The initial scope of work meeting may be waived for those consultants that are satisfactorily providing the required service such as drilling, sampling, inspection, etc. The price proposal shall address the evaluation factors and shall include a complete listing of all anticipated sub-consultants.

7.8.b. The Division Director or District Manager initiating the request for service is responsible for preparing an independent engineer's cost estimate prior to the receipt of the fee proposal from the consultant and for negotiating an agreement with the preferred consultant, except for services obtained on a per unit cost.

7.8.j. On July 1st of each year, in accordance with W. Va. Code §17-2A-22, the Commissioner will issue guidance regarding allowable overhead ceilings the Commissioner may deem necessary to regulate.

7.9. Contract Modifications.

7.9.a. Contract modifications are required for any modifications in the terms of the original contract that significantly change the character, scope, complexity, or duration of the work or significantly change the conditions under which the work is required to be performed. All contract modifications for non-delegated projects shall be subject to prior approval by FHWA.

7.9.b. A contract modification shall clearly outline the changes made and determine a method of compensation.

7.9.c. Changes to the scope of work may require adjustment, either positive or negative, of the fixed fee portion in a cost plus fixed fee contract, or in a lump sum contract. Overruns or underruns in project costs, as part of the original scope of work, shall not warrant an adjustment in the fixed fee portion of a cost plus fixed fee contract.

7.9.d. When necessary to maintain schedules or as determined by the Commissioner of Highways, or his or her designee, the consultant may be authorized to proceed with work prior to agreement on the amount of compensation and execution of the contract modifications with adequate justifying documentation. On non-delegated projects at least verbal prior approval by FHWA must be obtained.

7.9.e. A modification to an original agreement, where the original advertisement concerned all phases of the work, shall be negotiated following the requirements of Subsection 7.8. A detailed scope of work meeting and an independent engineer's estimate are required. The original advertisement must have included all phases of work for this procedure to be used. If the original advertisement did not contain all phases of the work, the requirements of Subsection 7.4 shall be followed for the selection of a consultant, unless the Commissioner of Highways, or his or her designee, finds that the work requiring the modification was not known or anticipated at the time of the advertisement, and not allowing the modification would result in additional costs and delays. Examples of this type of modification are development of construction contract plans as Phase II of an original Phase I design study or rehabilitation of a structure where Phase I was a detailed inspection and Phase II is reconstruction or alteration of the construction project delivery.

7.9.f. Contract modifications are required for any modification in the terms of the original contract that change the cost of the contract or that significantly change the character, scope, complexity, or duration of the work. In the interest of efficiency and continuing the work on the project, the scope of work will be established in the proposal and during negotiations. The scope of work shall be recommended by the Division Director or District Manager responsible for the work for approval by the Commissioner. An independent engineer's estimate will not be necessary, but a negotiation memorandum shall indicate a thorough review was made and that the scope of work and the adjusted fee are complete and compatible. An example of this type of modification is a change in the design of construction plans due to a geotechnical investigation which shows soil stability inadequacies. Written notification of changes to scope or level of effort that occur past the next possible scheduled meeting in accordance with Subsection 7.10 of this rule, will be ancillary and within the scope, but they must be documented in the project file.

7.10. Control of Work. The Commissioner may authorize a notice to proceed or an advanced notice to proceed by a properly executed agreement between the parties. After notification to proceed is given to a consultant in writing, or electronically, the responsible Division or District will meet regularly with the consultant to discuss progress and problems as they may occur with notes of the meetings recorded (either on paper or electronically) in the project files. These meetings may be held every month. At these meetings, a complete review of the progress to date is made with emphasis on acceptability of costs billed, the next phases of the work to be performed, schedules, and submissions of contract modification documents. Periodic submission of data is made in accordance with the applicable type of project involved. All phases of contract work are viewed by the Division or District within the Division of Highways concerned with that work and that Division's or District's opinion of the consultant's performance and expertise in their field is considered in the evaluation of the consultant for future work. If deemed necessary by the Division or District, visitation of the consultant's office shall be made. For those tasks of short duration, the need for regular meetings may be waived. The responsible Division or District shall discuss problems as they occur. Documentation of the discussions shall be kept in the Division or District file.

