§126-3-2.13. Meetings
2024-06-17 00:27:56	Jean Walker Retiree ARH Beckley WV	Open meetings are fine asis	N	Requiring the meetings to be live-streamed is consistent with current practice for West Virginia Board of Education meetings and will ensure ongoing access by the public who cannot attend in person.
2024-06-17 17:08:33	Gary Cook Retired school administrator Morgantown WV	Excellent idea for accountability	A/S	Thank you for supporting the change in policy.
§126-3-4.2. Participation in Meetings Using Technology
2024-06-17 00:27:56	Jean Walker Retiree ARH Beckley WV	This will only lead to more people, not from the community or having any relationship with the school tying up discussions and bringing in unnecessary discourse. What a horrible idea. If someone wants to be involved they should make the effort to attend the meeting in person. It's worked for more than a century.	N	This policy change applies to West Virginia Board of Education meetings. Stakeholders and citizens from all over the State may have an interest in observing its meetings. Technology allows the Board to live stream its meetings so that those who cannot attend in person can participate.
2024-06-17 17:08:33	Gary Cook Retired school administrator Morgantown WV	It will help those who cannot attend in person for whatever reason.	A/S	Thank you for supporting the change in policy.
