Re: Repeal of Procedural Rule for Commission Review of Electric Cooperatives, Natural Gas Cooperatives, Telephone Cooperatives and Municipal Rate Change Pursuant to West Virginia Code §24-2-4b 150 C.S.R. Series 10
Most Recent Effective Date of Rule: November 26, 1993
Effective Date of Repeal of Rule: January 1, 2019

Dear Ms. Lewis:

By this letter, the Public Service Commission of West Virginia repeals the Procedural Rule for Commission Review of Electric Cooperatives, Natural Gas Cooperatives, Telephone Cooperatives and Municipal Rate Change Pursuant to West Virginia Code §24-2-4b, 150 C.S.R. Series 10 (Municipal Rules), pursuant to Rule 5.17 of the Electronic Filing and Formatting of Rules, 153 C.S.R. 1 (Rule 5.17).¹

The Municipal Rules were initially effective March 16, 1981, and were subsequently modified effective December 28, 1981, November 8, 1983, and November 26, 1993. Repeal of the Municipal Rules will be effective January 1, 2019.

The Commission and its rules are Legislative exempt (W.Va. Code §§24-2-7, 29A-1-2(d), and 29A-1-3(b)), and, therefore, repeal of the Municipal Rules by letter is authorized by Rule 5.17.

¹ "When repealing a legislative-exempt, procedural or interpretive rule, a letter signed by the agency head will be filed. The letter will indicate the name of the agency, the title and service number of the rule, the name of the rule, the effective date of the rule and the date the repeal will be effective."

Pursuant to W.Va. Code §29A-1-2(d), a Legislative exempt rule “means every rule promulgated by an agency or relating to a subject matter that is exempt from the rule-making provisions of article three of this chapter, under section three, article one of this chapter or any other section of this code.”

On December 21, 2018, the Public Service Commission of West Virginia issued General Order No. 200.5, giving notice about the repeal of the Municipal Rules to all electric cooperatives, natural gas cooperatives, telephone cooperatives, and municipalities in the State.

Please let us know if you have any questions or require additional information.

Sincerely yours,
