

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

- Whereas, more than 51.4 million Americans cannot read or write at the most basic level while 75.1 million lack basic math skills, as well as the credentials and skills necessary to succeed in post-secondary education; and
- Whereas, every year, one in three young adults drops out of high school; and
- Whereas, the American Action Forum estimates that America is short an estimated 7.5 million private sector workers across all skill levels; and
- Whereas, Adult Education programs contribute to solving these challenges by helping Americans move along the continuum in their educational journey to achieve basic skills and get prepared for a career or college; and
- Whereas, Adult Education programs in high schools and adult schools, community colleges and community centers offer low cost, high-value programs that upgrade the skill set of our citizens; and
- Whereas, the Great State of West Virginia celebrates Adult Education and Family Literacy Week as a proud participant in the national Educate and Elevate Campaign which helps our citizens learn about all of their Adult Education options to attain their professional and personal goals.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim September 15-19, 2025 as:

Adult Education and Literacy Week

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Fifteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Five and in the One Hundred Sixty-Third Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
Governor
