EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

WEST VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

WVBE Policy 5100: The Approval of Educational Personnel Preparation Programs

Background: The preparation of educators eligible for licensure to work in the public schools of West Virginia is critical to the success of all students in the 21st century. To deliver quality instruction consistent with the vision for 21st century schools, teachers must possess the skills to utilize instructional technologies and be supported by administrators that have the capacity to support that instruction. As revised, WVBE Policy 5100 guarantees that pre-service teachers will be exposed to educational technologies throughout their program and also complete three semester hours of coursework based on instructional technologies appropriate for the 21st century classroom. In addition, WVBE Policy 5100 now includes provision to ensure that all pre-service teachers are exposed to the students whom they will be teaching in the content areas in which they will provide instruction. Furthermore, there is now a requirement that faculty in preparation programs hold the appropriate qualifications to provide instruction to candidates for licensure. Lastly, institutions will now submit only one condensed report to the WVDE, in lieu of the two previously submitted.

Proposals: Changes to WVBE Policy 5100 are as follows:

- Require that all teacher and administrator preparation programs contain a minimum of three semester hours of instructional technology coursework based on the ISTE standards.
- Include provisions that require candidates for licensure complete field-based experiences in each of the areas in which they will be certified. This proposal encompasses both those candidates seeking certification in content area specializations and those seeking endorsements in all areas of special education.
- Require institutions with programs approved by the WVBE to employ full-time faculty with a degree, expertise, and/or certification in the areas in which they are teaching.
- Allow up to 40 hours of experience outside of the public school to be considered toward the 125 hour field-based experience requirement, provided the 40 hours be under the direction of a supervisor licensed to work in the public schools or a university supervisor.
- Reduce the two year period of time given to an institution of higher education to be placed on conditional approval status to a period of 18 months.
- Consolidate two separate reports required to be submitted by institutions to one report containing all of the same information.
- Extend the period in which an applicant can apply for licensure upon completion of program with no additional requirements due to programmatic changes from three months to 12 months.
- Add Chinese and Instructional Technology as areas to be recognized on the Professional Teaching Certificate.

Comments: Comments were received from four individuals regarding the proposed revisions to WVBE Policy 5100 (see all comments on the attached Comment Response Log). Two changes were made as a result of the comments received on WVBE Policy 5100.

- In response to a comment, all references to Behavior Disorders have been modified to reflect modern terminology reflected in WVBE Policy 5419 – Regulations for the Education of Students with Exceptionalities. The term is now Emotional/Behavior Disorder.
- To purposes of clarity, WVBE Policy 5100 was modified to reflect that pre-service multi-categorical special educators should be exposed to students in each of the three categories of exceptionality of emotional/behavior disorders, mental impairments, and specific learning disabilities.

APPROVAL OF EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL PREPARATION PROGRAMS (5100)

§126-114-1. General.

1.1. Scope. - This legislative rule establishes the process for developing, implementing, and receiving West Virginia Board of Education, hereinafter WVBE, approval to operate an educational personnel preparation program leading to West Virginia licensure in an institution of higher education.

1.2. Authority. - W. Va. Constitution, Article XII, §2 and W.Va. Code §§18-2-5, 18A-3-1a, 18A-3-2b, and 18A-3-10.

1.3. Filing Date. – August 13, 2007.

1.4. Effective Date. – September 11, 2007.

1.5. Repeal of Former Rule. - This legislative rule amends W.Va. §126CSR114, West Virginia Board of Education Policy 5100 – Approval of Educational Personnel Preparation Programs filed July 13, 2006 and effective August 14, 2006.

§126-114-2. Summary.

2.1. This rule outlines the framework for developing, implementing and approving educational personnel preparation programs. Major program components are defined, assessment instruments and/or procedures are identified, and the minimum proficiency levels are prescribed for the WVBE adopted instruments. Program approval criteria for program implementation are also identified.

§126-114-3. Purpose.

3.1. The purposes of this policy are to: a) establish a collaborative process for program approval; b) improve educational personnel preparation programs and potential educational personnel by incorporating program guidelines based on research and best practices; c) ensure that those who are prepared for employment in the public schools have the knowledge, skills and dispositions necessary to function as entry-level members of the profession; and d) ensure that higher education institutions work collaboratively with the public schools in designing and delivering professional educator preparation experiences to increase student achievement through written agreements with public schools. This policy relates only to the approved teacher education program element of licensure. Hence, the policy does not supersede any licensure requirements mandated by West Virginia Code and/or WVBE rules outlined in W.Va.

§126CSR136, West Virginia Board of Education Policy 5202 - Minimum Requirements for the Licensure of Professional/Paraprofessional Personnel and Advanced Salary Classifications (hereinafter Policy 5202).

3.2. This policy commits the WVBE to develop, revise or adopt the program objectives, assessment instruments, and proficiency levels for the professional preparation of educational personnel through a collaborative effort involving the West Virginia Commission for Professional Teaching Standards, hereinafter WVCPTS, the West Virginia Department of Education, hereinafter WVDE, the governing boards for public and private West Virginia institutions of higher education, public school administrators, and classroom teachers.

§126-114-4. Authority of the WVBE.

