

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
FOR
WEST VIRGINIA BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICY 2520.12
21ST CENTURY VISUAL ART CONTENT STANDARDS AND OBJECTIVES
FOR WEST VIRGINIA SCHOOLS

Policy Number and Title: West Virginia Board Of Education Policy 2520.12: 21st Century Visual Art Content Standards and Objectives for West Virginia Schools.

Background: Policy 2520.12 defines the content standards and objectives for Visual Art as required by 2510 and establishes a standardized format for such.

- The original effective date of Policy 2520 (Instructional Goals and Objectives for West Virginia Schools) was July 1997.
- The West Virginia Board of Education approved initial work on content standards Mathematics, Reading and English Language Arts, Science and Social Studies in December 2001. In January 2003, content standards for Visual Art were placed on comment until March 10, 2003. The version placed on comment created a separate policy for Visual Art.
- Policy 2520.11 was filed on May 8, 2003 and became effective July 1, 2003.

Major Revisions or Reasons for New Policy: A repeal and replace of Policy 2520.12 is being recommended due to the format changes.

- The major revisions made to Policy 2520.12 (Visual Art) is the alignment of visual art skills with 21st century learning skills.
- The visual art performance descriptors, particularly at the mastery level in Policy 2520.12, were increased in rigor.
- The format has been redesigned to facilitate easier use by West Virginia educators.
- A glossary is offered.

Impact:

- Aligning the visual art CSOs with the 21st century learning skills more clearly focuses student skills particularly in the areas of visual literacy, creativity and inventive thinking. This provision provides our state's young people a better background to succeed in the new global economy.
- Intensifying the levels of the performance descriptors will raise expectations, enhancing and improving student skills.
- The new format is more "user friendly" for the classroom teacher particularly the easy-to-read columns that present the performance descriptors.
- The glossary, to be made available and accessible to all teachers, provides clarity and better serves the needs of the users.
- Students will be better prepared for success on national assessments, in post-graduate studies and in the workplace of the 21st century.
- Students will acquire a higher level of critical thinking and problem solving skills needed for success in post graduate studies and the workplace of the 21st century.
- The revised format will better enable West Virginia educators to focus instruction on the approved CSOs.

*21st Century Visual Art Content
Standards and Objectives for West
Virginia Schools*

Foreword

A 21st century visual art curriculum is an increasingly important aspect of developing learners prepared for success in the 21st century. Thus, the West Virginia Board of Education and the West Virginia Department of Education are pleased to present Policy 2520.12, 21st Century Content Standards and Objectives for West Virginia Schools. The West Virginia Visual Art Standards for 21st Century Learning include 21st century content standards and objectives as well as 21st century standards and objectives for learning skills and technology tools. This broadened scope of curriculum is built on the firm belief that quality engaging instruction must be built on a curriculum that triangulates rigorous 21st century content, 21st century learning skills and the use of 21st century technology tools.

A committee of educators from different areas of the state convened to revise the content standards and objectives. The overarching goal was to build a rigorous, relevant and challenging visual art curriculum that would prepare students for the 21st century. West Virginia educators played a key role in shaping the content standards to align with national standards and best practice in the field of visual art education. The contribution of these professionals was critical in creating a policy that is meaningful to classroom teachers and appears in a format that can easily be used and understood.

Policy 2520.12 is organized around the three major components of a standards-based curriculum: learning standards, instructional objectives and performance descriptors. The learning standards are the broad descriptions of what all students must know and be able to do at the conclusion of the instructional sequence. The accompanying grade-level objectives are specific descriptors of knowledge, skills and attitudes that when mastered will enable the student to attain the standard. The instructional objectives guide instructional planning and provide a basis for determining appropriate assessments, instructional strategies and resources. The performance descriptors provide the basis for assessing overall student competence of grade level standards. The performance descriptors define the five student performance levels ranging from novice to distinguished. With the ultimate goal of “learning for all,” these descriptors allow the teacher, students and parents to judge the level of student proficiency in each 21st century learning standard.

In combination, the use of learning standards, instructional objectives and performance descriptors become a comprehensive guide for delivering a rigorous and relevant visual art curriculum to all West Virginia students. These elements, when used to guide the instructional process and when delivered with the creativity and instructional expertise of West Virginia teachers, will become a powerful resource for preparing students to meet the challenges of the 21st century.

Explanation of Terms

Content Standards are broad descriptions of what students should know and be able to do in a content area. Content standards describe what students' knowledge and skills should be at the end of a K-12 sequence of study.

Objectives are incremental steps toward accomplishment of content standards. Objectives are listed by grade level and are organized around the content standards. Objectives build across grade levels as students advance in their knowledge and skills.

Performance Descriptors describe in narrative format how students demonstrate achievement of the content standards. West Virginia has designed five performance levels: distinguished, above mastery, mastery, partial mastery and novice. Performance Descriptors serve two functions. Instructionally, they give teachers more information about the level of knowledge and skills students need to acquire. Performance levels and descriptors are also used to categorize and explain student performance on statewide assessment instruments.

