found guilty or pled guilty, regardless of adjudication, in any jurisdiction, of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or of any felony. Any plea of nolo contendere is considered a conviction for purposes of this subdivision. The record of a conviction authenticated in a form that is admissible in evidence under the laws of the jurisdiction where convicted is admissible as prima facie evidence of the conviction; and

9.2.g. The applicant is at least 18 years of age.

9.3. The board may consider and approve for a temporary permit an applicant who does not meet the requirements set forth in subdivisions 9.2.d. and 9.2.f. of this section.

9.4. The temporary permit issued under the provisions of this section is expressly limited to the authority of the permit holder to perform the specific contract of appraising which is the basis for the temporary permit.

9.5. Each temporary permit expires upon the completion of the appraisal work which is the basis of the permit or after a period of six (6) months, whichever occurs first.

§190-2-10. Licensure, Certification and Other Fees.

- 10.1. All licensure and certification fees for licenses and certifications are non-refundable.

10.3. The board shall collect from each licensed or certified appraisers an annual registry fee established by the Appraisal Subcommittee and shall annually submit the registry fees to the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council

10.4. The board shall deposit all fees and revenues collected pursuant to this rule in a special fund that the board shall use solely for the purposes of paying the expenses of the administration of W. Va. Code §30-38-1 et seq.

§190-2-11. Qualifications for Apprentices, Apprentice Supervisors, Apprentice Permits.

11.1. This section establishes an appraiser apprentice permit program for persons who desire to acquire the appraisal experience required by this rule in order to be licensed or certified.

11.2. Participation in the apprentice program is a prerequisite to licensure or certification except in cases of reciprocity or issuance of a temporary permit.

11.3. Application for apprentice permit; requirements and qualifications. An applicant for an apprentice permit shall submit: a completed application form; the permit fee; and, the name and address of his or her proposed supervisor. An applicant shall:

11.3.a. Be at least eighteen (18) years of age;

11.3.b. Have a good reputation for honesty and truthfulness as required by subdivisions 4.1.a. and 4.1.d. of this rule;

11.3.c. Have a high school diploma or its equivalent;

11.3.d. Have completed and passed seventy-five hours (75) in subjects related to real estate appraisal in accordance with subsection 5.1. of this rule within the five (5) year period prior to the date of submission of application for an apprentice permit; and

11.3.e. Cause his or her supervisor to submit a copy of an appraisal completed by the supervisor to the upgrades committee of the board for review, which shall have been performed within three (3) months preceding the submission of the apprentice application. Such appraisal must be a residential appraisal that at minimum includes the cost and sales comparison approach to value. The upgrades committee shall review the appraisal of the supervisor to determine compliance with USPAP and W. Va. Code §30-38-1, et seq. Based upon the supervisor's compliance with USPAP and W. Va. Code §30-38-1, et seq., as reflected from a review of the appraisal submitted by the supervisor, or failure of compliance thereof, the upgrades committee shall recommend and submit to the Board for final determination, whether to approve ~~or~~ the supervisor from acting in the capacity of supervisor to the apprentice. If the Board disapproves a supervisor from acting in the capacity of supervisor to an apprentice, the board shall deny the apprentice application.

11.3.f. Submit to, and pay for the actual costs of, a state and national criminal history record check as set forth in subsection 4.5 of this rule, for the purpose of determining whether the applicant has been charged with, indicted for, or convicted of a crime that may have bearing upon the applicant's fitness to hold a license.

11.4. Until December 31, 2014, an apprentice shall attend, when offered by the board, an apprentice orientation program within sixty (60) days immediately following the issuance of the apprentice permit. Effective January 1, 2015, the apprentice shall complete a board-approved supervisor-apprentice orientation course that, at a minimum, complies with the specifications for course content established by the Appraisal Qualifications Board prior to obtaining the apprentice permit.

11.5. Effective January 1, 2015, the applicant shall complete and pass a three (3) hour West Virginia law course, with exam, prior to obtaining the apprentice permit.

11.6. Annual Apprentice Permit Renewal.

An apprentice may renew his or her annual permit upon submission to the board of a renewal application, the annual permit fee, proof of fourteen (14) hours continuing education as defined in "Renewal of Licensure for Certification", 190 CSR 3.

11.6.a. Effective July 1, 2015, an apprentice shall, as a condition of renewal, complete a three (3) hour West Virginia law course, with exam, every four (4) years.

11.7. Responsibilities of Apprentice.

11.7.a. The apprentice shall work under the direct supervision of a state certified appraiser.

11.7.b. The apprentice and supervisor shall jointly maintain an experience log on a form designed by the Board. Experience hours shall be calculated in accordance with Section 7 of this rule. Separate experience logs shall be maintained for each supervisor.