4.1. All educational personnel preparation programs that result in West Virginia licensure require the approval of the WVBE. This approval requirement applies to new and continuing programs and to any institution seeking initial approval to offer educational personnel preparation programs.

4.2. The WVBE shall adopt standards and procedures for the approval of educational personnel preparation programs that enable prospective educators who satisfactorily complete such programs and licensure requirements to be licensed in West Virginia.

4.3. The WVBE establishes the WVCPTS to serve as its advisory body on matters related to the preparation of educational personnel. The WVBE shall establish regular communications with the WVCPTS and may solicit its recommendations prior to taking official action on educational personnel preparation policies. (See W.Va. §126CSR154 West Virginia Board of Education Policy 5050 - West Virginia Commission for Professional Teaching Standards.)

4.4. The WVBE acknowledges that the governing boards of public higher education institutions and the appropriate governing body of a private higher education institution may establish standards and accreditation procedures, including a requirement that the institution(s) attain National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, hereinafter NCATE, accreditation for the teacher education programs under their respective jurisdictions. The WVBE pledges its cooperation with the governing boards or bodies and the institutions under their control in establishing jointly agreed to program review procedures pursuant to Section 12.3 of this policy. that: a) respect any applicable standards or accreditation procedures, whether established by the WVBE or the higher education governing boards(s) or body(ies) and b) emphasize cooperation, minimize duplication, and specify the process and materials to be covered in the review.

§126-114-5. Definitions.

5.1. Accredited Institution of Higher Education. - A college or university accredited: 1) by the official accrediting agency of the state in which the institution is located and 2) by one of the six (6) regional accrediting agencies recognized by the National Commission on Accrediting (Middle States, New England, Northwest, North Central, Southern, and Western Associations), the Association for Biblical Higher Education, the Association of Independent Colleges and Schools or the Association of Theological Schools, to award degrees at a stipulated level, i.e., bachelor's degree, master's degree, and/or doctoral degree.

5.2. Admission to an Approved Program. - The filing of an application by a prospective educator declaring himself/herself as a candidate to complete an approved teacher education program and the institution's formal acceptance of the student based on his/her satisfying the admission criteria. The criteria for admission are established by the institution but generally include stated requirements in the form of overall grade point average, successful completion of designated courses, passing standardized tests, and passing institutionally established performance assessments in speaking, listening, and educational technology.

5.3. Approved Program. - A preparation program for professional educators based on WVBE adopted program objectives and guidelines which is delivered by a regionally accredited college or university and which has been approved by the WVBE for issuance of a professional certificate.

5.4. Authorized Agency. - The state agency designated by the WVBE to administer program approval standards and procedures approved by the WVBE. Currently, the WVDE serves as the WVBE's authorized agency.

5.5. Collaborative Program. - Approved educational personnel preparation program that is delivered as the result of a formal written agreement between two or more West Virginia institutions of higher education to enable prospective educators to receive licensure in a content specialization that is not available at the home institution and that is approved for the cooperating institution.

5.6. Endorsement. - The specialization(s) and grade levels appearing on any license, authorized by the WVBE which govern the legal assignment within the public schools of West Virginia (W.Va. Code §18A-3-1).

5.7. Educational Personnel Preparation Advisory Committee. (EPPAC). - This committee is comprised of public school and higher education teachers and administrators who advise the chief teacher education officer on personnel preparation matters. All institutions offering WVBE-approved programs are required to have an EPPAC.

5.8. Field-based Experiences. - Educational training activities organized by the college and university teacher preparation programs for the student teacher candidate which are structured to ensure significant exposure to diverse (multi-cultural), at-risk and special needs learners. Significant field experiences are those experiences completed under the direction of the institution and cooperating teacher. The experiences are arranged by the institution with the cooperating teachers such that the cooperating teachers have a thorough understanding of the institution's expectations for the candidates during the experiences. During such experiences teacher candidates should work directly with students (i.e., plan and teach lessons).

5.9. License. - The term used for any or all of the documents issued by the State Superintendent of Schools under state law and regulations of the WVBE that empower the holder to perform designated services within the public schools.

5.10. National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education. Insofar as this policy is concerned, NCATE accreditation of an institution's Professional Education Unit is optional.

5.11. Performance-Based Assessment. - The process whereby a cooperating public school professional(s) and a higher education faculty member(s) judge a prospective educator's ability to integrate content, basic professional knowledge and pedagogical skills in an appropriate educational setting in which the prospective educator anticipates licensure.

5.12. Professional Education Unit. - The administrative body within the institution that is primarily responsible for the initial and continuing preparation of teachers and other educational personnel. The Professional Education Unit is sometimes referred to as "the Unit."

5.13. Program Approval Status. - All professional preparation programs will be classified as follows: "Initial Approval Status," "Continuing Approval Status," or "Conditional Approval Status."

5.13.1. Initial Approval Status. - This term is used for new professional preparation programs. "Initial Approval Status" will be granted for a period of five years. During each of those five years, the institution will be required to document in its annual report the progress it is making to ensure the success of its graduates to promote student achievement in the public schools in the institution's service region. During the "Initial Approval Status" stage, the institution may recommend graduates for West Virginia certification. At the end of the five-year "Initial Approval Status" period, the institution will receive another visit from the WVDE at which time a final recommendation will be made to the WVBE to reclassify the status of the institution to "Continuing Approval Status."

