

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

Whereas, Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Professionals serve an essential role in the criminal justice system by enhancing public safety, supporting accountability, and facilitating lawful behavior for individuals under supervision within the State of West Virginia; and

Whereas, these professionals work in coordination with courts, law enforcement, treatment providers, victims' advocates, and community organizations to promote the fair and effective administration of justice; and

Whereas, Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Professionals employ evidence-based practices to reduce recidivism, support rehabilitation, and promote successful reentry into the community; and

Whereas, individuals under pretrial, probation, and parole supervision are provided structured oversight, access to services, and opportunities to make positive and responsible choices; and

Whereas, Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Week offers an opportunity to recognize the professionalism, dedication, and service of these public servants in strengthening communities throughout the State.

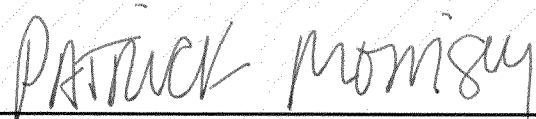

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim July 19-25, 2026, as:

Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Week in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Fourteenth Day of July, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Six, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Fourth Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
Governor
