§179-1-3. Financial Administration

3.1. Collection of Accounts - Agents and retailers shall establish private banking accounts in which to deposit payments for the purchase of lottery tickets or receipts from draw sales.

3.1.a. The funds in each of the accounts established under this section shall be swept by electronic funds transfer ("EFT") and/or an Automated Clearing House ("ACH") transfer to an account of the State Treasurer as provided for in paragraph 3.2.b.1 of this section.

3.1.b. The Director may authorize other methods of collection such as intra-governmental transfers in the case of other state agencies.

3.2. State Lottery Fund - The Director shall implement the State Lottery Fund which shall consist of a group of accounts within the State Treasury.

3.2.a. The accounts shall be established in accordance with applicable provisions of state law, and any applicable rules of the State Treasurer.

3.2.b. In implementing the State Lottery Fund, the following accounts shall be used:

3.2.b.1. Revenues and Transfers Account - This account shall consist of all revenue received from the sale of lottery tickets. Transfers shall be made from this account for prizes, net profit, and operation and administration expenses, in amounts and for the purposes established by W.Va. Code §29-22-18. Net profits shall be transferred to the accounts to which the Legislature has appropriated them. If net profits for any particular year exceed the amount appropriated by the Legislature, the excess funds shall be held in this account until such time as they are appropriated. The funds in this account shall be invested in the State Consolidated Fund until the point of transfer and are interest bearing.

3.2.b.2. Operation and Administration Expenses Account - This account shall consist of transfers made from the Revenues and Transfers Account not to exceed fifteen percent (15%) of net lottery revenue. In the event that the balance of this account is equal to or greater than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), any excess over that amount shall be considered and allocated as net profit.

3.2.b.3. Jackpot Prize Trust Account - This account shall consist of jackpot prizes accumulated for the purpose of buying annuities for the payment of prizes due the winners over a period of years. Also, as the annuities mature, the funds shall be held in this account until payment is made to the winners.

3.3. Prize Disbursement Account - The Director shall establish a Prize Disbursement Account, in a private banking institution, which shall permit the immediate payment of lottery prizes, by check, EFT and/or an ACH payment, to the winners.

3.3.a. The total expenditures from the Prize Disbursement Account and the Jackpot Prize Trust Account combined with any prizes paid by the sales agents and retailers, shall be a minimum annual average of forty-five percent (45%) of gross amount received.

3.3.b. The Prize Disbursement Account shall be a demand deposit account established by the Director in accordance with applicable law and rules of the State Treasurer funded daily by transfers from the Revenue and Transfers Account.

3.3.c. Access to the account for purposes of drawing checks shall be limited to those persons expressly authorized by the Director to operate secure check writing machines and who are provided security keys and computer keys for their operation incident to their official duties.

3.3.d. All checks issued from the Prize Disbursement Account shall prominently display the logo of the West Virginia Lottery.

3.3.e. Checks in payment of prizes drawn upon the Prize Disbursement Account may be issued under the signature of the Director or the authorized facsimile of his or her signature.

3.3.f. The Director may also cause checks to be issued from the Prize Disbursement Account to lottery sales agents and lottery retailers to fulfill obligations of a bonus-incentive plan.

3.3.g. The agency shall settle retailer and agent accounts no less frequently than weekly, unless the Director specifies a different time.

3.3.h. The Director may make payments from the Prize Disbursement Account to sales agents and retailers for purposes of refund or credit for unsold lottery tickets, other lottery ticket sales adjustments or instant game account adjustments.

§179-1-4. Licensing

4.1. The Commission shall license as lottery sales agents and as lottery retailers those persons who will, in the judgment of the Commission, meet the statutory requirements for licensing, promote the sale of lottery tickets and materials, promote the best interest of the Lottery and of the State, and achieve the goals of the statute.

4.1.a. Any person interested in obtaining a license as a lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent shall first file an application with the Director on a form supplied for that purpose by the Director. The application form shall be designed to solicit sufficient relevant information from an applicant to permit the Director to make the determination required by the Lottery Act and this rule for issuance of a license by the Commission.

4.1.b. The license of a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer in any capacity is a privilege personal to that person and is not a legal right. The license is revocable by the Director. A licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer may surrender the license to the Director.

4.2. Eligibility for licensing. Any person may submit an application for licensing as a lottery agent or retailer, except:

4.2.a. No person may submit an application who will engage in business solely as a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer, except for those third party vendors licensed by and contracted with the Lottery to provide iLottery sales as a Special Licensed Retailer;

4.2.b. No person under the age of twenty-one (21) may submit an application for licensing as a lottery sales agent or lottery retailer;

4.2.c. No person may submit an application who is a member of the Commission or an employee of the agency, or who is the spouse, child, brother, sister or parent, by blood or marriage, residing as a member of the same household or in the principal place of abode of a member of the Commission or employee of the agency;

4.2.d. No person may submit an application who is a vendor of lottery tickets or material or data processing services, or, which is owned by, controlled by, or affiliated with a vendor of lottery tickets or materials or data processing services, provided that this rule does not apply to the operation of iLottery by a Special Licensed Retailer;