5.13.2. Continuing Approval Status. - This term applies to all West Virginia higher education institutions that have a currently approved program with the WVBE. "Continuing Approval Status" is granted for a period of seven years. To maintain "Continuing Approval Status" programs with the WVBE, educator preparation programs must undergo the continuing program review and receive approval every seven years.

5.13.3. Conditional Approval Status. - This term applies to educator preparation programs that do not meet one or more of West Virginia Educator Preparation Program Standards (See Appendix A-5 of this policy) or has other capacity limiting problems. Programs with "Conditional Program Status" must undergo a Program Approval review process within 18 months. At that point, the educator preparation program will receive "Continuing Approval" or program approval will be withdrawn.

5.15. Regionally Accredited Institution of Education - A college or university accredited by: 1) the official accrediting agency of the state in which the institution is located, and 2) one of the six regional accrediting agencies recognized by the National Commission on Accrediting (Middle States, New England, Northwest, North Central, Southern and Western Associations) to award degrees at a stipulated level, i.e., bachelor's degree, master's degree and/or doctoral degree.

5.17. Subject-Area Major. - A minimum of 30 semester hours in a specific content area.

5.18. Subject-Area Minor. - A minimum of 15 semester hours in a specific content area.

5.19. Teacher Education Accreditation Council (TEAC). - This organization reviews and accredits an institution's Professional Education Unit based on compliance with national standards related to the functioning of the unit. Insofar as this policy is concerned, TEAC accreditation of an institution's Professional Education Unit is optional.

§126-114-6. Professional Educator Preparation Program Requirements: Teacher.

6.1. Program Components. - All teacher preparation programs, at both undergraduate and graduate levels, shall consist of three (3) components: preprofessional skills, content specialization, and professional education. The three (3) components, including the associated educational technology knowledge and skills, are necessary to satisfy WVBE-approved program requirements.

6.2. Preprofessional Skills Component.

6.2.1. Component Description. - Preprofessional skills are those basic skills crucial to an educator's performance and effectiveness. Competence in these skills underlies an educator's ability to comprehend, utilize, analyze, synthesize, evaluate, and communicate information. Preprofessional skills common to educational personnel are reading, writing, mathematics, speaking, listening and educational technology. Component descriptions for reading, writing and mathematics are found in the study guide "Test at a Glance" for the Praxis I, Pre-Professional Skills Tests (PPST). Preprofessional skills for speaking and listening are found in Appendix B of this policy. Educational technology knowledge and skills related to this component are found in Appendix C of this policy.

6.2.2. Educator's Assessment and Proficiency Levels. - The educator's preprofessional skills in reading, writing and mathematics shall be assessed using the Educational Testing Service's PPST. The WVBE shall establish the acceptable levels of performance on the PPST in reading, writing, and mathematics. Individuals must meet the acceptable levels of performance on the PPST in reading, writing, and mathematics, or qualify for an exemption as identified in Section 6.2.3. of this policy, prior to formal admission to a WVBE-approved educator preparation program. The institutions shall establish the assessments and acceptable levels for the speaking, listening, and educational technology skills.

6.2.3. PPST Waivers. - In lieu of taking the WVBE-approved PPST, prospective educators completing WVBE-approved programs may provide evidence of:

- a. A master's degree from an accredited institution of higher education; OR
- b. Currently holding or having held a West Virginia professional teaching, administrative or student support service license; OR
- c. Attainment of WVBE-approved composite scores from a single administration of the American College Testing (ACT) Program or the Scholastic Achievement Test (SAT). See Appendix E of this policy for currently approved ACT and SAT scores. Waivers a and c do not apply to the institution's required assessments of speaking, listening and educational technology knowledge and skills. Individuals who currently hold or have held a West Virginia professional teaching, administrative or student support services license are not required to complete any of the preprofessional skills assessments.

6.3. Content Specialization Component.

6.3.1. Component Description. - Content specialization pertains to the specific teaching, administrative, or student support specialization(s) listed on a professional license in accordance with W.Va. Code §18A-3-1. See Appendix E of this policy for specific guidelines related to items a-g below for each specialization with the potential for approved program status. WVBE-approved specializations and grade level patterns are found in Appendix D of this policy. The content specialization program standards shall include:

- a. WVBE recognized national Content Specialization Standards for the public school curriculum pertaining to the specialization.
- b. WVBE policies or legislative initiatives that have implications for the teaching specialization.
- c. WVBE adopted content standards for the public school curriculum pertaining to the specialization standards.
- d. Content description(s) for the Praxis II tests identified for the specialization in West Virginia licensure requirements.
- e. Institutionally identified content standards.

f. Preparation standards promulgated by national professional associations for specific specializations.

g. Educational technology skills and knowledge related to specializations offered by the institution. (See Appendix C of this policy)

a. Elementary Education (K-6) programs. – Elementary education (K-6) programs shall include a minimum of 30 semester hours of coursework in English/language arts, health, mathematics, physical education, science, social studies and the arts such that the coursework is relevant to the curriculum delivered in the elementary K-6 classroom.

b. Middle Level (5-9) Programs. – Individuals completing two middle level (5-9) programs shall complete the minimum of a subject-area minor, as defined in Section 5.18 of this policy, in each subject.

c. Secondary Level Programs.

