§61-11B-9. Accredited Auctioneering Schools.

9.1. The Commissioner shall annually issue a list of accredited auctioneering schools.

9.2. Any school wishing to be included on the list of accredited auctioneering schools shall submit to the Commissioner a complete curriculum, a course schedule, a list of the instructors, credentials of the instructors, the location of the school, the cost and any other information considered necessary by the Commissioner for a decision on the qualifications of the school to be accredited in West Virginia.

§61-11B-10. Suspension, Revocation, Expiration or Termination of Supervising Auctioneer's License.

10.1. The suspension, revocation, expiration or termination of a supervising auctioneer's license shall automatically suspend the license of any apprentice auctioneer sponsored or employed by the suspended auctioneer. However, an apprentice auctioneer may retain an apprentice licenses by transferring to the sponsorship of another licensed auctioneer: Provided, that the request for the transfer is made in writing and according to the procedures outlined in W. Va. Code §19-2C-6, and approved by the Commissioner or his or her designee.

§61-11B-11. Reciprocity.

11.1. Any ~~out-of-state~~ resident who holds a valid auctioneer's license in a reciprocal state may be granted a West Virginia license. Provided, that the ~~resident~~ state in which he or she is licensed provides similar recognition to a licensee of this State, and that the licensing requirements of the ~~resident~~ reciprocal state are at least equal to those of the State of West Virginia. The Commissioner shall annually issue a list of states with whom reciprocity has been formally approved.

§61-11B-12. Waiver of Apprenticeship.

12.1. The Commissioner may, with the concurrence of the Auctioneer Board of Review, grant a wavier of the apprenticeship requirements. For an applicant to be granted a wavier, he or she shall petition the Commissioner for a waiver and provide certified documentation as to the qualifications of the candidate to be an auctioneer without serving an apprenticeship. This documentation shall include formal training in the profession, exceptional practical training such as verification of conducting charity or other types of auctions which are exempt from the licensing requirements, and any other information to assist the Commissioner in making a ruling. The Commissioner may grant a waiver only under exceptional circumstances, after receiving concurrence from the Auctioneer Board of Review, and shall not consider them a routine matter. Under no circumstances shall the Commissioner grant a wavier if it is determined that experience in the profession has been gained as a result of auctioneering which was not in compliance with the laws and rules of the State of West Virginia or the State where the experience was gained.

12.2. To be a sponsoring auctioneer of an apprentice, the auctioneer must have held an auctioneer's license for at least two (2) consecutive years and can sponsor no more than two (2) apprentice auctioneers at any time.

§61-11B-13. Advertising.

13.1. Any circular or other printed material advertising a sale shall contain the name and license number of the auctioneer conducting the sale, the name and license number of any apprentice auctioneer assisting with the sale, and the date, place and exact time of the auction.

§61-11B-14. Contracts.

14.1.4. The contract shall specifically state the amount of time to settle the account with the consignors, which is within fourteen (14) calendar days of the sale unless otherwise stated in the contract.

14.2. An apprentice auctioneer may not contract directly with a client.

§61-11B-15. Board of Review.

15.1. The Board of Review shall meet at the call of the Commissioner or his or her designee to review the findings of an investigation resulting from a verified complaint received by the Department or an investigation initiated by the Department's own actions.

15.2. The Board of Review shall review these findings, all of the material related to the investigation, and any other material considered by the Board to be appropriate. The Board of review shall make a recommendation, in writing, to the Commissioner as to the course of action for the Commissioner on the complaint. Such recommendation may include a recommendation for the Commissioner to impose an increased bond amount, pursuant to section 4.1. Board decisions shall be majority decisions of those members present. A quorum of two (2) members is required for Board action.

15.3. When considered appropriate by the Commissioner, or his or her designee, the Board may meet via telephone conference call, but shall only provide a recommendation after receiving and reviewing hard copies of the material pertinent to the complaint.

15.4. A member of the staff of the Department, appointed by the Commissioner, shall serve as staff for the Board and shall be responsible for the presentation of each complaint. The staff member shall not participate in the discussions beyond the reasonable explanation of the facts of the complaint.

§61-11B-16. Licensing and Fees.

16.1. Any person who wishes to conduct an auction as an auctioneer may apply for a license on forms prescribed by the commissioner. A nonreturnable fifty dollar ($50) application fee and fifty dollar ($50) license fee shall accompany each application.

16.2. The approved applicant shall take an examination to become a licensed auctioneer or apprentice auctioneer at the regularly scheduled time and place designated. The examination fee is fifty dollars ($50), in addition to any other required fees.

16.2.1. An applicant, who has previously paid the examination fee and successfully completed the apprentice auctioneer's examination, is not required to pay an additional fee for the auctioneer exam.

16.3. A license expires ~~December 31~~ June 30 of each year, and must be renewed within sixty (60) days of its expiration. The fee for the annual renewal of the auctioneer or apprentice auctioneer's license is fifty dollars ($50).

16.3.1. Renewals received more than sixty (60) days after the expiration date are subject to a late renewal fee of twenty-five dollars ($25), in addition to the annual renewal fee.

16.3.2. Renewals received more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the expiration date are subject to a late renewal fee of fifty dollars ($50), in addition to the annual renewal fee.

16.3.3. Renewals received more than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the expiration date are subject to a late renewal fee of seventy-five dollars ($75), in addition to the annual renewal fee.

16.3.4. A member of the military on active duty is exempt from renewal late fees upon submission of proof of service with the renewal application. The member shall meet all other license requirements.

16.4. If a duplicate or replacement license or license reflecting a change in information is required, the auctioneer or apprentice auctioneer shall submit with the request a fee of five dollars ($5).

16.5. The fee for the transfer of the license of an apprentice auctioneer to a new employer auctioneer is fifteen dollars ($15).

16.6. To obtain ~~a nonresident~~ an auctioneer license by reciprocity, the applicant must meet the qualifications required in W.Va. Code 19-2C and submit a nonreturnable fifty dollar ($50) application fee and fifty dollar ($50) license fee with each application.

§61-11B-17. Charitable Auctions.

17.1. Any person who does not have a West Virginia auctioneer license and wishes to conduct an auction on behalf of a charitable organization may do so provided the person conducting the auction shall:

17.1.1. Receive no monetary compensation for his or her services;

17.1.2. Not engage in the sale other than volunteer auction services;

17.1.3. Only conduct four (4) charitable auctions in a 12-month period. Provided, special requests to allow for more than four (4) charitable auctions per licensed year may be submitted to the Commissioner in writing, detailing specific reasons to exceed four (4) charitable auction limit and justification for not acquiring West Virginia auctioneer license.

17.1.4 Record charitable auctions on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

§61-11B-18. Online Auctions.

18.1. Any person listing goods for sale at public auction or auction on the internet which includes live, real-time, extended, or any similar such event as may be devised with the development of technology or any combination of such and increases in bid increments, is subject to the rules and regulations set forth therein and W.Va. Code 19-2C.

18.2. The provisions of this section do not apply to e-commerce corporations or marketplaces that facilitate or provide consumer-to-consumer or business-to-consumer sales through its website and provide internal buyer and seller protections to its participants, i.e. ebay or similar auction-based websites.
