

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

- Whereas, Panhandle Home Health was founded in 1976 to provide compassionate, high-quality home healthcare services to residents in the comfort of their own homes; and
- Whereas, for fifty years, Panhandle Home Health has served the citizens of Berkeley, Jefferson, and Morgan Counties, helping patients recover from illness, manage chronic conditions, and maintain independence through skilled nursing, therapy, social work, and supportive care services; and
- Whereas, Panhandle Home Health's dedicated team of nurses, therapists, social workers, aides, and healthcare professionals work each day to improve the health and well-being of individuals and families across West Virginia's Eastern Panhandle; and
- Whereas, home health care plays a vital role in strengthening communities by allowing individuals to receive quality care while remaining safely and comfortably in their homes; and
- Whereas, the year 2026 marks the 50th Anniversary of Panhandle Home Health, celebrating five decades of service, compassion, and commitment to community-based healthcare.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim April 1, 2026, as:

Panhandle Home Health 50th Anniversary Day in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the First Day of April, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Six, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Third Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
Governor

By the Governor:

Kris Warner
Secretary of State