A. Secondary-level teacher preparation programs shall provide that their secondary-level programs (those programs emphasizing the secondary-level grades and including licensure to teach grades 10-12) in core academic areas require at least the equivalency of corresponding content majors in terms of academic rigor and credit hours completed in content areas.

B. Secondary-level education certification areas for which equivalency in content majors are required biology, business education, chemistry, Chinese, English, French, German, Japanese, general science, mathematics, modern foreign languages, physics, Russian, Spanish, and social studies.

C. Each secondary-level certification area referenced in Section 6.3.2.c.B. of this policy must include an equivalent number of credit hours of subject area content course work to the institution's baccalaureate major in the corresponding content field, with the following exceptions:

(a) For a baccalaureate major in a content field in which the credit hours for content course work exceed 48 hours, the number of content credit hours in the corresponding secondary-level teacher preparation program shall not be less than 48 credit hours.

(b) For secondary-level teacher preparation programs in general science and social studies, areas in which there is typically no corresponding baccalaureate degree, the minimum number of required credits hours in the content area shall not be less than 48. While the number of content hours in other secondary-level teacher preparation programs for certification areas listed in Section 6.3.2.c.B. of this policy is to be at least the equivalent of corresponding baccalaureate degrees, in no instance shall the number of credit hours in the content area of a secondary-level teacher preparation program be less than 36.

D. Each secondary-level certification area referenced in Section 6.3.2.c.B. of this policy must meet expectations of academic rigor similar to that of the corresponding baccalaureate degree programs. While the subject-area curriculum of the teacher preparation program may vary somewhat from the subject-area curriculum of the baccalaureate degree program, it must include some form of culminating educational experience in the content area, such as a capstone course. At the discretion of the institution, the curriculum may include applied courses in the content areas as deemed appropriate.

E. All secondary-level education certification areas not referenced in Section 6.3.2.c.B. of this policy must contain a subject-area major as defined in Section 5.17 of this policy.

F. All course work in a secondary-level teacher preparation program must be taught by faculty with appropriate in-field academic credentials. Typically, the faculty would serve in the academic department.

d. Within all WVBE-approved programs, institutions should seek to hire full-time faculty that have a minimum of one degree higher than the degree level at which they are teaching. Faculty shall have a degree(s) and/or professional licensure and/or expertise in the area(s) in which they are teaching.

6.3.3. Mathematics Content in Teacher Preparation.

a. Each elementary (K-6) teacher preparation must contain:

A. a minimum of nine hours of college-level mathematics courses, including a course in college algebra, and

B. a three-hour course in mathematics methods.

b. Each middle school (5-9) mathematics program must contain:

A. a minimum of twenty-one hours of college-level mathematics, including a course in college algebra, AND

B. a three-hour course in mathematics methods.

6.3.4. Reading Content in Teacher Preparation.

a. Each elementary education (K-6) teacher preparation program must contain a minimum of 9 hours of reading which include a focus on the five essential components of reading (i.e., phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary and comprehension) as well as how to assess students' reading ability and how to identify and correct reading difficulties.

b. Each middle (5-9) and secondary (PreK-Adult, 5-Adult, 9-Adult) preparation program must contain a minimum of three hours of reading in the content area which include a focus on vocabulary, comprehension and writing.

6.3.5. Special Education Content in Teacher Preparation.

a. All general education preparation programs must contain a minimum of six hours of preparation in special education, including a focus on the impact of each disability, the use of evaluation data generated from special education to assist with instruction, and the effective and efficient use of consultation.

b. All general education preparation programs must address the differentiation of instruction for diverse learners.

6.3.6. Instructional Technology Content in Teacher Preparation. All teacher preparation programs must contain a minimum of three semester hours of preparation in instructional technology which incorporate the standards identified in Appendix C-1 of this policy.

6.3.7. Educator's Assessment and Proficiency Levels. - Candidates for completion of a WVBE-approved program shall be required to meet WVBE Praxis II specialty area test score(s), if adopted, indicated for the anticipated specialization(s). A listing of current WVBE-required tests and passing scores is found in Appendix E of this policy.

6.4. Professional Education Component.

6.4.1. Component Description. - Professional Education includes the studies and experiences that prepare the prospective educator to integrate professional pedagogy and content knowledge into successful learning experiences for students. Each institution is required to develop a conceptual framework rooted in the Conceptual Foundation for Teaching and Learning in West Virginia (See Appendix A-1 of this policy) that establishes the shared vision for the unit's endeavor in preparing educators to work effectively in PreK-Adult schools. The conceptual framework shall include a description of its prospective professional educator by identifying the knowledge, skills, and dispositions it expects to develop and assess. The description will serve as the foundation on which the institution will base its curriculum and implement the clinical experiences for professional educators, school administrators, and student support personnel. The description shall reflect the appropriate West Virginia Professional Educator Standards listed in Appendices A-2 through A-4 of this policy. The educational technology skills for this component are listed in Appendix C of this policy.

