

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

- Whereas, school service personnel are involved in nearly every aspect of education by maintaining buildings and grounds, preparing and serving meals, keeping school facilities clean and orderly, and assisting in the classroom, as well as providing administrative support functions, safe transportation, and many other specialized services; and
- Whereas, school service personnel are instrumental in West Virginia's responsibility to educate all students; and
- Whereas, these dedicated individuals serve the children of West Virginia in our public education system and have an important role in non-instructional service to the education system; and
- Whereas, it is fitting that we recognize the outstanding work these individuals do for this state, their communities, and the students enrolled in West Virginia schools.

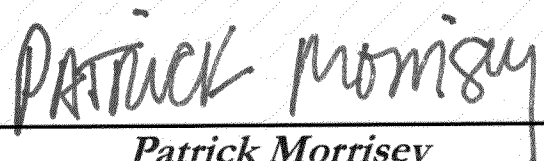

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim September 18, 2025, as:

West Virginia School Service Personnel Day in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Five, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Third Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
Governor

By the Governor:

Kris Warner