Numbering of Standards

The number for each content standard is composed of four parts, each part separated by a period:

- the content area code is VA for Visual Art,
- the letter S, for Standard,
- the grade level or performance level
- the standard number.

Illustration: VA.S.4.1 refers to grade 4 visual art content standard #1.

Numbering of Objectives

The number of each objective is composed of five parts, each part separated by a period:

- the content area code (VA for Visual Art),
- the letter O is for Objective,
- the grade level or performance level
- the number of the content standard addressed, and
- the objective number.

Illustration: VA.O.2.1.03 refers to a visual art grade 2 objective that addresses standard #1, the third objective listed under that standard.

Numbering of Performance Descriptors

The number for each group of three performance descriptors is composed of four parts, each part separated by a period:

- the content area (VA for Visual Art),
- the letters PD are for Performance Descriptors,
- the grade level or performance level and
- the standard number.

Illustration: VA.PD.7.5 refers to visual art performance descriptors for general art, grade 7, content standard #5.

Unique Electronic Numbers (UENs)

Unique Electronic Numbers (or UENs) are numbers that help to electronically identify, categorize and link specific bits of information. Once Policy 2520.12 is available on the Web, each standard, each objective, and each group of five performance descriptors will have a Unique Electronic Number (UEN) that will always remain the same.

The codes printed in Policy 2520.12 form the basis of the UENs. The only additional set of numbers that will be added to each code to formulate its UEN will be a prefix that indicates the year and month that a particular version of Policy 2520.12 is approved by the State Board of Education.

The prefix for the UENs for each content area in Policy 2520.12 is noted at the top of each page containing standards, objectives and performance descriptors. As sections of 2520.12 are revised, UENs will be changed to reflect the new approval date.

UENs (Unique Electronic Numbers) are unique numbers that facilitate implementation of WV Standards into Electronic formats such as Databases and XML Files. The WV Department of Education encourages everyone who is going to use the WV 21st Century Content Standards in any kind of electronic distribution, alignment, or software development to use the UENs so that all efforts can be cross-referenced and there is consistency across initiatives.

Illustration: The UEN for Visual Art, Grade 8, standard #4 will be "200607.VA.S.8.4".

VISUAL ART - POLICY 2520.12

The visual arts are a language, a reflection of culture and history, a way of expressing values, and performance based problem solving. In today's increasingly visual and media bound world and global economy, the importance of the arts and art education is evident. Through the arts, students acquire critical thinking and learning skills and develop multiple solutions to challenges. The visual arts are a crucial part of the education of every student, providing a rich variety of hands-on individual and group learning experiences and literacies.

21st Century skills are embedded in the arts curriculum in West Virginia, are based on the National Standards and research of best practices. These standards and practices include the arts as core academic content to be included in the education of all students. This allows for the development of competent, creative, and critically thinking adults able to compete in the global society. High quality arts programs bring richness to the school curriculum; therefore, it is strongly recommended that schools provide more than the required minimal amount of time for the delivery of the art curriculum.

It is the intention of the writers of this document that the following content standards and objectives, especially for the K-8 levels, be covered at one point or another during the education of all students. This document is not intended to be so prescriptive that every teacher must teach, for instance, print making at a certain grade level. It is, however, a condition of the K-8 levels to cover the variety of media and concepts indicated for all students in a sequential manner as developed in this document. There may be instances when specific activities call for going back or forward a grade level to identify and use specific objectives as written in this document. It is the responsibility of the teachers, schools, and districts to be accountable for all the content described in this document. High quality arts programs bring richness to the school curriculum; therefore, it is strongly recommended that schools provide more than the required minimal amount of time for the delivery of the art curriculum.

Kindergarten General Art

Kindergarten children explore art. Students learn to use tools properly for drawing, painting, printing and sculpture. Children explore colors and the use of lines and shapes and textures in artworks. The subject matter of art will center on the children's own environment, allowing expression of feelings and discussion about their own creations which lays the beginning foundations for 21st Century Learning and Thinking Skills and Content. Teachers' encouragement of creative work is expected over prepared or prefabricated materials.

To assure a quality arts education, general classroom teachers who are charged with the delivery of the Visual Art Content Standards and Objectives in their school curriculum are strongly encouraged to participate in high quality content-specific professional development.

Grade 1 – General Art

Children in first grade make paintings, collages, and three-dimensional art works. They explore the elements of design which include color, line, form, shape, space, value and texture. Children use art to communicate their ideas and feelings. Students explore art in their own environment, nature, and other cultures which demonstrates 21st Century global awareness, visual literacy and other skills. Teachers stress correct and safe use of materials. Children see connections between the arts and other disciplines. Teachers' encouragement of creative work is expected over prepared or prefabricated materials.

To assure a quality arts education, general classroom teachers who are charged with the delivery of the Visual Art Content Standards and Objectives in their school curriculum are strongly encouraged to participate in high quality content-specific professional development.
