Honorable A. James Manchin
Secretary of State
State House
Charleston, WV 25305

Dear Secretary Manchin:

I am attaching two copies of EMERGENCY REGULATIONS to replace the Emergency Regulations that expire on December 1, 1984. These cover West Virginia Administrative Regulations for the State Department of Agriculture and revise all of the Animal Health regulations, Series I, and the first part of Series III, and are filed in accordance with Chapter 29A, Article 3, Section 7(a). These regulations are promulgated and issued under authority of the following: Chapter 19, Article 9, Section 2; Chapter 19, Article 9a, Section 7; and Chapter 19, Article 20, Section 4, Code of West Virginia, as amended. These are Legislative Regulations and become effective on December 1, 1984, as Emergency Regulations.

I hereby certify that these are the original regulations to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State on November 30, 1984.

With best regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Gus R. Douglass
Agriculture Commissioner

2.04. The Commissioner, after receiving an application for a permit to feed cooked garbage to swine or to renew the same, may cause an investigation to be made of the garbage feeding premises of the applicant, and all the equipment used for heating and treating garbage, to ascertain whether or not the premises and equipment are suitable and adequate. If it is found that the premises or equipment are inadequate for the heating, treating or feeding of garbage to swine, the permit shall be withheld until the applicant has provided adequate facilities.

2.05. All premises and equipment that are used for cooking and feeding garbage shall be kept in a sanitary condition.

Section 3. Interstate Movement of Swine Fed Uncooked Garbage

3.01. Swine shall not be imported into this State that have been fed or have had access to uncooked garbage. All persons, firms, corporations, partnerships or associations, or employees of the same, who operate a public market, concentration point, pickup station or any other kind of business where livestock is bought, sold, traded or received for resale, whether licensed by the Commissioner or not, shall not receive for resale, buy, sell or trade in any manner whatsoever any swine that they have reasons to believe have been fed or have had access to uncooked garbage.
