

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

- Whereas, in 1975, Congress voted to make November 11, Veterans Day, in honor of our veterans; and
- Whereas, the greatest acknowledgment of our freedom is to honor our Armed Forces veterans who have sacrificed and, in many instances, paid the ultimate price for that freedom; and
- Whereas, the Great State of West Virginia recognizes and respects veterans for their contributions to our freedom and security; and
- Whereas, both the men and women of our Armed Forces continue to be an inspiration to us all through their demonstration of courage, leadership, and commitment in service to our communities and our country; and
- Whereas, we in the Mountain State will always remember and pay homage to our military community for their contributions, dedication, and, for some, the ultimate sacrifice for the cause of our freedom.

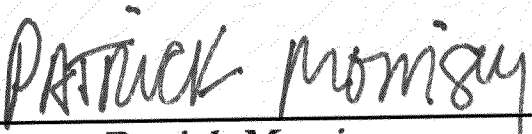

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim November 11, 2025 as: in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance and give special honor and recognition to the men and women who served in our armed forces.

West Virginia's Veterans Day

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Eleventh day of November, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Four, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Third Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
Governor