11.7.c. An apprentice shall view the property and participate in the appraisal process in order to sign the report and to receive credit for the hours spent. The report shall be signed by the apprentice as follows:

Assisted by: _____

Apprentice Number: _____

11.7.d. The apprentice shall ensure that the experience log is available at all times for inspection by the board; and

11.7.e. When performing appraisal assignments, the apprentice shall carry on his or her person, the permit issued by the board;

11.8. Qualifications of Supervisor.

A supervisor shall be a state certified appraiser, active and in good standing for at least three (3) years, shall not have been the subject of any disciplinary action affecting the appraiser's legal eligibility to engage in the practice of real estate appraisal for the previous three (3) years, shall not be the subject of any complaint or pending disciplinary action, and shall have the following duties:

11.8.a. The supervisor may not supervise more than two (2) apprentices at one time. The supervisor shall at all provide direct supervision of the work performed by the apprentice in accordance with the USPAP, and, when offered by the board, attend the apprentice orientation program within sixty (60) days immediately following the issuance of the apprentice permit and supervisor approval, required by subsection 11.4. of this rule: Provided, that effective January 1, 2015, a supervisor shall, before supervising an apprentice, complete a board-approved supervisor-apprentice orientation course that at minimum complies with the specifications for course content established by the AQB;

11.8.b. The supervisor and apprentice shall jointly maintain an experience log on a form designed by the Board. Experience hours shall be calculated in accordance with section 7 of this rule. Separate experience logs shall be maintained for each supervisor and shall indicate his or her certification number. The supervisor and apprentice shall, at least once a month, sign the experience log required to be kept by the apprentice, and each shall indicate his or her license or certification or permit number.

11.8.c. The supervisor shall make available to the apprentice, a copy of any appraisal report that the apprentice signed that is requested for review by the board; and 11.8.d. Until December 31, 2014, after the apprentice completes and passes the examinations required by subsection 5.3 of this rule and has obtained five hundred (500) hours of experience, the supervisor and the apprentice may jointly apply to the board for an exemption that would allow the supervisor to sign the appraisal report without viewing the property, provided the apprentice is competent to perform the inspection. In any application for exemption, the supervisor and the apprentice shall obtain from the board and complete an application for exemption from supervisory accompaniment, pay the appropriate fee as set forth in subsection 10.2 of this rule, and attach an experience log that reflects the apprentice's completion of at least five hundred (500) hours of experience. The experience log shall be in chronological order, complete and signed as required by subdivision 11.8.b.

11.9. Until December 31, 2014, an apprentice may take the examinations required by subsection 5.3. of this rule at any time during his or her apprenticeship. Effective January 1, 2015, an apprentice may take the licensing examinations required by this rule only after completing required education and experience components.

11.10. This section is not intended to prohibit a person who does not have an apprentice permit from assisting or helping a licensed or certified appraiser as long as that person does not sign the report; Provided, That the licensed or certified appraiser who uses such an assistant or helper shall conform with all duties required by this rule.

§190-2-12. Inactive Status.

12.1. Until December 31, 2014, any licensed or certified appraiser may place his or her license or certification on inactive status by completing a signed and sworn affidavit approved by the board and paying the annual inactive status fee. Effective January 1, 2015, only a licensed or certified appraiser who is in good standing and not the subject of a pending complaint or disciplinary action may place his or her license or certification on inactive status.

12.2. Effective January 1, 2015, no apprentice is eligible for inactive status.

12.3. A licensed or certified real estate appraiser on inactive status may not engage in the practice of real estate appraisal but may still consider himself or herself as an appraiser.

12.4. Effective January 1, 2015, a licensed or certified appraiser may remain on inactive status for no more than five (5) years if he or she pays the annual fee for inactive status: Provided, that for an appraiser on inactive status on December 31, 2014, the five (5) year period shall begin on January 1, 2015. The appraiser's license or certification shall expire at the end of the five (5) year period, and the appraiser may not engage in the practice of real estate appraisal unless the board grants a new license or certification under this rule.

12.5. Until January 1, 2015, an appraiser may reactivate a license or certification by paying the fee established by the board for an active license or certificate in his or her classification and verifying to the board that he or she completed, for each licensure year of inactive status, the continuing education required by "Renewal of License or Certification" 190 CSR 3. Effective January 1, 2015, to reactivate an unexpired license or certification, a licensed or certified appraiser shall:

12.5.a. Pay the reactivation fee established by the board for the license or certification;

12.5.b. Submit documentation that the appraiser has completed the current fifteen (15) hour USPAP course, the current West Virginia Law course and, for each licensure year of inactive status, all other continuing education required by "Renewal of License or Certification," 190 CSR 3; and 12.5.c. Submit to, and pay for the actual costs of, a state and national criminal history record check as set forth in subsection 4.5 of this rule, for the purpose of determining whether the appraiser has been charged with, indicted for or convicted of a crime that may bear upon the appraiser's fitness to hold a license.

§190-2-13. Licenses and Certifications.

13.1. The board shall issue to each licensed or certified real estate appraiser a document stating that the license or certification has been issued pursuant to W. Va. Code §30-38-7(j) and specifying the expiration date. The board shall issue a pocket card with the name and license or certification number of the respective licensee. An appraiser subject to this rule shall place his or her title and license or certification number on all statements of qualifications, contracts or other instruments, including advertising media. The pocket card remains the property of the board and the licensee shall surrender it upon request by the board.

13.2. Initial licenses and certifications expire on September 30 following the date of issue. Subsequent licenses and certifications are renewed for the period of October 1 to September 30 of the following year.

§190-2-14. Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice.

14.1. Each licensed or certified appraiser shall comply with generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice and generally accepted ethical rules to be observed by a real estate appraiser, at minimum the USPAP, incorporated by reference. The minimum standard for an appraisal report shall be the edition of the USPAP in effect on the date of the appraisal report. Appraisers may view a copy of the USPAP at the office of the board during regular business hours or may purchase a copy from the Appraisal Foundation.