4.2.e. No foreign corporation may submit an application unless it is currently registered to do business within the State of West Virginia; and,

4.3. Disqualification, grounds of refusal of a license.

4.3.a. The Commission shall require all new applicants for licenses to furnish fingerprints for a national criminal records check by the Criminal Identification Bureau of the West Virginia State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The fingerprints shall be furnished by all persons required to be named in the application and shall be accompanied by a signed authorization for the release of information by the Criminal Investigation Bureau and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

4.3.b. The Commission may require any applicant seeking the renewal of a license to furnish fingerprints for a national criminal records check by the Criminal Identification Bureau of the West Virginia State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The West Virginia Lottery may require all or any part of the persons required to be named in an application to provide fingerprints and the fingerprints shall be accompanied by a signed authorization for the release of information by the Criminal Investigation Bureau and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

4.3.c. The Commission shall refuse to grant a license to any person who is subject to an exception to subsection 4.2. of this rule or to any applicant who has been convicted of a violation of:

4.3.c.1. W. Va. Code §29-22-1 et seq.;

4.3.c.2. Any felony; or

4.3.c.3. Any crime related to theft or gambling unless within the discretion of the Commission, it is determined that an appropriate amount of time has elapsed since the conviction to ensure rehabilitation of the applicant: Provided, that upon conviction of the crimes enumerated in this subdivision 4.3.c.3 of this subsection a current licensee is disqualified from holding a license for a period of at least five years: Provided, however, that no applicant may be licensed if convicted of the crimes enumerated in this paragraph within the five year period immediately preceding the filing of an application for a license.

4.4. Issuance of licenses. Upon receipt, review and investigation of applications and applicant background, the Commission may issue annual licenses for sales or distribution of lottery tickets in accordance with this rule. The Commission shall license only those persons or entities which, in its opinion, will best serve the public interest and public trust in the Lottery and promote the sales of lottery tickets. Prior to issuing any license, the Commission shall consider the following factors:

4.4.a. The moral character and reputation of the applicant;

4.4.b. The financial responsibility and security of the applicant and his or her business or activity;

4.4.c. The accessibility of the public to the licensed premises proposed by applicant;

4.4.d. The number and sufficiency of existing licenses to serve the public interest;

4.4.e. The volume of applicant's expected lottery ticket sales;

4.4.f. The security and efficient operation of the Lottery;

4.4.g. Whether the applicant is ineligible under any provisions of the Lottery Act;

4.4.h. Whether the applicant has received or will hold, either as principal, entity, subsidiary agent, or subcontractor more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the licenses to act as lottery sales agent in any one (1) county or municipality, or more than five percent (5%) of the licenses issued statewide, unless eligible for consideration for an exception under the Act;

4.4.i. Whether the applicant has provided false or misleading information or has misrepresented information regarding qualifications or fitness for licensure;

4.4.j. Whether the applicant is a West Virginia corporation or is currently licensed to do business within the State of West Virginia and whether the applicant's state taxes are current; and

4.4.k. Whether any person listed on the application owes an unpaid debt to the West Virginia Lottery other than a debt extinguished by bankruptcy discharge.

4.5. Revocation; grounds for removal or suspension of license or non-renewal of license.

4.5.a. The Commission may, for any reason outlined in this section, or for other cause shown revoke, suspend, or decline to renew a license of a lottery sales agent or lottery retailer.

4.5.b. If at any time after issuance of a license, it is determined by the Director that a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer would no longer meet the standards for the issuance of a license provided in this rule, he or she may immediately suspend the license. The suspension shall remain in effect until the reason for suspension has abated, or in the alternative, he or she may ask the Commission to revoke the license.

4.5.c. If the licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer fails to observe and comply with the procedures and the rules of the Commission or with the provisions of the Lottery Act, or orders or instructions of the Director, the Commission may suspend or revoke the license of that person.

4.5.d. Additional grounds for suspension or revocation of license.

4.5.d.1. Non-compliance with Lottery Act or Rules. The Director may suspend or recommend to the Commission that it revoke the license of a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer who does not comply with the Lottery Act and all rules, conditions, standards and other policies adopted, promulgated or issued under the Lottery Act, by the Commission or the Director.

4.5.d.2. Violation of prohibitions. The Commission may suspend or revoke the license of any licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer who violates one of the prohibitions set out in the subparagraphs of this paragraph.

4.5.d.2.A. A licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall not sell a lottery ticket at a price greater than or less than that stated by the Commission.

4.5.d.2.B. A licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall not sell a lottery ticket at a location or premises different than that shown on the license certificate.

4.5.d.2.C. A licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall not permit any other person to sell lottery tickets consigned to him or her; provided that a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer may sell lottery tickets through his or her employees.

4.5.d.2.D. No licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall sell a lottery ticket to any person under eighteen (18) years of age.

4.5.d.2.E. No licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer, directly or indirectly, on behalf of himself or herself, or another, nor any organization, shall invite, solicit, demand, or offer or accept any payment, contribution, favor, or other consideration to influence the award, renewal or retention of a license.

