I vote in favor of this bill to authorize waivers of the initial licensing fees of eligible low income and military family licensure applicants. This could truly help those in need and permit them to becoming productive tax paying residents of this great state.

11 CSR 1B

The West Virginia Board of Medicine is accepting written comments on proposed amendments to 11 CSR 1B, Licensure, Disciplinary and Complaint Procedures, Continuing Education, Physician Assistants. The amendments to this rule implement the provisions of Senate Bill 668 with respect to physician assistant practice. The Board is also in the process of promulgating an emergency rule which incorporates the proposed amendments.

The proposed amendments to 11 CSR 1B are available for review and comment.

11 CSR 13

The Board is also accepting written comments on a proposed new rule series, 11 CSR 13, Waiver of Initial Licensing Fees or Certain Initial Licensure Applicants. This rule is intended to implement Senate Bill 396, which authorizes waivers of the initial licensing fee for eligible low income and military family licensure applicants.

Proposed rule 11 CSR 13 is available for review and comment.

The Board encourages all interested persons to review the proposed rulemaking and provide comments on the proposed changes. All comments must be received by 4:30 pm on July 19, 2019, and should be submitted to:

Re: Proposed West Virginia Board of Medicine Rule 11 CSR 13

Dear Dr. Minton:

Thank you for taking the time to review and comment on the Board's proposed new rule series 11 CSR 13, Waiver of Initial Licensing Fees for Certain Initial Licensure Applicants, which was recently out for comment. No modifications were made to the proposed new rule series. The agency-approved version of 11 CSR 13 will be filed with the West Virginia Secretary of State's Office this week and will be available for review on the Secretary of State's website at <https://apps.sos.wv.gov/adlaw/csr/>.

The Board is grateful for the time and effort that you took to review the rule and provide feedback.

Sincerely,
