

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

- Whereas, Toyota West Virginia has grown from a single-engine manufacturing facility into a cornerstone of advanced automotive manufacturing, representing billions of dollars in investment and serving as a key contributor to West Virginia's economic success for nearly three decades; and
- Whereas, Toyota West Virginia provides stable, high-quality employment opportunities for more than 2,000 team members and supports thousands of additional jobs through suppliers, contractors, and local businesses throughout the Mountain State; and
- Whereas, Toyota West Virginia's operations have generated significant economic benefits for the State through capital investment, workforce development, community engagement, tax revenues, and partnerships that strengthen local communities and enhance the quality of life across the region; and
- Whereas, Toyota West Virginia has cultivated a culture of service and stewardship by supporting charitable organizations, educational initiatives, volunteer efforts, and community programs that enrich lives, empower future generations, and contribute to the vitality of the Mountain State; and
- Whereas, Toyota West Virginia continues to build on its legacy of innovation and excellence through ongoing investments in advanced technologies, electrified vehicle components, workforce training, and next-generation manufacturing—positioning both the company and the State of West Virginia for a strong and prosperous future.

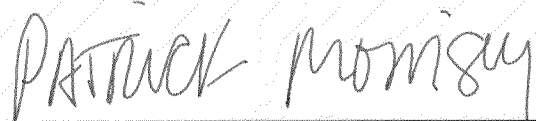

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim September 24, 2026, as: in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

Toyota West Virginia Day

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Fourteenth Day of September, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Six, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Fourth Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
Governor

By the Governor:

Kris Warner
Secretary of State