~~§153-9~~ 146-3-2. Definitions.

This section defines terms used in article eight, chapter three of the West Virginia Code and terms used in this rule which are not otherwise defined in chapter three.

2.1. "Election" means any primary, general or special election conducted under the provisions of this code or under the charter of any municipality.

2.2. "Candidate" means an individual who:

2.2.1. has filed a certificate of announcement under §3-5-5, §3-5-7 or a municipal charter;

2.2.2. has filed declaration of candidacy under §3-5-23;

2.2.4. has declared a write-in candidacy or otherwise publicly declared his or her intention to seek nomination or election to a state, district, county or municipal office or party office to be filled at any primary, general or special election.

2.3. "Pre-candidate" means, for the purpose of this rule, an individual who has filed a pre-candidacy statement under the provisions of §3-8-5e but has not yet filed a certificate of announcement or declaration of candidacy. This definition does not exclude a pre-candidate from the requirements and prohibitions relating to candidates in West Virginia Code.

2.4. "Ballot issue" means a constitutional amendment, special levy, bond issue, local option referendum, municipal charter adoption or revision, an increase or decrease of corporate limits, or any other question placed before the voters under the provisions of the West Virginia Code.

2.5. "Political purposes" means advocating or opposing the nomination, election or defeat of one or more candidates, supporting the administration or activities of an established political party or an organization which has declared itself a political party, supporting the administration or activities of a political committee, advocating or opposing the passage or defeat of a ballot issue, determining the advisability of becoming a candidate under the pre-candidacy financing provisions, and supporting the retirement of the debt of a candidate or political committee incurred for any of the above purposes.

2.6. "Political committee" means an association of persons, an organization of any kind, or any two (2) or more persons acting together, wholly or in part, to receive or expend money or other thing of value for political purposes.

This definition shall include but not be limited to political party executive committees, other committees operating in conjunction with a political party or using a political party name, political action committees and any other organizations, whether temporarily or permanently established, using any portion of their funds for political purposes.

This definition shall not include family members or members of a partnership acting together to make joint or individual contributions to a candidate or political committee.

2.7. "Candidate's committee" means a political committee established with the approval of or in cooperation with one pre-candidate or candidate to explore the possibilities of seeking a particular office ~~"test the waters"~~ and/or to advocate his or her nomination or election to an office in one election cycle. If a candidate directs or influences the activities of more than one committee, those committees shall be considered one committee for the purpose of contribution limits.

2.8. "Ballot issue committee" means a political committee established solely for the purpose of advocating or opposing a ballot issue and making which makes no expenditures to or on behalf of a candidate, political party or other political committee.

2.9. "Inaugural committee" includes any person, organization or group of persons soliciting or receiving contributions for the purpose of funding an inaugural event for an elected state official.

~~2-9~~ 2.11. "Treasurer" means an individual designated to act on behalf of a political committee to conduct the financial transactions of the committee. For the purposes of this rule, the term "treasurer" shall be used in place of "financial agent" as defined in §3-8-4 when the individual acts on behalf of more than one candidate or person.
