WHEREAS, the day after Thanksgiving, also known as Lincoln's Day, is a state holiday under West Virginia Code Section 2-2-1(a)(11), that provides an additional day for West Virginians to celebrate with friends and family; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of the hard work accomplished by the public employees of this State, and in the spirit of showing gratitude to them, it is fitting and proper that the public employees of this State be permitted to cease business for the last half of the workday on November 26, 2025, to extend their Thanksgiving celebration with loved ones.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PATRICK MORRISEY, pursuant to the foregoing and by virtue of the authority vested in me as the Governor of the State of West Virginia, do hereby PROCLAIM and ORDER that the public employees of this State may be excused from their work duties on the last half of Wednesday, November 26, 2025, without charge against accrued annual leave; and do further PROCLAIM that this ORDER shall not affect private businesses, local governments, and other entities and individuals not employed by the State of West Virginia; nor shall it affect the work requirements of those public employees who may be called upon to safeguard the health, safety, and welfare of West Virginia's citizenry and who will be compensated in accordance with the legislative rules established by the West Virginia Division of Personnel. designate the last half of Wednesday, November 26, 2025, as a half-day of time off for county employees without charge against accrued annual leave, and the courts may treat the day as if it were a half-day legal holiday.