6.4.2. Educator's Assessment and Proficiency Levels.

a. Professional Knowledge Assessment and Proficiency Levels. - Candidates completing a WVBE-approved teacher education program for any professional educator license shall pass a WVBE-adopted Principles of Learning and Teaching Praxis II test that includes at least a portion of the grade levels indicated on the anticipated license. (See Appendix E of this policy for a list of WVBE-required tests and passing scores.) The institution shall, with the cooperating public school(s), collaboratively establish the assessments and acceptable performance levels for the educational technology skills (See Appendix C of this policy) associated with the professional education component.

b. Performance Assessment Instruments. - Performance assessment instruments and procedures shall be collaboratively developed by public school administrators, classroom teachers, and teacher education faculty at the institutional level. The performance assessment instruments shall:

A. be consistent with relevant standards (i.e., West Virginia Professional Teaching Standards found in Appendix A-2 of this policy, appropriate Specialty Program Association Standards, institution teacher preparation standards, etc.);

B. include performance criteria and performance indicators rooted in the relevant Standards;

C. address the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to be acquired by professional candidates as set forth in program goals;

D. have multiple means of measuring candidate performance and impact;

E. specify candidate performance expectations, acceptable proficiency levels and designated benchmarks in the program; and

F. provide on-going, systematic information useful for decision-making.

c. Field-based Experiences. - All teacher candidates completing a WVBE-approved teacher preparation program for initial teacher licensure must complete a minimum of 125 clock hours of field experience under the direction of a teacher licensed to teach in the state, by the state's authorized agency, or their university supervisor in which the field experience is occurring, in each area in which they are seeking an endorsement. When the findings in the State Team Report verify that a content specialization and/or its components have serious weaknesses or the program lacks adequate documentation validating that the program is in compliance with the West Virginia Educator Preparation Program Standards, the Educator Preparation Program Review Board may withhold its recommendation to the WVBE to grant continuing program approval. Procedures for the operation of the Educator Preparation Program Review Board are outlined in the Guidelines for the Submission of New Content Specialization and the Guidelines for On-site Review Procedures.

§126-114-14. Annual Reports.

14.1. Annual Reports. - Each institution with a WVBE-approved program shall report annually to the WVBE on its progress to: a) meet any program component standards that are not fully met as identified by the Educator Preparation Program Review Board for new content specializations and/or reports from the state on-site review team, b) implement new legislative or WVBE initiatives or policies that impact the qualifications and preparation programs for new educational personnel, c) address any new program criteria that require implementation by the institution prior to the comprehensive or continuing on-site reviews, and d) maintain current program descriptions by identifying the major changes and initiatives undertaken during the past academic year. In addition to progress indicators, each institution shall contribute annually to the database related to the licensure and preparation of educational personnel and to the follow-up of the institution's graduates to ensure an adequate assessment of West Virginia's supply and demand for educational personnel. Data collected from institutions shall include, but not be limited to, demographics of the teacher candidates; the average raw score of candidates admitted to the program on the preprofessional skills test (taken prior to program admission); the number of candidates entering and completing student teaching in a reporting year; the number of graduates who passed state licensing exams (subject matter and pedagogy) on first attempt and multiple attempts; the satisfaction rating by cooperating teachers on student teachers from the institution; the average raw score of candidates on subject matter and pedagogy exams; evidence that the program informs candidates of certification areas that are identified as low-need areas; and evidence that the program encourages candidates to pursue certification in high-shortage areas. Additional data to be collected shall include initiatives underway in the unit and the unit's involvement with P-12 schools. The WVBE shall review the annual reports for compliance with the WVBE criteria specified for the annual report and for ongoing performance indicators. If the WVBE has concerns about the quality of the program based on these reports or other accepted performance indicators, these concerns shall be identified in a written notice to the institution. Any weakness and/or concerns identified through the program approval process shall be monitored annually by the WVBE.

14.2. Noncompliance. - An institution that fails to submit or to meet the criteria for any WVBE and/or national report or monitoring is subject to having the institution's program approval status withdrawn in addition to paying the required federal fines. When an institution fails to submit the required information, the WVBE may recommend an alteration in the program's approval status to the WVBE for review and action.

§126-114-15. Procedures for Initiating a New Content Specialization.

15.1. Authorization. - An institution currently delivering approved educational personnel preparation programs must obtain approval from its governing board for the implementation of any new program prior to seeking review by the authorized agency. All institutions participating in the collaborative delivery of a program shall obtain the authorization of their respective boards.

15.2. Self-Study. - The institution must develop a self-study that addresses all criteria established in the self-study guidelines for new content specializations. EPPAC review of the new content specialization must be documented.

15.3. Educator Preparation Program Review Board. - The self-study shall be submitted to the Educator Preparation Program Review Board for review. Upon review of the self-study, the Educator Preparation Program Review Board may:

15.3.1. Recommend to the WVBE that the program be implemented, with or without conditions; OR

15.3.2. Require additional documentation (written and/or as a result of an on-site review) to further determine the program's readiness for implementation; OR 15.3.3. Require additional program development before the program is recommended for implementation. The institution may request technical assistance from the authorized agency as provided in Section 18 of this policy.

§126-114-16. Procedures for Initiating an Experimental Program or for Conducting Research on Components on Implementation Procedures within Current Policy.

