TITLE 27
PROCEDURAL RULE
WEST VIRGINIA BOARD OF EXAMINERS IN COUNSELING

SERIES 7
OPEN MEETINGS AND BYLAWS

§27-7-1. General.

1.1. Scope. – This procedural rule sets forth the means by which the purpose of all regular and special meetings is made available in advance to the public and the news media, except in the event of an emergency requiring immediate official action and also sets forth certain bylaws of the board.

1.2. Authority. -- W. Va. Code §§6-9A and 30-31-1.

1.3. Filing Date. -- September 22, 2025.

1.4. Effective Date. – October 22, 2025.

§27-7-2. Application and Enforcement.

This procedural rule applies to the board and all individuals desiring to attend or to address the West Virginia State Board of Examiners in Counseling.

§27-7-3. Definitions.

3.1. Board – The West Virginia State Board of Examiners in Counseling.

3.2. Meeting – The convening of a governing body of a public body for which a quorum is required.

3.3. Quorum – A simple majority of the constituted members of the board.

§27-7-4. Regular Meetings.

4.1. The Board shall conduct a minimum of four (4) quarterly meetings. The meetings for each year are scheduled a year in advance at dates agreed upon by majority of the Board members to ensure a quorum exists to successfully conduct the business of the Board.

4.2. The Executive Director shall provide notice of the date, time, location and purpose of each regular meeting to the Secretary of State and list on the Board's website, as well as people and organizations who request information, at least fifteen (15) business days in advance of a regularly scheduled meeting.

4.3. Board members may submit agenda items at any time.

4.4. Non-Board members may submit items for Board consideration. The items should be submitted not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of a regularly scheduled meeting. The Chairperson makes the final determination on whether an item submitted less than thirty (30) days in advance shall be considered.

4.5. Individuals who desire to address the board during a regularly scheduled meeting may do so by making their wish known to the Chairperson at any time prior to the call to order.

4.6. The Chairperson may cancel a meeting if a quorum cannot be convened or if there are no items of business to be conducted by the Board.

§27-7-5. Special Meetings.

5.1. The Chairperson, the Executive Director or any two (2) members of the board may call a special meeting.

5.2. The Executive Director may send a written notice setting forth the time, place and matters to be considered to each member of the board at least ten (10) business days in advance of a special meeting.

5.3. The Executive Director shall file a written notice containing the time, place, and matters to be considered at least five (5) business days in advance of any special meeting, to the Secretary of State, professional associations, as well as people and organizations who request the information.

§27-7-6. Emergency Meetings.

6.1. The Chairperson may call a meeting in the event of an emergency requiring immediate official action by the board.

6.2. The Executive Director may notify members by email, telephone or other expedient method.

6.3. The Executive Director shall file a written notice containing time, place, purpose of the meeting and facts and circumstances of the emergency prior to the meeting, with the Secretary of State.

§27-7-7. Executive Sessions.

7.1. The Board may hold executive sessions, as provided in W. Va. Code §6-9A-4., for the purpose of discussing employment promotion, resignation, discipline, discharge, or compensation of any public officer or employee unless the public officer or employee requests an open meeting; or to discuss issues affecting denial, suspension or revocation of a license unless the licensee requests a meeting; or to discuss material the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of an individual's privacy; or to discuss an official investigation relating to law enforcement; or to discuss matters relating to development, administration or security of a licensure examination; or to discuss logistical or procedural methods to schedule and regulate a meeting.

7.2. The Chairperson shall convene an executive session by identifying and announcing to the members of the board and public in attendance the authorization under §6-9A-4 for holding the executive session. A majority affirmative vote of the members present is required to hold the executive session. All decisions resulting from discussions during the executive session shall be made during an open meeting.

§27-7-8. Minutes.

8.1. The Board shall prepare written minutes for all meetings. Minutes are available to the public within a reasonable time after the meeting and include:

8.1.a. The date, time and place of the meeting

8.1.b. The name of each Board member present or absent

8.1.c. The name of each staff member and guest present,

8.1.d. All motions, proposals, resolutions, orders, ordinances and measures proposed, the name of the person proposing the same, and their disposition, and,

8.2. Minutes of executive sessions may be limited to material which is not inconsistent with the provisions of W. Va. Code §6-9A.

8.3. A Board member may request that a minority report be included in the minutes.

§27-7-9. Quorum.

9.1. A quorum for conducting business at a regular or special meeting of the board shall be a simple majority of the members.

9.2. Each member has one (1) vote on all matters of business.

9.3. The vote of a majority of all members present at any meeting of the Board shall be necessary to take any action.

9.4. The Board may hold regular or special meetings with one (1) or more members participating by telephone conference call, video conference or other interactive means of conducting conference communications. Minutes shall reflect the names of participating members and a report of a roll call on each vote.

9.5. Proxy voting is prohibited.

9.6. The Board may authorize a mail or email vote providing the issue to be voted on has been presented in a regular meeting of the Board. Matters for vote by mail are limited to acceptance of editorial revisions or those matters where more detail is requested prior to final approval. All issues voted on by mail or email shall be discussed and the vote ratified at the next regular meeting of the Board following the vote.

§27-7-10. Records of the Board.

All records and proceedings of the Board are public records shall be available to the public during the usual and customary business hours of the Board, except as provided by W. Va. Code §29B-1-4.
