§126-35-1. General.
5/23/2019	Carla Brown	Transition from the WVBE to the county board level places an unfunded, unstaffed, undue hardship on counties, especially small under funded counties.	N-	Policy must be revised to reflect legislative changes in state code, giving county BOE more local control.
§126-35-2. Purpose.
5/23/2019	Carla Brown	There is no possible smooth transition as this will just become a burden to counties that do not have the means to efficiently conduct necessary review of materials.	N-	Policy must be revised to reflect legislative changes in state code, giving county BOE more local control.
§126-35-3. County Responsibilities.
5/23/2019	Carla Brown	3.3 A state list would be an absolute must for small counties to even have a chance to meet this new requirement. I do not believe, however, that companies will care enough to pursue being on the state list and leave small counties with no support. The state has to have a mindset of change that considers the needs of all counties. I find this change to be inconsiderate, inappropriate and	A+/- N-	State will provide resource review results for publishers who wish to participate in state-wide review. While not required, many publishers will participate in this as they realize it will be to their benefit to be included on the list.