4.5.d.2.F. A lottery ticket shall not be purchased with food stamps or other government food subsidy coupons and the licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall not accept as consideration for a lottery ticket food stamps or other government food subsidy coupons nor any other coupons whatsoever unless specifically sanctioned and/or offered by the West Virginia Lottery Commission and securely identified as sanctioned.

4.5.d.2.G. A licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall not transfer lottery ticket stock, used for lottery terminals, between stores in the same chain unless the transfer is consented to in writing by a person authorized by the Director to consent.

4.5.d.2.H. A licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall not transfer lottery tickets between individual stores in the same chain unless such is requested of, and approved by the Lottery and the move recorded on the Lottery gaming systems.

4.5.d.2.I. A licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall not sell any lottery ticket, lottery chance or lottery product unless the game being sold is approved by the Commission.

4.5.d.2.J. Licensed lottery sales agents and retailers may sell lottery tickets on a credit basis by accepting only a bank issued credit or debit card for the purchase thereof. Licensed lottery sales agents and retailers may establish a minimum amount for a debit or credit card transaction but in no event can a single transaction for the purchase of lottery tickets exceed $200.00.

4.5.d.3. Grounds relating to the honest and efficient conduct of the Lottery. The Director may suspend or recommend to the Commission the revocation of a licensed lottery sales agent's or lottery retailer's license for any of the following:

4.5.d.3.A. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has made a fraudulent misrepresentation in connection with his or her application for a license, in any of his or her reports, or to any person in connection with a lottery transaction;

4.5.d.3.B. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has failed to maintain the sales levels set for him or her by the Director;

4.5.d.3.C. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has begun to engage in the sale of lottery tickets as his or her sole business, occupation or activity;

4.5.d.3.D. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has failed to take adequate security precautions for the safe handling of lottery tickets, lottery materials or lottery ticket sales proceeds due from the licensed lottery sales agent's or lottery retailer's ticket sales;

4.5.d.3.E. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has failed to regularly, promptly and accurately settle the accounts of his or her lottery transactions and pay the amounts due from the licensed lottery sales agent's or lottery retailer's ticket sales;

4.5.d.3.F. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has failed to notify the Director of any change in ownership;

4.5.d.3.G. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has failed to open his or her books or records for reasonable inspection by the Lottery Commission or Director;

4.5.d.3.H. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has failed to display his or her license or required advertising and display material; or

4.5.d.3.I. The licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer has failed to make a report of a violation of this rule or the retailer's conviction of any felony or crime related to theft or gambling. At any time during the term of his or her license, if a lottery retailer or a licensed lottery sales agent is convicted of a felony or a gambling related offense, the lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent or licensee shall within fourteen (14) days, notify the Director, in writing, of the conviction and the offense. For purposes of this section, a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer includes any natural person or in the case of other persons, as defined in subsections 2.14 and 2.15 of this rule, any person who holds ownership or a controlling interest in the entity.

4.6. Transfers of licenses; licensed premises.

4.6.a. Licenses nontransferable. Each license shall authorize a specified person to sell lottery tickets at a specified location. No license may be transferred to another person. If the control of a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer changes hands, the licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer may not sell any more lottery tickets until he or she has submitted a new license application and the Director has issued a new license.

4.6.b. Change of location. If a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer changes the location of his or her place of business, he or she shall not sell lottery tickets at the new location until the Director has authorized the transfer of lottery sales agent's or lottery retailer's license to the lottery sales agent's or lottery retailer's new location. The Director shall consider all information concerning the licensed lottery sales agent's or lottery retailer's new location in the manner which would be required were the licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer making an initial application for a license at that location.

4.7. License term and renewal, fees.

4.7.a. Provisional licenses. Pending a final resolution of any question arising in respect of a licensing decision, the Director may issue a license subject to any terms and conditions he or she considers appropriate. Any provisional license expires on the expiration date shown on its face which in any case shall not be more than one (1) year from the date the provisional license is issued.

4.7.b. Annual license. Every holder of a license, other than a provisional license, shall renew the license annually, by July 1.

4.7.c. Temporary license. For specific events and activities or under special conditions and for limited duration the Director may issue to organizations or other persons a temporary license for the duration of the event or conditions with special terms the Director considers desirable.

4.7.d. License fees.

4.7.d.1. Upon initial application for licensing as a lottery retailer, the applicant shall pay to the Commission a non-transferable non-refundable license fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

4.7.d.2. Upon initial application for installation of a lottery sales terminal, the applicant shall submit a fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250), which shall be a deposit refundable only under certain terms to be set out in the Lottery contract for lottery sales agents.