16.1. Experimental Programs. - An institution currently operating approved educational personnel preparation programs may seek approval for an experimental personnel preparation program in a teaching, student support services or administrative area where there is no current WVBE approved specialization leading to West Virginia licensure provided the self-study contains sufficient justification to warrant the new specialization. The institution is encouraged to collaborate with the WVDE during the program's initial planning stage. The institution must identify the program objectives for the experimental program from which the curriculum shall be developed. All aspects for the review and approval of an experimental program, other than WVBE adopted program objectives, are the same as those outlined in Section 15 of this policy for a new content specialization. The experimental program's self-study must comply with the guidelines adopted by the WVDE.

16.2. Research Options. - An institution operating approved educational personnel preparation programs may seek approval for a waiver from component requirements and or procedures in current policy for research purposes to determine if the alternative described in the waiver prepares candidates who are equal to or better than candidates subject to policy guidelines. Such request must be in writing and submitted to the Educator Preparation Program Review Board.

16.3. Program Guidelines. - An institution that seeks approval to offer an experimental program or a waiver of current policy must submit the proposal in research format by clearly indicating the objective of the project, the persons and agencies involved, the duration of the project, the assessment procedures and time lines, and the project coordinator. §126-114-20. Severability.

20.1. If any provision of this rule or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this rule.

Conceptual Foundation
For Teaching and Learning in West Virginia

Vision Statement

All students will achieve their maximum potential in order to become life-long learners and productive, responsible citizens. Therefore, it is fundamental to the interests of West Virginia's children to collaboratively maintain a thorough, efficient and accountable comprehensive educational system that meets the needs of West Virginia's future.

Core Beliefs

The education system in West Virginia is founded in the following beliefs about children, teaching, and learning:

- Students master core subjects in a contemporary context.
- Instruction always includes content in a contemporary context through the incorporation of relevant examples, applications and settings.
- Extensive contemporary content is available and used by students, including global awareness, civic and business literacy.
- Where applicable, schools create 21st century content that is relevant to the economic needs of their region, such as biotechnology, manufacturing or agricultural technology.
- Educational objectives and teaching strategies emphasize the integration of learning skills and 21st century tools, which comprises information, technology and communication (ITC) literacy.
- Learning skills and 21st century tools are used together to enable students to effectively build content knowledge.
- Through integrating learning skills and 21st century tools, students are able to do such things as access and communicate information, manage complexity, solve problems and think critically and creatively.
- 100% of students have access to 21st century tools.
- All assessment is learner-centered, formative, context-specific, ongoing and rooted in teaching strategies.

126CSR114

- All teachers use classroom assessments that demonstrate evidence of student performance in core subjects and 21st century skills.
- All teachers share with parents and students the information needed to monitor student progress in achieving learning goals.
- Students, teachers and parents always collaborate to monitor student progress in achieving learning goals and use assessment to evaluate long-term student progress.
- Most assessments use technology and record student performance as a means of tracking information over time.
- Teachers act as facilitators, resources and partners for teaching and learning.
- All teachers use adaptable and flexible teaching and learning strategies that integrate 21st century skills.
- All teachers act as role models in the application and use of 21st century skills.

APPENDIX A-2

West Virginia Professional Teaching Standards

As articulated in the reauthorizations of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, otherwise known as the No Child Left Behind Act, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, all teachers, including general and special education, need to complete rigorous preparation programs providing them with the knowledge, skills and dispositions necessary to teach all students, regardless of abilities and needs. As a response to this need, the Chief Council of State School Officers, hereinafter CCSSO, and the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium, hereinafter INTASC, developed a set of ten principles which identify those areas in which a new teacher must be prepared as s/he begins her/his initial teaching experience. Each of the principles includes a descriptor of the implications for new teachers when delivering instruction to students with disabilities.

Principle #1: The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and can create learning experiences that make these aspects of subject matter meaningful for students.

Implications for students with disabilities: Teachers demonstrate an understanding of the primary concepts and ways of thinking and knowing in the content areas they teach as articulated in INTASC subject matter principles and other professional, state, and institutional standards. They understand the underlying values and implications of disability legislation and special education policies and procedures as they relate to their roles and responsibilities in supporting the educational needs of students with disabilities. All teachers provide equitable access to and participation in the general curriculum for students with disabilities.

Principle #2: The teacher understands how children learn and develop and can provide learning opportunities that support the intellectual, social, and personal development of each learner.

Implications for students with disabilities: Teachers understand that all children have similar patterns of learning and development that vary individually within and across cognitive, social, emotional, and physical areas. They recognize that children with disabilities may exhibit greater individual variation in learning and development than students without disabilities, and that a disability often influences development and functioning in more than one area. Teachers use the knowledge of the impact of disabilities on learning and development to optimize learning opportunities for each student.

Principle #3: The teacher understands how students differ in their approaches to learning and creates instructional opportunities that are adapted to diverse learners.

Implications for students with disabilities: Students with disabilities come from a variety of cultures, languages, classes, and ethnicities. Disability, like other aspects of diversity, may affect a student's approach to learning and a teacher's approach to teaching. Teachers understand students with disabilities within the broader context of their families, cultural backgrounds, socioeconomic classes, languages, communities and peer/social groups.

Principale #4: The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage students' development of critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills.

