

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

- Whereas, public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities, and services that are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities and to public health, high quality of life, the well-being of the people of West Virginia; and
- Whereas, such infrastructure, facilities, and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, who are engineers, managers, and employees at all levels of government and the private sector, who are responsible for rebuilding, improving, and protecting our nation's transportation, water supply, water treatment and solid waste systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential for our citizens; and
- Whereas, it is in the public interest for the citizens, civic leaders, and children in the Mountain State to gain knowledge of and maintain an ongoing interest and understanding of the importance of public works and public works programs in their respective communities; and
- Whereas, the year 2025 marks the 65th annual National Public Works Week sponsored by the American Public Works Association.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim May 18-24, 2025 as:

National Public Works Week

in the Mountain State and urge all citizens to join me in observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Eighteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Five, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Second year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