4.7.d.3. Upon application for renewal of licensing as a lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent, all lottery retailers shall submit a uniform annual fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

4.7.d.4. After the initial year of operation as a lottery sales agent, the agent may be charged a uniform weekly service fee of five dollars ($5.00) as long as the agent weekly average sales meet or exceed the uniform standards set by the Commission. When any agent's weekly average sales is less than the minimum amount set by the Commission, the agent may be required to reimburse the Commission for the difference of the minimum amount set by the Commission and the agent's weekly average sales. The weekly average sales standards shall be set in a reasonable and uniform amount to cover the Commission's estimated cost of providing services and equipment related to the sale of lottery products at the agent's licensed location: Provided, That such services and equipment are limited to those provided pursuant to the relevant terms of the Lottery's contract with its central system and services vendor and at no point shall any reimbursement exceed three hundred fifty dollars ($350).

4.7.d.5. In the event that a business changes ownership and a lottery terminal is in place and operating and the new owner meets all other requirements for licensing as a lottery retailer, there shall be no initial installation fee and the agent may be charged the uniform weekly service fee of up to five dollars ($5.00) effective from the first day of operation.

4.8. Bonds

4.8.a. Each lottery sales agent shall participate in the Financial Guarantee Bond program provided by the Lottery in the amount of at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each terminal on the premises. The bond shall be renewed on an annual continuing basis. Payment for bonding shall be made by Electronic Funds Transfer from the sales agents' bank accounts to the lottery's Revenues and Transfers Account each year.

4.8.b. If it is determined by the Director that the lottery sales agent should be bonded for an amount and in a form and manner different from the Financial Guarantee Bond of at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or if other security should be provided by the agent to ensure the performance of the agent's duties and responsibilities as a licensed lottery agent or the indemnification of the Commission, the Director shall determine the amount, form and manner of the coverage.

4.9. Contract

4.9.a. The Director shall enter into a contract with each lottery retailer and licensed lottery sales agent. The contract shall set out the duties, responsibilities, and obligations pertaining to the parties to the contract. The contract shall continue in effect during the period which the retailer or agent complies with applicable statutes, rules, fee requirements, and any other duties or requirements under the terms of the contract.

§179-1-5. Instant Games

5.1. The Director may select, operate and contract to and for the operation of instant games which meet the criteria generally set forth in this section.

5.2. Instant game criteria.

5.2.a. The price of an instant game lottery ticket shall not be more than $50.00 except by special promotions authorized by the Director.

5.2.b. Winners of an instant game are determined by the matching or specified alignment of the play numbers, digits and symbols on the lottery ticket. The ticket bearer shall notify the Lottery of the win and submit the winning lottery ticket to the Lottery as specified by the Director. The winning lottery ticket shall be validated by the Lottery through the use of the validation number and any other means as specified by the Director.

5.2.c. The instant game shall be designed to pay out prizes in amounts on a numerical frequency to be determined by the Director.

5.2.d. The duration of lottery ticket sales for an instant game shall be determined by the Director. The start date and closing date of the instant game shall be publicly announced.

5.2.e. The frequency of drawing and the method of selection of a winner in any instant game shall be determined by the Director in specific game rules.

5.2.f. At the Director's discretion, an instant game may include a special prize drawing or drawings as well as other methods of awarding the moneys accumulated in the unclaimed prize fund which will also stimulate the broad variety of games offered by the West Virginia Lottery. The Director shall follow Commission procedure for the payment of additional prizes from the unclaimed prize fund within the game rules structure.

5.2.g. The procedures for claiming instant prizes are as follows:

5.2.g.1. A claimant shall present the winning lottery ticket for a prize of $600 or less to any lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent or mail the signed lottery ticket to the Director. Additionally, selected retailers approved by the commission may redeem lottery tickets for a prize of $600 to $5,000. The lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent shall verify the claim and, if the claim is a valid winner, make payment of the amount due the claimant. In the event the lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent cannot verify the claim, the claimant shall fill out a claim form, as provided by the Director, which may be obtained from any lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent and present or mail the completed form, together with the disputed lottery ticket to the Director. A payment in the form of a check, EFT and/or an ACH payment or credit to an established iLottery account shall be made to the claimant in payment of the amount due if the claim is validated by the Director. In the event that the claim is not validated by the Director, the claimant shall be promptly notified that his or her claim is denied.

5.2.g.2. The claimant of a prize of more than $600 shall complete a claim form and mail or present the form together with the winning lottery ticket to the Director, or designee. Upon validation by the Director, a check shall be forwarded to the claimant in payment of the amount due, less any applicable federal and state income tax withholdings and less any withholding requested by the child support enforcement division. In the event that the claim is not validated by the Director, the claim shall be denied and the claimant shall be notified within five (5) days of the determination.

5.2.g.3. Any lottery ticket not passing all the validation checks specified by the Director is invalid and ineligible for any prize and shall not be paid. However, the Director may, solely at his or her option, replace an invalid lottery ticket with an unplayed lottery ticket or tickets of equivalent sales price from any other current game or issue a refund of the sales price. In the event a defective lottery ticket is purchased, the only responsibility or liability of the Director is the replacement of the defective lottery ticket with another unplayed lottery ticket or tickets of equivalent sale price from any other current game.

5.3. Confidentiality of tickets. No licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer or its employees or agents shall attempt to ascertain the numbers or symbols appearing in the designated areas under the removable latex coverings or otherwise attempt to identify winning lottery tickets by any means.