Implications for students with disabilities: Ensuring that students with disabilities can participate successfully in the general curriculum requires teachers to tailor their instructional strategies to the particular learning needs of individual students. General and special education teachers use a variety of instructional strategies and technologies and know how to modify and adapt the general curriculum to accommodate individual students' needs. Students with disabilities who have goals related to an expanded curriculum will also need specialized instruction to achieve those goals.

Principle #5: The teacher uses an understanding of individual and group motivation and behavior to create a learning environment that encourages positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.

Implications for students with disabilities: Students' affiliation and acceptance within a community is an important basis for developing social responsibility, self-esteem and positive peer relations. Students learn more effectively when they are valued members of a learning community in which everyone can learn and grow. Teachers welcome students with disabilities and take deliberate action to ensure they are included as members of the learning community. Teachers may also need to structure activities that specifically foster engagement, self-motivation and independent learning in students with disabilities.

Principle #6: The teacher uses knowledge of effective verbal, nonverbal, and media communication technologies to foster active inquiry, collaboration, and supportive interaction in the classroom.

Implications for students with disabilities: Students with disabilities often have communication or language delays or disorders associated with their disabilities. They may require multiple and alternative modes of communication. Teachers set a high priority on establishing a safe and comfortable environment in which students with disabilities are encouraged and supported to use language and contribute their ideas. They teach language and communication skills, make accommodations to promote effective communication, and encourage and support the use of technology to promote learning and communication.

Principle #7: The teacher plans instruction based on knowledge of subject matter, students, the community and curriculum goals.

Implications for students with disabilities: While students with disabilities often pursue the same learning goals within the general curriculum and benefit from instruction in a manner that is similar of that of their non-disabled peers, they may require adjustments in goals, teaching strategies, or supports. Some students with disabilities may require an expanded curriculum that may include areas such as functional life skills, communication skills, or behavioral/social skills. Planning for students with disabilities requires an individualized plan of instruction and is a collaborative process that involves special and general educators, the student (when appropriate), families, and other professionals.

Principles #8: The teacher understands and uses formal and informal assessment strategies to evaluate and ensure the continuous intellectual, social and physical development of the learner.

Implications for students with disabilities: Individualized comprehensive assessments are required for students with disabilities and are used to determine eligibility for special education services, to plan individualized instruction, and to monitor and evaluate student performance. It is also expected that students with disabilities will participate in the overall assessment programs of the classroom, school district, and state, and that they may require accommodations to demonstrate their knowledge and skills. In addition, some students with disabilities may require assessments related to achievement in an expanded curriculum (i.e. alternate assessments).

Principle #9: The teacher is a reflective practitioner who continually evaluates the effects of her/hers choices and actions on others (students, parents, and other professionals in the learning community) and who actively seeks out opportunities to grow professionally.

Implications for students with disabilities: Teacher reflection is essential for designing, monitoring and adapting instruction for all students, including students with disabilities. Teachers reflect on their knowledge of the learning strengths and needs of individual students with disabilities, and question and evaluate the appropriateness and effectiveness of their instructional choices and practices for building on those strengths and meeting those needs. Based on their data-based reflections, teachers engage in actions that consistently support and promote the achievement of students with disabilities.

Principle #10: The teacher fosters relationships with school colleagues, families, and agencies in the larger community to support students' learning and well being.

Implications for students with disabilities: Families, schools, and communities are important contexts for teaching, learning, and development. Teachers advocate for students with disabilities to receive the support they need to be successful in the general curriculum and to achieve the goals of their individualized education plans. They collaborate with each other, with other professionals, and with families to ensure that students with disabilities are valued members of the classroom, school, and larger communities.

Adopted from the Model Standards for Licensing General and Special Education Teachers of Students with Disabilities from INTASC and CCSSO

DOCUMENTATION OF FOOTNOTES ON THE FOLLOWING TABLES

- *Indicates that the National Standards are used in the NCATE folio process.
- ¹The test validity period is ten years from the date on which the candidate passed the examination. In those circumstances where the WVBE has not altered either the required test or the passing score, the test and score shall remain valid beyond the ten-year period. See Section 10.5 of this policy for a more detailed explanation of testing requirements, particularly as they apply to experienced educators.
- ²The Pre-Professional Skills Test (PPST) [called Praxis I] may be waived provided the candidate: a) holds a master's degree from an accredited institution of higher education; or b) currently holds, or has held, a West Virginia Professional Teaching, Student Support Services or Administrative Certificate; or c) has attained a score of 25 on the American College Testing (ACT) program prior to November 1989 or an enhanced ACT score of 26 beginning November 1989; or d) has attained a score of 1035 on the Scholastic Achievement Test (SAT) prior to April 1995, or a re-centered SAT score of 1125 beginning April 1995.

- ⁴A candidate who has successfully completed the National Evaluation Systems (NES) test in emotional/behavior disorders, mentally impaired, or specific learning disabilities is not required to satisfy the Praxis II Education of Exceptional Students: Core Content Knowledge Test since it is assumed this content was included in the NES special education content test.
- ⁵For general science in grades 5-Adult, a candidate may substitute 1) Test No. 0235 (Biology: Content Knowledge) taken for biology certification for Test No. 0231 and/or 2) Test No. 0245 (Chemistry: Content Knowledge) or Test No. 0265 (Physics: Content Knowledge) for Test No. 0481.

