

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

Whereas, school service personnel are involved in many aspects of education: maintaining buildings and grounds, preparing and serving meals, keeping school facilities clean and orderly, and assisting in the classroom, as well as providing administrative support functions, safe transportation, and many other specialized services; and

Whereas, school service personnel fulfill an important role in the education of West Virginia's students; and

Whereas, these dedicated individuals serve the children of West Virginia in our public education system and provide non-instructional services to the education system; and

Whereas, it is fitting to recognize the outstanding work these individuals do for this State, their communities, and the students enrolled in West Virginia schools.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim September 24, 2026, as:

West Virginia School Service Personnel Day in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Twenty-Fourth Day of September, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Six, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Fourth Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
Governor
