Fiscal Note Summary

Summarize in a clear and concise manner what effect this measure will have on costs and revenues of state government.

This rule increases fees and adds new fees for Public Health Laboratory services and environmental health services. Current revenue estimates from fees at the State Hygienic Lab total approximately $230,000 annually. The fees proposed by this rule could result in revenue increases for the Lab of up to approximately $70,000. In the Public Health Environmental services rule will allow for the collection of reasonable fees for services that are currently being provided. Currently, the Department doesn't receive any fees for the inspection, assistance and enforcement work that is being conducted by state public health sanitarians, with the exception of a Food and Drug Administration (FDA) contract to conduct 80 food manufacturing inspections annually. The fees generated from this rule will increase revenue for environmental health services by approximately $ 40,860.

In addition this rule includes the addition of fees to be assessed for Medical Adult Daycare, these fees are expected to increase revenues by $3,250 annually. The Medical Adult Day Care rule (64CSR2) was revised during the 2009 legislative session.

The total amount of additional revenue estimated to be generated by the proposed rule is $114,110

Fiscal Note Detail

Show over-all effect in Item 1 and 2 and, in Item 3, give an explanation of Breakdown by fiscal year, including long-range effect.

Effect of Proposal	Fiscal Year

1. Estimated Total Cost	0	0	0
Personal Services
Current Expenses

2. Estimated Total Revenues	114,110	114,110	114,110

3. Explanation of above estimates (including long-range effect):

Please include any increase or decrease in fees in your estimated total revenues.

Appendix A, the Laboratory Services Fees, has the potential for increasing revenue by $70,000 per year. Current revenues for chemistry testing, microbiology testing and certification services run $30,000, $150,000 and $50,000 respectively. Under the proposed increase the projected revenues will rise to $35,000, $200,000 and $65,000 respectively on an annual basis.

Appendix B Environmental Health Service Fees - authorizes an increase in two current fees associated with the On-site Wastewater Program and provides for new fees for the issuance of permits for the following existing programs: State Institutions, including juvenile detention centers, regional jails and correctional facilities, Food Service Establishments at State Health Facilities and Institutions, and Food Manufacturing Facilities, which includes Bottled Water Facilities.

Appendix C, Health Facility Fees includes Medical Adult Day Care facilities which will be subject to (a) site inspections, (b) architectural plan reviews and (c) building inspections that will generate revenue. It is estimated that five (5) site inspections, plan reviews and inspections per year will occur: (a) $5 \times $200$ + (b) $5 \times $150$ + (c) $5 \times $300 = $3,250$

Assisted Living facilities will be also be subject to pre-occupancy reviews. It is estimated that there will be one (1) review per year. $1 \times $400.00$ per review = $400.00

Memorandum

Please identify any areas of vagueness, technical defects, reasons the proposed rule would not have a fiscal impact, and/or any special issues not captured elsewhere on this form.

Public Health Sanitary Division staff currently conducts approximately 125 annual food manufacturing inspections. FDA contract pays for 80 inspections. Prior to 2008, FDA paid for 50 annual inspections. Numerous site visits are made for new manufacturers to assure construction compliance. Staff also conducts 90 routine food establishment inspections at state institutions. Re-inspections are also conducted on an as needed basis. Staff conducts 32 annual physical plant inspections at state operated juvenile detention centers, regional jails, and correctional facilities. Numerous complaints filed by inmates are also investigated as needed. The Onsite Sewage Program has implemented a random Home Aeration Unit (HAU) inspection program due to continuing issues with proper construction. New innovative onsite technologies have also increased the need for additional site visits to large developments considering cluster type installations.

FEES FOR SERVICES

BRIEF SUMMARY

The proposed legislative rule adds definitions, increases some existing fees and adds new fees for Laboratory Services in Appendix A, for Environmental Health Services in Appendix B, and for Medical Adult Day Care Centers and Assisted Living Residences in Appendix C.

For the lab, the proposed rule revises the names and scientific descriptions of tests to bring them up to date with current laboratory terminology and practices. A few fees are either reduced or eliminated. Most of the fee increases sought for the lab are very modest, but appropriate based on the type of testing needed, the equipment and expertise required to perform the test, and what is actually being done by the State Hygienic Laboratory.

For the Office of Environmental Health Services, only two fees have been increased and several categories of new permits for food manufacturers, bottled water producers and various state institutions have been added.

The two environmental fees that are proposed to be increased relate to on site sewage systems. Due to new and innovative technologies for onsite sewage dispersal, state public health sanitarians are making additional site visits to large developments considering cluster type installations. The Onsite Sewage Program has also implemented a random Home Aeration Unit HAU inspection program due to continuing issues with proper construction. These fee increases will help offset additional costs associated with this program.

The new permits will require the payment of an annual permit fee for inspection and certification to assure and document compliance with state public health law and rules for public health sanitation. The Bureau for Public Health is the agency responsible for inspection of state-owned and privately owned and operated facilities that manufacture, produce or sell food and bottled water, as well as for the inspection of state owned and operated facilities generally for compliance with public health sanitation standards. Currently, there is an inconsistent pattern of permitting such facilities and for collecting fees for inspections that the Bureau must conduct to determine the facility's compliance with public health laws and rules. Additionally, where state facilities have on-site food establishments (cafeterias or dining rooms) the Bureau for Public Health performs regular public health inspections and works with the facilities to maintain their compliance with public health requirements. This rule would allow the Bureau to charge fees for their services related to public health sanitation for numerous entities that have not here-to-fore paid for such permitting and inspection services.