July 8, 2007	Lynn Boyer, Executive Director WV Department of Education	§126-114-6: Professional Educator Preparation Program Requirements: Teacher Proposed language is "Teacher candidates seeing an endorsement in multicategorical shall successfully complete significant field experiences in each of the areas of behavior disorders, mental impairments, and specific learning disabilities." This has presented some confusion. I believe the intent is to be sure that a field based experience offers the teacher candidate seeking a multicategorical endorsement with opportunities to work with students who have been identified within those categories. I propose language that clarified that such as "Teacher candidates seeking an endorsement in multicategorical shall successfully complete field experiences that include instructional and behavioral support for students in each of the areas of behavioral disorders, mental impairments,	A ^o	This comment was accepted. The intent of the proposed change was to ensure that candidates for licensure in Multi-Categorical Special Education are exposed to students who been identified in those categories; therefore, the language in Policy 5100 has been modified to reflect the original intent.

No substantive changes to preparation programs, course codes, or teaching assignments will change as a result.
July 9, 2007	§126-114-6: Professional Educator Preparation Program Requirements: Teacher It is OVERKILL to require 125 field experience hours in EACH specialization. The executive summary does not mention this requirement, only that candidates will be required to spend time in each specialization, but not 125 hours each. 			This comment was not accepted as it pertains to an issue that was previously approved by the WVBE.

The concern of the Educator Preparation Program Review Board (EPRB) is that significant revisions could be made to programs after they have been granted approval by the WVBE; therefore, any programmatic changes greater than six semester hours are required to go before the EPRB for consideration prior to recommending the program to the WVBE for approval.
After consultation with the deans and chairs of educator preparation programs, the required demographics of candidates and faculty will be conveyed through a follow-up document. These reports are used for a variety of reasons, including technical requirements to the US Department of Education, WVBE, and WV Legislature. On page 34, the correct term is institutional and is listed correctly. The General Mathematics through Algebra I is different from the Mathematics program and is listed accordingly. If candidates are completing programs leading to licensure in the	NA°	credits of a program. I was on the Program Review Board when a program submitted 6 credits to delete from a 24 credit program, and the discussion was NOT that a change of 6 credits was a concern but the concern was that it was 25% of the program being deleted. This restriction is causing programs to not make reasonable modifications because of the hefty process of going through the Program Review Board. A better interpretation of the problem and a better change to policy would be to say that if 25% of more credits of a program is being modified, then it must go to the Program Review Board. §126-114-14: Annual Reports Please specify what "demographics" should be reported. Subject: a general recommendation for policies on comment

Hi, Nathan!

In the revisions to 2419 we changed the BD disability category to E/BD, i.e., emotional/behavior disorder.

You may want to do a search and replace in both your polices to see where it is relevant to make a change when the reference is to a student's area of disability.

I see in the Spec Ed Specializations chart, that the endorsement is Behavior Disorders (excluding Autism) but that 0371 under the Praxis Content Test is Teaching Student with Behavioral Disorders/Emotional Disturbances.

I don't know if you want to get into changing the name of the endorsement to E/BD. May be a little late for that this time. If you do want to consider it, however, please send me the section numbers of the policy and I'll help with wording.

Lynn

Comments for section 126-114-10 Additional Program Requirements

126-114-10.2.11 This is a comment on a previous change requiring a Program Review Board review of any program that changes more than 6 credits of a program. I was on the Program Review Board when a program submitted 6 credits to delete from a 24 credit program, and the discussion was NOT that a change of 6 credits was a concern but the concern was that it was 25% of the program being deleted. This restriction is causing programs to not make reasonable modifications because of the hefty process of going through the Program Review Board. A better interpretation of the problem and a better change to policy would be to say that if 25% or more credits of a program is being modified, then it must go to the Program Review Board.

Comments for section 126-114-14 Annual Reports

126-114-14. Please specify what "demographics" should be reported. We don't need to try to guess what they are. I am guessing sex and race/ethnicity. Anything else?

Will there be an electronic report format template prepared for us to use or will we each be making up our own.

ALSO, for sections not identified, just a couple of typos...p.34, last line of Standard 1 "institutions" paragraph; p. 46, Mathematics, there is no "Mathematics" 5-9...it is correctly listed under "General Mathematics" 5-9. There is no "Mathematics 5-9" on p.65 to correspond.

Also a question about the middle school areas of English, Gen Math, Gen Science and Social Studies...there is no provision on the required test charts for those students to take PLT K-6 or 7-12 if their primary field is elementary or secondary. MUST they take the 5-9 or can they take one of the others? This is confusing on these sections...p. 57, 59, 60, 71. Our students have never taken the 5-9, but instead either the K-6 or 7-12 depending on their primary field.

Requirements: Teacher

Proposed language is "Teacher candidates seeing an endorsement in multicategorical shall successfully complete significant field experiences in each of the areas of behavior disorders, mental impairments, and specific learning disabilities." This has presented some confusion. I believe the intent is to be sure that a field based experience offers the teacher candidate seeking a multicategorical endorsement with opportunities to work with students who have been identified within those categories. I propose language that clarified that such as "Teacher candidates seeking an endorsement in multicategorical shall successfully complete field experiences that include instructional and behavioral support for students in each of the areas of behavioral disorders, mental impairments, and specific learning disabilities."