5.4. The Director is not required to provide Commission members with copies of specific rules for instant games.

5.5. Official end of game.

5.5.a. The Director shall announce the official end of each instant game. A player may submit a winning lottery ticket of $600 or less to the licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer from whom the lottery ticket was purchased or to the Lottery's administrative office or other designated site and a winning lottery ticket of more than $600 to the Lottery's administrative office or other designated site for prize payment up to one hundred eighty (180) days after the official end of game. In order to participate in a special prize drawing, a player shall redeem a lottery ticket which qualifies for entry into that special prize drawing within the time limits set forth by the Director governing the conduct of that specific game.

5.5.b. A lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent may continue to sell lottery tickets for each instant game up to one hundred eighty (180) days after the official end of that game.

5.5.c. A licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer shall return to the Lottery full packs of unsold and unopened lottery tickets for each game within thirty (30) days of the official end of that game in order to receive credit from the Lottery as provided for in the licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer contract. The Lottery has no obligation to grant credit for lottery tickets returned more than thirty (30) days after the official end of that game.

5.6. Lottery Ticket validation requirements. Any lottery ticket not passing all the validation requirements in this subsection and the specific validation requirements contained in the rules for its specific game is invalid and ineligible for any prize. To be a valid West Virginia Lottery instant game lottery ticket, it shall meet all of the following validation requirements:

5.6.a. The lottery ticket was issued by the Director in an authorized manner;

5.6.b. The lottery ticket is not to be altered, mutilated, unreadable, reconstructed, or tampered with in any manner;

5.6.c. The lottery ticket is not counterfeit in whole or in part;

5.6.d. The lottery ticket is not stolen nor appears in any list of omitted lottery tickets on file with the Lottery;

5.6.e. The lottery ticket is complete and not blank or partially blank, miscut, misregistered, defective, or printed or produced in error;

5.6.f. The lottery ticket has the correct number of play symbols, a readable bar code or equivalent symbol. The symbols must be present in their entirety, legible, right-side up, and not reversed in any manner;

5.6.g. The validation number of an apparent winning lottery ticket appears on the Lottery's official list of validation numbers of winning lottery tickets; and a lottery ticket with that validation number has not been previously paid; and,

5.6.h. The lottery ticket passes all additional confidential validation requirements established by the Director.

5.7. Any lottery ticket not passing all the validation requirements in subsection 5.6 of this section and the specific validation requirements contained in the rules for its specific game is invalid and ineligible for any prize.

§179-1-6. Draw games

6.1. The Director may select, operate and contract for the operation of draw games which meet the criteria generally set forth in this subsection.

6.1.a. The base price of a draw game lottery ticket shall not be less than fifty cents (.50).

6.1.b. The manner and frequency of drawings may vary with the type of draw games.

6.1.c. The times, locations, and drawing procedures shall be determined by the Director.

6.1.d. A ticket bearer entitled to a prize shall submit the winning lottery ticket as specified by the Director. The winning lottery ticket shall be validated by the Lottery's administrative staff or by a licensed lottery sales agent through use of the validation number and any other means as specified by the Director.

6.1.e. At the Director's discretion, a draw game may include a prize drawing or drawings as well as other methods of awarding the moneys accumulated in the unclaimed prize fund which will also stimulate the broad variety of games offered by the West Virginia Lottery. The Director shall follow Commission procedure for the payment of additional prizes from the unclaimed prize fund within the game rules structure.

6.1.f. Procedures for claiming draw game prizes are as follows:

6.1.f.1. To claim a draw game prize of six hundred dollars ($600.00) or less within one hundred eighty (180) days of the drawing, the claimant shall present the winning draw game lottery ticket to any lottery sales agent or to the Lottery.

6.1.f.1.A. If the claim is presented to a licensed lottery sales agent, the licensed lottery sales agent shall validate the claim. If the lottery ticket is determined to be a winning lottery ticket, the licensed lottery sales agent shall make payment of the amount due the claimant. If the licensed lottery sales agent cannot validate the claim, the claimant may obtain and complete a claim form and submit it with the disputed lottery ticket to the Lottery by mail or in person. Upon determination that the lottery ticket is a winning lottery ticket, the Lottery shall present or mail a check, initiate an EFT and/or an ACH payment, or credit an established iLottery account to the claimant for the amount due. If the lottery ticket is determined to be a nonwinning ticket, the claim shall be denied and the claimant shall be promptly notified. Nonwinning lottery tickets shall not be returned to the claimant.

6.1.f.1.B. If the claim is presented to the Lottery, the claimant shall complete a claim form, as provided by the Director, and submit it with the winning lottery ticket to the Lottery by mail or in person. Upon determination that the lottery ticket is a winning lottery ticket, the Lottery shall present or mail a check, initiate an EFT and/or an ACH payment, or credit an established iLottery account to the claimant for the amount due, less any applicable federal and state income tax withholdings and less any withholding requested by the child support enforcement division. If the ticket is determined to be a non-winning lottery ticket, the claim shall be denied and the claimant shall be promptly notified. Non-winning lottery tickets shall not be returned to the claimant.