For the Office of Health Facilities Licensure and Certification, fees have been added that were authorized in a 2009 rule for Medical Adult Day Care Centers and one fee for Assisted Living Residences is authorized, but inadvertently left out last time, has been included.

The fee for preparation of a delayed certificate of birth or death is proposed to be raised by $5.00, from $15.00 to $20.00. The revenue from this increase will be de minimus.

FEES FOR SERVICES

STATEMENT OF CIRCUMSTANCES

With respect to Appendix A, Laboratory Services Fees, there have been a number of changes to the methods and nomenclature for testing of inorganic chemicals and miscellaneous tests since the last revision of this rule in 2004. Additionally, new services for laboratory certification have been in demand and this rule authorizes reasonable fees for the provision of those services.

With respect to Appendix B, Environmental Health Services Fees, several things have transpired to require that this agency propose to initiate new permit programs to allow for the collection of reasonable fees for services that we are currently providing. The Bureau doesn't receive any fees for the inspection, assistance and enforcement work that is being conducted by state public health sanitarians.

For example, there are currently 125 Food Manufacturing and bottled water producing facilities in operation in the state, with another 40 or so, currently inactive. These are private businesses that range in size from the smallest, with gross annual sales of less than $25,000 to the largest with gross sales of more than $50 million dollars a year. We have the legal responsibility to inspect these facilities. We have had an annual contract with the FDA for a number of years which now currently pays for the inspection of 80 facilities. This number was recently increased from 50. The proposed permit system will allow the Bureau to set a statewide uniform standard for all of these inspections and authorize the charging of graduated annual permit fees to help defray the increasing cost to the program of inspecting additional facilities.

The State Bureau for Public Health also conducts regular and follow-up inspections of state correctional institutions and food establishment facilities at a variety of state facilities to check for compliance with public health sanitation regulations. The rule allows the Bureau to charge a fee for these inspections and again establishes a graduated price for annual permits based on the size of the facility or institution.

In these challenging economic times we strive to provide the best services to protect the public health in all aspects that are assigned to us by law. We do our best to insure that all of these businesses (food manufacturers and bottled water producers) and state government facilities are operated in a safe and sanitary manner. This rule seeks to collect the costs associated with an annual permit for such public health sanitation services in order to help maintain the quality of our programs.

With respect to Appendix C, additional fees for Medical Adult Day Care Centers were authorized by a legislative rule in 2009 and one fee for Assisted Living Residences was added.

COMMENT and RESPONSE

Comment # 1:

The first, and only, comment was submitted by email, on Monday, July 27, 2009, from John Wilkinson, Director of the Office of Health Facility Licensure and Certification. (OHFLAC) I have attached a copy of the comment Memo and cover email.

Response to Comment #1:

The Memo states that a new rule, Medical Adult Day Care, 64CSR2, authorizes the assessment of fees for certain inspections and reviews associated with the initial application and approval process for such facilities.

We reviewed the MADC rule and agree that the Office of Health Facilities Licensure and Certification has this authority. Therefore, we agree with the recommendation in the Memo that these three new fees be added to Appendix C of the Fees For Services rule.

Also, the Memo suggests the addition of a fee for the building inspection of an Assisted Living Residence prior to opening. This type of fee has been authorized but was unintentionally left out of the previous amendment to this rule. It is appropriate to include this additional fee in this Agency Approved filing.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Ann Spaner, Legal Counsel
Bureau for Public Health

FROM: John Wilkinson, Office Director
Office of Health Facilities Licensure and Certification

SUBJECT: Addition to Fees for Service Rule suggested during comment period

DATE: July 27, 2009

It has come to our attention that fees to be assessed for Medical Adult Day Care Centers do not currently appear in the Fee for Service Rule (64CSR51). As you will recall, the Medical Adult Day Care rule (64CSR2) was revised during the 2009 legislative session. Section 5.5 of that rule authorizes the assessment of fees for certain inspections and reviews associated with the initial application and approval process.

Please add the following to the Fee for Service rule:

(DEFINITION)

Medical Adult Day Care Center: An ambulatory health care facility which provides an organized day program of therapeutic, social, and health maintenance and restorative services and whose general goal is to provide an alternative to twenty-four hour long term institutional care to elderly or disabled adults who are in need of such services by virtue of physical and mental impairment.

(SPECIFIC FEES - to be added to each section of Health Facility Fees, Appendix 64-51-3, formerly Appendix C, of the Fee for Service Rule)

Under Section 1 add: G. Medical Adult Day Care Centers.....$200.00
Under Section 2 add: L. Medical Adult Day Care Centers.....$150.00
Under Section 3 add: H. Medical Adult Day Care Centers.....$300.00

In addition to the changes necessary for the Medical Adult Day Care rule, it has also come to our attention that the fee for the building inspection prior to opening is also not currently listed for Assisted Living Residences. In that regard, please add:

Under Section 3 add: I. Assisted Living Residences.....$400.00
