

Proclamation

by Governor Patrick Morrisey

Whereas, the Great State of West Virginia and the Republic of China (Taiwan) have enjoyed a working relationship for many years; and

Whereas, the year 2026 marks the 250th anniversary of the founding of the United States of America and the 30th anniversary of Taiwan's directly electing its president; and

Whereas, the partnership between Taiwan and West Virginia has brought together many individuals who have developed not only working relationships but true personal friendships; and

Whereas, the citizens of West Virginia celebrate and wish for many more years of continued prosperity.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Patrick Morrisey, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim October 10, 2026, as:

115th National Day of Taiwan

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Tenth Day of October, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Six, and in the One Hundred Sixty-Fourth Year of the State.

Patrick Morrisey
Governor