6.1.f.2. To claim a draw game prize of more than six hundred dollars ($600), within the limit of one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of the drawing, the claimant shall obtain and complete a claim form, as provided by the Director, and submit it with the winning lottery ticket to the Lottery by mail or in person. Upon determination that the ticket is a winning ticket, the Lottery shall present or mail a check, initiate an EFT and/or an ACH payment, or credit an established iLottery account to the claimant for the amount due, less any applicable federal and state income tax withholdings and less any delinquent child or spousal support obligation claimed by the bureau for child support enforcement. If the lottery ticket is determined to be a non-winning ticket, the claim shall be denied and the claimant shall be promptly notified. Non-winning lottery tickets shall not be returned to the claimant.

6.2. Drawing and end of sales prior to drawings.

6.2.a. Drawings shall be conducted in a location and at days and times designated by the Director.

6.2.b. The Director shall announce the time for the end of sales prior to the drawings for each type of draw game. Licensed lottery sales agents and Lottery Terminals shall not process orders for draw game lottery tickets for that drawing after the time established by the Director.

6.2.c. The Director shall designate the type of equipment to be used, shall establish procedures to randomly select the winning combinations for each type of draw game, for physical drawings shall require the presence of an independent accountant to witness all pre- and post-drawing tests, and the drawing or winner selection, and for programmatically drawn results shall determine regular audits of the equipment, results, and procedures of those drawings.

6.2.d. The Director shall test prior to and after each drawing the physical equipment used or audit and have certified random any programming used to determine the winning combination to assure proper operation and lack of tampering or fraud. Drawings shall not be certified until all validation checks or audits are completed. No prizes shall be paid until after the drawing is certified.

6.2.e. All draw game drawings shall be recorded and provided to the public in real-time or near real-time provided facilities are available and operational.

6.2.f. The Director shall establish procedures governing the conduct of drawings for each type of draw game. The procedures shall include provisions for deviations which include but are not limited to:

6.2.f.1. A drawing equipment malfunction before validation of the winning combination;

6.2.f.2. A video and/or audio malfunction during the taping of the drawing;

6.2.f.3. A fouled drawing;

6.2.f.4. A delayed drawing; or

6.2.f.5. Other equipment, facility and/or personnel difficulties.

6.2.g. Whenever a deviation occurs, the drawing shall be certified and the deviation documented on the certification form. The winning combination shall be provided to the public.

6.2.h. If, during any drawing for a game, a mechanical failure or operator error causes an interruption in the selection of all digits or symbols, a "Foul" shall be called by the Lottery Drawing Official. Any digit or symbol drawn prior to a "Foul" being called shall stand and be declared official after passing lottery validation tests.

6.2.i. The Director shall delay payment of all prizes if any evidence exists, or there are grounds for suspicion, that tampering or fraud has occurred. Payment shall be made after an investigation is completed and the drawing certified. If the drawing is not certified, another drawing shall be conducted to determine the actual winner.

6.3. Validation requirements.

6.3.a. To be a valid winning draw game lottery ticket, all of the following conditions shall be met:

6.3.a.1. All printing on the lottery ticket shall be present in its entirety, be legible, and correspond, using the computer validation file, to the combination and date printed on the lottery ticket. The lottery ticket is not valid unless the ticket number and other information is recorded in the Lottery computer and transaction master file;

6.3.a.2. The lottery ticket shall be intact;

6.3.a.3. The lottery ticket shall not be altered, mutilated, unreadable, reconstructed, or tampered with in any manner;

6.3.a.4. The lottery ticket shall not be counterfeit or an exact duplicate of another winning ticket;

6.3.a.5. The lottery ticket shall have been issued by an authorized licensed lottery sales agent in an authorized manner;

6.3.a.6. The lottery ticket shall not have been stolen or canceled;

6.3.a.7. The lottery ticket shall not have been previously paid; and

6.3.a.8. The lottery ticket shall pass all other confidential security checks of the Lottery.

6.3.b. Any lottery ticket failing any validation requirements listed in subdivision 6.3.a.1 of this rule is invalid and ineligible for a prize subject to the condition of subdivisions 5.10.3 and 5.10.4 of this rule.

6.3.c. The Director may replace an invalid draw game lottery ticket with an on-line ticket for a future drawing of the same game. The Director may pay the prize for a ticket that is partially mutilated or is not intact if the draw game lottery ticket can still be validated by the other validation requirements, at his or her discretion.

6.3.d. In the event a defective draw game lottery ticket is purchased, the only responsibility or liability of the Lottery or the lottery sales agent is the replacement of the defective draw game lottery ticket with another draw game lottery ticket for a future drawing of the same game.

6.4. Payment of prizes by licensed lottery sales agents.

6.4.a. A licensed lottery sales agent shall pay to the ticket bearer prizes of six hundred dollars ($600) or less for any validated claims presented within the claim limit of one hundred eighty (180) days of the drawing to that licensed lottery sales agent. These prizes shall be paid during all normal business hours of that licensed lottery sales agent, provided, the on-line system is operational and claims can be validated.