7.11. Evaluation of Work.

7.11.a. Performance evaluations should include, but not be limited to, an assessment of the timely completion of work, adherence to contract scope and budget, and quality of the work conducted. The contracting agency shall provide the consultant with a copy of the performance evaluation and the opportunity to provide written comments to be attached to the evaluation. Interim evaluations may be necessary based on the scope, complexity, and size of the contract as a means to provide feedback, foster communication, and achieve desired changes or improvements. Completed performance evaluations should be archived for consideration as an element of past performance in the future evaluation of the consultant to provide similar services.

7.11.b. Upon completion or performance termination of the consultant's work, the Project Manager or Project Supervisor of the responsible Division or District will prepare a report recording its evaluation of the consultant's efforts. It should include comments from other Divisions when appropriate. The performance report shall be reviewed by a reviewing official, which shall be the Division Director or District Manager of the responsible Division or District. A copy shall be sent to the consultant for review and comment, and any written comments received shall be attached to the final report. All consultants with active contracts shall be evaluated in March of each year on each active project. On contracts where the final product has been accepted by the Division or District, but the final invoice has not been paid, the consultant will not need to be evaluated.

7.12. Contract Closeout or Finalization. Upon completion of all contractual obligations by the consultant, a final audit will be requested from West Virginia Department of Transportation's Auditing Division by the responsible contracting officer.

7.13. Audit Follow-up. Primary responsibility for action and follow-up on audit findings and recommendations rest with the Division or District supervising the work. Timely action by these officials is an integral part of the audit system.

7.14. Protest Procedures.

7.14.a. Consultants who feel they have not been selected to perform work for unjust cause may appeal to the Commissioner for a hearing to be held on their behalf. They must do so in writing within 10 days after the date of being notified of the determination. In addition, any claims, or disputes in reference to payment, work, method of compensation, or performance evaluation may be appealed to the Commissioner.

7.14.b. Matters concerning work performed, wherein Federal funds are used in whole or part, may be protested to FHWA once all administrative procedures have been exhausted with the State. Please refer to the FHWA Consultant Services website for a link to Best Practices in Management of Design Errors and Omissions, as prepared as part of NCHRP Project 20-70, Task 225. However, reviews of protests by the federal agency will be limited to:

7.14.b.1. violations of federal law or regulations; and

7.14.b.2. violations of the State's protest procedures for failure to review a complaint or protest. Protests received by the FHWA other than those specified above will be referred to the State.

7.15. Contractual Responsibilities. The Division of Highways is responsible for the settlement of all contractual/administrative issues. All settlements relating to contracts using federal-aid funds shall be reviewed and approved by FHWA prior to participation in any additional costs (only on non-delegated projects). The Division of Highways is responsible for determining the extent to which consultants are accountable for the professional quality, technical accuracy, coordination of services, and costs, for which consultants may be reasonably liable, resulting from errors or deficiencies in design furnished under its contracts. When a modification to a construction contract is required because of an error or deficiency in the services provided by the consultant, the Division or District responsible for oversight of the consultant's contracted work shall follow the procedure in Subsection 7.16. The Division or District shall be responsible to enforce the liability and collect the amount due as determined by the Commissioner.

7.16. Disposition of Errors and Deficiencies. The Commissioner of Highways will establish guidance for the creation and composition of the Error and Omission Committee. The Division or District that identifies that an error has occurred, shall forward that information to committee "chair", per the rules and guidance created. The Division or District responsible for oversight of the consultant's contracted work shall investigate and provide a report to the Error and Omission Committee for final determination.

7.16.a. The committee chair shall report the findings to the Commissioner for final disposition.

7.17. Redesign for Errors and Deficiencies. The consultant is required to make necessary corrections at no cost to the Division of Highways when the contract documents furnished under their contract contain errors, deficiencies, or inadequacies.

7.18. Record Keeping. Unless otherwise noted, all documentation under this procedure will be retained on file at the Division of Highways and will be available for review by FHWA.
