

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

- Whereas, the Filipino American community in West Virginia has made significant contributions to the cultural, social, and economic life of the state, enriching our society with their traditions, values, and dedication to civic life; and
- Whereas, the Filipino American Festival celebrates the rich cultural heritage, customs, and history of the Filipino American community, highlighting their contributions to the arts, music, dance, and culinary traditions; and
- Whereas, the festival, held on October 18, 2025, will provide an opportunity for all West Virginians to come together to learn about and experience the vibrant Filipino culture while fostering unity and understanding among all residents; and
- Whereas, the Filipino American Festival will serve as a reminder of the importance of different cultures in the Mountain State, showcasing the strength and beauty that they bring to our communities.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim October 18, 2025, as:

Filipino American Festival Day in West Virginia

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

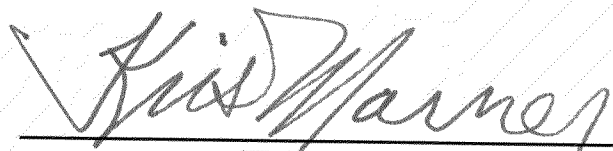

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Five, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Third Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