6.4.b. A licensed lottery sales agent may pay prizes in cash or by business check, certified check, money order, bank issued debit or credit card or other manner as approved by the commission. A licensed lottery sales agent that pays a prize with a check which is dishonored, in addition to full payment of the amount of the check and all nonsufficient funds charges and any other legitimate banking charge, may be subject to suspension or revocation of its license.

6.5. Notification to Commission. The Director shall provide Commission members with copies of specific game rules for on-line games. The Chairman or a quorum of the Commission may ask for review of the on-line game rules at the next scheduled meeting of the Commission following receipt of draft rules, and shall adopt or refer rules to lottery staff for revision at that meeting.

§179-1-7. Payment of prizes - general provisions for instant and draw games.

7.1. Each lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent shall pay all prizes authorized to be paid by the lottery retailer or licensed lottery sales agent by this rule during its normal business hours at the location designated on its license.

7.2. A claim shall be entered in the name of a single natural person. Groups, family units, organizations, clubs or other organizations shall designate one individual in whose name the claim is to be entered.

7.3. Unless otherwise provided in the rules for a specific type of game, a claimant shall sign the back of the lottery ticket, or provide the digital bar code from his or her mobile device and complete and sign a claim form provided by the Director. The claimant shall submit the claim form and claimant's lottery ticket to the Lottery in accordance with the instructions as stated on the claim form and on the back of the lottery ticket or the game rules provided on the mobile device at the time of the lottery ticket purchase. In the event of a difference or conflict in the name appearing on, or associated with, the lottery ticket and the claim form, the name which appears on the lottery ticket controls. The claimant, by submitting the claim, agrees to the following provisions as a prerequisite to payment of the prize:

7.3.a. The discharge of the State, the Lottery Commissioners, its officials, officers and employees of all further liability upon payment of the prize; and

7.3.b. The authorization to use the claimant's name and the taking and use of photographs for any reasonable publicity purposes the Director considers desirable upon award of the prize.

7.4. A prize must be claimed within the time limits prescribed by the Director in the instructions for the conduct of a specific game, but in no case shall a prize be claimed later than one hundred eighty (180) days after the official end of that instant game or the draw game drawing for which that draw game lottery ticket was purchased.

7.5. The Director or Commission may deny awarding a prize to a claimant if the lottery ticket is stolen, unissued, mutilated, altered, unreadable, counterfeit in whole or in part, mis-cut, mis-registered, defective, printed or produced in error, multiply printed, or blank or partially blank.

7.6. No person entitled to a prize may assign the right to claim it, except:

7.6.a. That payment of a prize may be made to any court-appointed legal representative, including, but not limited to, guardians, executors, administrators, receivers, or other court-appointed assignees; or

7.6.b. For the purpose of paying federal, state or local tax; or to satisfy executions, judgments, or orders or other processes legitimately obtained from federal or state courts; or

7.6.c. Transfers of remaining lottery annuity prize payments may be assigned pursuant to W.Va. Code §46A-6H-1 et seq.

7.7. In the event that there is a dispute or it appears that a dispute may occur relative to any prize, the Commission or Director may refrain from making payment of the prize pending a final determination of the dispute by the Commission or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

7.8. A lottery ticket that has been legally issued by a licensed lottery sales agent or lottery retailer is a bearer instrument until signed. The person who signs the lottery ticket is considered the ticket bearer. Payment of any prize may be made to the bearer, and all liability of the State, its officials, officers, commission, and employees of the agency terminates upon payment.

7.9. All prizes shall be paid within a reasonable time after the claims are verified by the Director and a winner is determined. The date of the first installment payment of each prize to be paid in installment payments shall be the date the prize event is validated and certified. Subsequent installment payments shall be made annually from the date of the event in accordance with the type of prize awarded.

7.10. The Director may, at any time, delay any payment in order to review a change in circumstance relative to the prize awarded, the payee, the claim, or any other matter that may have come to the Director's attention. All delayed payments shall be made immediately upon the Director's confirmation and continue to be paid on each originally scheduled payment date thereafter. If any prize is payable for the life of the claimant, only an individual may claim that prize, and if the individual is claiming on behalf of a group, a corporation, or the like, the life of the claim shall not exceed twenty (20) years.

7.11. The Director's decisions and judgments in respect to the determination of a winning lottery ticket or any dispute arising from the payment or awarding of prizes are final and binding upon all participants in the Lottery.

7.12. All prizes or portions of prizes which remain unpaid at the time of a prize winner's death are payable to the prize winner's estate.

7.13. The Director may rely wholly on the presentment of certified copies of a court's appointment of an administrator or executor, guardian, conservator or any other evidence of a person entitled to the payment of any prize winnings then due.

7.14. The payment to the estate of a deceased owner of any prize winnings by the Director absolves the Commission, Director and employees of the agency of any further liability for payment of the prize winnings. The Director need not look to pay the prize winnings beyond the estate or appointed representative.

7.15. The Commission or Director may petition any court of competent jurisdiction to request a determination of the payee for payment of any prize winnings which are or may become due the estate of a deceased winner or a winner under a disability because of minority, mental deficiency, or physical or mental incapacity.

7.16. Whenever the winner of a lottery prize is also a lottery sales agent or lottery retailer, or is an owner or officer of a partnership or corporation that is a lottery sales agent or lottery retailer, the Director may offset any debt due the West Virginia Lottery against the amount of the prize due to the winner of the prize.

§179-1-8. Use of West Virginia Lottery Trademarks.

8.1. Lottery sales agents and retailers may use, and display the Lottery Logo, trademark, and other advertising materials without charge to the user or compensation to the Commission for its use.

8.2. Any use of the Lottery Logo or other trademarked or copyright materials, other intellectual property, or copy in advertising or production of consumer articles requires a prior written request and execution of the Lottery's License Agreement.

8.3. An applicant for licensing shall submit a form provided by the Director. The form shall require information of sufficient quantity and detail to allow the determination of suitability for licensing of the applicant by the Director.

8.4. Any request for authorization properly submitted shall include a representative sample or samples of the materials for which authority is sought.

8.5. After review of the request and representative sample, the Director may issue a tentative authorization to proceed with production of proofs or samples of the merchandise.

8.6. The applicant may be required to submit the final proofs or samples representative of actual production items to the Director for his or her final approval before proceeding to produce the items for sale or distribution.

8.7. Upon receipt of notice of final approval, or upon execution of the License Agreement by both parties, if no final approval is required, the license may initiate production of goods or materials over the specified duration of the Licensing Agreement as set forth in this section.

8.8. The Director may, over the period of the License Agreement, exercise supervision over the quality of the materials produced under license, and may require as a condition to continuation of the license, changes in quality of the goods or material produced.

8.9. The Director and Commission may at any time terminate an agreement to license in the event that the licensee fails to meet the requirement of the agreement, or in the event that the continuation of the license is not considered to be in the best interest of the Lottery or of the State of West Virginia.

§179-1-9. Fingerprint submission for background investigation.

9.1. Pursuant to W. Va. Code §§29-22-8 and 29-22-23, the Commission may investigate the background of employees and vendors with proper authorization. West Virginia Code § 29-22-4 provides that no person may be eligible for appointment as Commissioner if convicted of a felony.

9.2. The Commission shall require all new employees of the Commission, any contract or temporary employee, and any newly appointed Commissioners or Director to furnish fingerprints for a national criminal records check by the Criminal Identification Bureau of the West Virginia State Police and/or the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The fingerprints shall be accompanied by a signed authorization for the release of information by the Criminal Investigation Bureau and the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the West Virginia Division of Motor Vehicles (“WVDMV”). The Commission and the WVDMV shall define the scope of authorized access by interagency agreement and the Commission’s security personnel shall be granted access to WVDMV records in accordance to the terms of such agreement.

9.3. The Commission shall require vendors or contractors who have access to Lottery headquarters or to Lottery Computer Networks to furnish fingerprints for a national criminal records check by the Criminal Identification Bureau of the West Virginia State Police and/or the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The fingerprints shall be accompanied by a signed authorization for the release of information by the Criminal Investigation Bureau and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

§179-1-10. Additional requirements for Special Licensed Retailers operating iLottery.

10.1. A Special Licensed Retailer shall have its iLottery gaming system tested and certified by an Independent Testing Laboratory approved by the Commission.

10.2. In order to prevent unauthorized use of an iLottery gaming system to place a wager when a patron is not within the boundaries of the State of West Virginia, the iLottery gaming system must utilize a geolocation system to reasonably detect the physical location of a patron attempting to access any iLottery gaming system to purchase a lottery ticket and to monitor and block unauthorized attempts to access the iLottery gaming system in order to purchase a lottery ticket when the patron is not within the boundaries of the State of West Virginia.

10.2.a. The geolocation system shall ensure that any patron is located within the boundaries of the State of West Virginia when purchasing a lottery ticket and shall be equipped to dynamically monitor the patron's location and block unauthorized attempts to access the iLottery gaming system in order to purchase a lottery ticket throughout the duration of the patron session.

10.3. A iLottery gaming system shall provide the following:

10.3.a. A secured method of log-in authentication, including an option for multi-factor authentication;

10.3.b. Mechanisms enabling patrons to implement limits on gaming, including, but not limited to, a specific mechanism by which a patron can suspend play for a period time, also known as a "cool-down" period;

10.3.c. A mechanism that allows for a patron to self-exclude from play on the iLottery gaming system.

10.3.d. A mechanism that allows for the monitoring, control and notification to the West Virginia Lottery of any suspicious gaming activity related to the iLottery gaming system.

10.3.e. Methods to protect the disclosure of Personally Identifiable Information ("PII") of patrons.

10.4. An iLottery account shall be considered a dormant account if there is no patron initiated activity for a period of sixteen (16) months. The Special Licensed Retailer must comply with the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act of West Virginia set forth in W. Va. Code § 36-8-1, et seq., with respect to the closing and refunding of the account balance.
